

There follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of APRIL THROUGH JUNE, 2014.

The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
East Central College Art Instructor Jennifer Higerd and her students join the show to help promote an annual Art Walk in Down Town Washington which is open to the public.	Monday, April 7 9:15 45 minutes	East Central College Art Instructor and students share the responsibility of organizing an Art Walk and Exhibition og student art work on this annual tour which highlights architecture and work by local artists.
Family Fun Day, originally initiated by CASA, is now a joint community organizational effort to help children and parents access and learn about services offered in Franklin County for the disabled and underserved population.	Wednesday, April 9 9:15 45 minutes	Amanda Jones from Grace's Place, a temporary home for young children, explains the service booths on display as well as the efforts of CASA and the Children's Advocacy Center in sponsoring Family Fun Day on April 12.
The Children's Relay For Life, held at Washington High School on an annual basis is planned and organized by the high school Leadership Class, this year on April 25. Hundreds of children participate from surrounding schools to help in fighting childhood cancer.	Friday, April 11 9:15 45 minutes	Blake Straatmann, along with members of his committee, Allison Hancock and Alex Reidy, explain and promote the importance of participating in the children's Relay For Life. They describe the agenda for this after school events and how the funds will help those in need.
Natural Healing Centers, located in Union, offers side-effect free alternatives to prescriptive medicines. With allergy season around the corner, Dr. Rose Fischer explains some alternative relief available.	Thursday, april 17 7:45 15 minutes	Chiropractor and R.N. Dr. Rose Fischer promotes a free open house to explore alternative ways to treat allergies and describes why we suffer from them. She also offers non-prescription ways to eliminate knee and ankle pain.
Gordon Upchurch has established a new Franklin County Senior Forum to help caregivers and patients with concerns. The first meeting is april 30.	Friday, April 25 8:35 25 minutes	The Franklin County Senior Forum's first meeting will be devoted to questions and concerns about housing for seniors and the many alternatives available. People involved in senior housing will be available so caregivers are able to be guided through the best decision.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
For the second year, The Washington Fire Department will offer a Junior Fire Academy. It will be open to interested youth interested in the field training, and basic medical assistance needed to save lives in the event of a crisis.	Wednesday, May 7 8:35	25 minutes	Lt. Nicholas Risch joins the show to explain the success of last years Junior Fire Academy, and help promote interest in this year's session. He takes us through the training, the personnel and their area of expertise, and the curriculum, which is based on national standards.
East Central College is represented on the show each month by Public relations director Dot Schowe. This month is especially busy due to the Health Fair on May 9. She also highlights the many other activities for the month of May.	Wednesday, May 7 9:30	30 minutes	PR Director for ECC Dot Schowe describes what to expect at the Health Fair, being held in the auditorium on Friday, May 9. She describes the medical tests that will be performed and the various service booths. The Spring Musical, Summer School, and Graduation are also discussed.
Washington, Missouri is celebrating its 175th Birthday in 2014 with many special historical activities. On Saturday, May 24 a Parade and Old Fashion Picnic will be held at the City Park.	Wednesday, May 14 7:45	15 minutes	Harriet Sallaberry and Nancy Walkenhorst the the Co-Chairman of the Picnic in the Park on May 24. They describe the food, games, competitions, and entertainment as well as the Parade exhibitions.
Emmaus Homes provide work and housing for adults with disabilities. They rely heavily on fundraising and volunteers to cover expenses. For the second year, they will host "Baconfest," on June 14 at the Washington City Park Swine Pavilion.	Wednesday, May 21 9:40	20 minutes	Hailey Highfill and Suzie Pundmann, Emmaus Administrators and organizers of this year's event explain how people can attend and what to expect. Many foods containing bacon will be for sale and a tasting area with food and drink will be provided.
The 10th Anniversary of the Trail Ride will take place on June 4 for the purpose of allowing seniors and others with disabilities to enjoy the beauty of the Trail by riding a guided tour tram through the three mile stretch of park along the Missouri River in Washington.	Thursday, May 22 7:45	15 minutes	Barb Hellmann and Sharon Monzyk, originators of the Trail Ride 10 years ago, explain the expansion of the day into food, fun, games, and Trail Ride. The Washington Parks now takes reservations and help with the organization because of the hundreds of people attending.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
The Race Across America is a 30 years old bicycle race with 54 stops and covers 3,000 miles, spanning from California to Annapolis, Maryland. A local bike shop is designated as the 34th time station stops in the journey to raise money for charities.	Wednesday, June 11	9:15	45 minutes	Joe Ferguson from Revolution Cycles in Washington joins the show to explain the race, riders, records, and the physical and emotional challenges involved in the race. He promotes our area as the 34th time station and invites volunteers to help around the clock in their efforts.
The University of Missouri Extension, located in Union, offers help and advice in several agricultural areas. Food safety is managed by the Franklin County Nutrition and Health Specialist, who gives tips and advice about canning, freezing, and new products.	Thursday, June 12	8:15	15 minutes	Nutrition and Health Specialist for the University of Missouri Extension Mary Schroepfer explains the best and newest ways to assure success when canning and freezing fresh vegetables from the garden.
On a monthly basis, Kyle Kruse, Superintendent of Schools for the New Haven School District, joins the show to inform listeners of any changes planned or in effect within the schools.	Thursday, June 12	9:15	45 minutes	Superintendent Kyle Kruse explains the history and the future of Common Core in Missouri and what this means in setting standards for learning. He also discusses the addition of air conditioning for the High School, the new track, summer school, and the one to one computer project.
Downtown Washington holds many special events each month to keep the downtown thriving. A representative joins the show each month to explain these events and promote community participation.	Friday, June 13	7:45	15 minutes	Danielle Grotewiel, staff member, and Brian Bogue, Board Member, explain Clean Up Day on June 21, Thirsty Thursday on June 19, Sunset on the Riverfront on June 26, and the Sidewalk Sale on June 28.
A local volunteer and advocate for mental health describes a free seminar she will be hosting for the community concerning depression, especially in successful men.	Thursday, June 19	8:15	15 minutes	Brenda Poinsett will be hosting a free seminar titled: When Saints Sing the Blues. During the session she will describe symptoms, diagnosis, and steps to take and services to rely on.