

There follows a listing of significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant local programming treatment of those issues for the period of April through June, 2023. The order does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
One of our new guests in April, Dist. 119 State Rep Brad Bander mann came on to talk about all of what is going on in the state legislature. We invite all local elected officials to come on and to have a chance to talk to the people they represent.	April 10th	9:20	40 minutes	Mr. Bander mann joined the show in April to talk about how things were going since he got elected to the 119th District and how he is moving into his new role. They also talked about current issues of the time and much more. Through this interview and others like it, we hope to give voters the chance to talk with the politician and voice that questions and concerns in the hope that it makes our communities better in the future.
[REDACTED]	April 17th	9:20	40 minutes	Franklin County Narcotics Unit detective Darrin Jones and Andree Swanson came on the air to talk about their program they were hosting in April called "Fentanyl in Franklin County". Detective Jones talked about what officers are seeing in the county related to this issue, and Ms. Swanson talked about what they are doing to bring awareness to the fentanyl crisis.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Another new guest we had in April was Steve Sullivan, who works with the New Haven Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber has many events going on throughout the summer, which includes their Farmer's Market and Miller's Landing Day, which is the original name of the town before the name was changed to New Haven.	April 19th	9:20	35 minutes	In an effort to make the KLPW listening audience aware of what is going on in the surrounding communities, we invite members of local area Chamber of Commerce's to talk about the events they are hosting through the summer and throughout the year. In this way KLPW is attached to the communities we serve and the listening audiences who live there.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
The Union High School FFA Chapter has many great events and fundraisers throughout the year. These include produce and plant sales to help raise money for the chapter. Samantha Monzyk and students from Union High came in studio in May to talk about their annual Plant Sale.	May 1st	8:40am	20 minutes	Ms. Monzyk and her students talked with Diane about all of what they do to get ready for the plant sale each year. This includes planting, watering and pricing the plants when they are ready to sell. Also, they talked about where the money ends up that they earn from the plant sale, which goes to supplies they need for next year's sale. Through this interview KIPW helps the community by helping these FFA members learn how to operate and business and do it successfully.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
The East Central College Senior Expo & Health Fair is an annual event that allows area organizations and business to talk with area seniors about retirement, and other benefits that they can receive.	May 10th	8:15	20 minutes	Joel Doecker joined Diane to talk about all of the vendors and other features that are going on during this year's health fair. These included giveaways and other items that they could receive from area organizations. Through these types of interviews, we hope to connect area listeners to the opportunities they have.
As a part of KLPV's current series on "You and Your Community," we will be interviewing historical architect, Mr. Joel Doecker, on the history of the Gateway Arch. Through these types of historical interviews, we hope to inform the listening audience on what their community once looked like many years ago.	May 25th	8:40	20 minutes	Mr. Guenther joined Diane to talk all about the history and interesting features of the Gateway Arch. Through these types of historical interviews, we hope to inform the listening audience on what their community once looked like many years ago.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Through the past couple of months, we have had local representatives from area banks come on to talk about Bank Fraud and all of what it entails. This is known as the Community Fraud Campaign which includes local banks such as United Bank of Union, Bank of Washington, Bank of Franklin County and Heritage Community Bank.	June 16th	8:15	25 minutes	Representatives Jess Bowen, Laetia Nappier, and Natalie Cash came on the air in June to talk about how to protect your finances and other sensitive info from scammers and identity thieves. Also discussed was the recent ransomware attacks on financial institutions nationwide.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
In addition to KLPW carrying Post 218 American Legion Baseball, we also invite members of the Legion to come on and talk about their events throughout the year. In June, we had Mark Kimball come in to talk about the "Star Spangled 4th" event that takes place on the 4th of July in Washington	June 20th	8:40	20 minutes	Mark came on the air to talk about the event as well as what activities they have at the event besides the firework display. This includes bouncy houses and other games for the kids. Through this event and others that the Legion hosts throughout the year, the Legion raises money to help area veterans and veterans around the country.
Every year in the month of June, a member of the STL Dairy Council comes on to talk about June Dairy Month. June Dairy Month is intended for kids and their parents alike with the goal of showing how important dairy is in a everyday diet.	June 19th	8:40	20 minutes	In addition to bringing in the tasty dairy treats, the Dairy council comes on the air to talk about the importance of dairy and how it should be a part of every meal. With this interview and other events like it, KLPW and the STL Dairy Council hopes that we are making a difference in the listening audiences everyday diet.