

There follows a listing of the significant local issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of OCTOBER THRU DECEMBER 2019. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Foundations for Franklin County is a non-profit organization dedicated to creating a safe, drug free community by connecting individuals and families in crisis with health professionals and human resource providers. They provide such things as legal aid, food, shelter, housing, and health care.	Wed. Oct. 2	8:40	20 minutes Executive Director Daphne Russell and Board member Lisa Kiminau promote a special annual fundraiser "Taste of Franklin County" which is an evening of tasting food and wines from area restaurants and wineries. Everything is donated and ticket sales provide needed services for the community.
P.E.O. Chapter CD is an international organization that provides educational scholarships for women and owns and supports Cottey College in Nevada, Missouri, a women's liberal arts school. These efforts are realized through funding by scores of P.E.O Chapters throughout the country.	Mon. Oct. 7	8:15	15 minutes Chapter C.D. President Cindy DuMontier and Board member Jane Dill promote a collaboration of Chapters for an Erin Bode Concert fundraiser which took place at the Farmer's Outdoor Market in Washington on Oct. 13.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

The Franklin County Humane Society provides adoption, health care, and housing for hundreds of dogs and cats in the county. They are a non-profit organization that exists without government subsidies. All of their work and services are done through volunteers and contributions.	Wed. Oct. 9	8:40	20 minutes	Laura Amlong is the new Director of Development. She joins the show to help promote an annual event "Strut Your Mut." This event is a gathering of walkers, games, food, and fun. It promotes awareness, education, and camaraderie among pet owners as well as raising needed funds for the shelter.
When Mourning Comes offers bereavement care to those in mourning of a loved one through death and suicide. Therapeutic interventions, crisis response, educational speaking, suicide loss support are offered.	Fri. Oct. 11	9:20	40 minutes	Rebecca Feltmann is an RN, Bereavement Specialist, and a Certified Mental Health First Aid Provider that offers professional guidance as an intuitive Healing Companion. Today she focused on teen suicide, due to several local teen suicides.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Exceptional Equestrians is a non-profit organization that provides hippo therapy, adaptive riding and equine-assisted learning services to children, teens and adults with physical, cognitive and mental health challenges. Their mission is to better the lives of people of all abilities through the healing power of horses.	Fri. Nov. 15	8:15	15 minutes Director of Exceptional Equestrians of the Missouri Valley Lindsey Moore, along with Board member Bill Schuck join the show to help recruit volunteers for the coming year. They now serve 100 individuals a week, ages 2 and up which requires up to 90 volunteers weekly.
Lutheran Family and Children's Services of Missouri serves nearly 50,000 people across the state each year, and has They offer adoption, foster care, parenting, and behavioral health services and counseling.	Wed. Nov. 20	8:40	20 minutes Trauma Care Coordinator Ann Denney goes into detail about the behavioral health services offered, including school and community based counseling, child, couples and family therapy. They are partly funded through United Way and the Franklin County CRB.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Music and local bands have been a lively and artistic part of the Washington community. The annual Blues Festival highlights local talent. One group that stands out is the Washmo Blues Society which has gained recognition on an international level.	Wed. Nov. 27	7:45	15 minutes J.R. Jones and the other five members of the Washmo Blues Society Band join Diane to talk about their upcoming experience of competing in the Memphis International Blues Challenge in February. They talk about their roles in the band and their history as well as where they are performing locally.
The Washington Chamber of Commerce is host to dozens of very popular community events throughout the year, including the Washington Town and Country Fair, the Art and Wine Festival and many others. One winter and Christmas event is the annual Olde Fashion Christmas.	Mon. Nov. 25	9:40	20 minutes Washington Chamber of Commerce Director Amanda Griesheimer highlights what to expect at The Farmer's Market during Olde Fashion Christmas, which kicks off the Christmas season with the Main Street Festival of Lights Parade, cookie decorating, hot chocolate, games, music, and a visit from Santa.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

A new five year strategic plan, SOAR 2024, is in the implementation phase for East Central college. After input from faculty, students and community groups, the plan has been set in motion. It includes a five step new vision which shapes the future of the college.	Th. Dec. 5	8:40	20 minutes ECCC President John Bauer joins the show to discuss the five year plan. Its focus is on career and support pathways, strengthening partnerships, retention, expanding offerings at the Rolla campus, and securing financial strength.
Prop S, a $26 million dollar no-tax increase bond issue was passed by voters in the Washington School District by voters in April 2019. It will provide upgrades to all schools in the district but will also replace South Point Elementary School to a new location on Highway 100 at St. John's Road.	Fri. Dec. 6	8:40	20 minutes Washington School District Superintendent Dr. Lori Van Leer explains the safety upgrades planned for all school buildings. The new two-story, 78,000 square foot K-6 grade facility expects to go to bid in January, with plans slated to open in August 2021 and replace the South Point building.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Court Appointed Special Advocates, Franklin County CASA, works to improve the lives of abused and neglected children. Volunteers are trained to advocate in the court system, and secure safe, permanent home for all needy children in the county.	Mon. Dec. 9	7:45	15 minutes Franklin County Judge Joseph Purschke and CASA Director Glenda Volmert talk about how volunteers are trained to sponsor needy children and what their responsibilities are to them. They also promote the Justice Breakfast to educate the public and reward the work of the volunteers.
St. Clair R-XIII School District is made up of two elementary building, a junior high and high school. With a new Superintendent, many new resources are available to students and parents to help in the learning process.	Th. Dec. 12	9:20	40 minutes Supt. Kyle Kruse is a favorite monthly guest. He has implemented many new learning tools available online for parents, which includes "Think Central," "Interactive Math," "Animated Math," These are organized by grade level to assist and supplement the in school textbooks.