

Here follows a listing of the significant local issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of January through March, 2020. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Downtown Washington, Inc. dates back to the late 1950's. During the 1990's, Washington was selected as a pilot community for the Missouri Main Street Program. Since then, many improvements and renovations have been made to the downtown area. Signature annual events highlight achievements.	Friday, Jan. 10	7:45	15 minutes Taylor King, a former assistant, is the new Director of the Downtown Washington. He discusses the economic, historic, and coordinated promotions and events that keep the merchants and the riverfront active and thriving throughout the year.
Schroeder Drugs has been a cornerstone of the Washington Downtown area for over 70 years. To create a drive through they build a new facility and moved to Fifth Street. At their new location, they are able to offer many new services.	Friday, Jan. 17	7:45	15 minutes Schroeder Drugs' Pharmacist Mark Weidle joins the show to talk about the free delivery program, mobile APP, free kids vitamins, and drive through convenience. He dispenses and encourages flu shots at their new location.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Buddies not Bullies helps combat and prevent bullying in the Franklin County area and offers programs within the schools as well parent workshops and online resources. Volunteers and donations help fund the community outreach programs.	Monday, Jan. 20	8:40	20 minutes	Lisa Bell is a psychologist to heads up the organization and helps promote the next fundraiser event on January 25, a night at the Races. She also encourages parents to get involved with bully prevention, before their child is in a stage of crisis.
The Franklin County Back To School Fair is an annual collection a school supplies to help all underprivileged children in the county. A core group of volunteers collect and sort items in backpacks and distribute them.	Monday, Jan. 27	9:20	40 minutes	Teresa Wolf, Ann Bentin and Gene Withrow are the directors of the project along with scores of volunteers from schools around the county. They start collection and donations in January for distribution over the summer.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Franklin County is the fourth largest county in Missouri, covering 923 square miles. Elected officials and paid staff are located in a new County Seat in Union. The County Commissioner is a monthly guest on the show, focusing on the major projects and topics of the month.	Thursday, Feb. 27	9:20	40 minutes	County Commissioner Tim Brinker discusses the major road and bridge work being planned and the upcoming agenda for the Planning and Zoning Commission. Road salt has been an extraordinary burden on the budget. He commended the Health Dept. on their handling of dispersing shots.
The Washington City Library offers a diverse group of activities and experiences for kids and adults throughout the year. From a Legos Club and Chess Club for kids to Tech Tutorials and Book Clubs for adults, the library is a community hub.	Wednesday, Feb. 26	8:15	15 minutes	The newly appointed Head Librarian Nelson Apell explains some of the old and established to the new programs that will be offered in the coming year. He also highlights some of the many services offered at the library, including Passport and citizenship opportunities.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

The 45th Annual Washington Radio Auction will take place at the Washington K.C. Hall and on KLPW Radio live on the air to allow listeners to bid online and hear hear the bidding process. Nearly 300 items are up for bid. Donations benefit local non profit groups.	Monday, March 16	8:40	20 minutes	Rotarian Angela Garland, Hope Ranch Director Jennifer Hops and CASA Director Glenda Volmert explain the washmoauction.com website and how the proceeds will benefit their programs. Nearly $30,000 in donations are from local businesses.
Since the Covid-19 outbreak, Franklin County has united leaders from city and rural locations in preparation for local cases and emergency procedures. A daily meeting has informed and educated groups about what we might expect.	Monday, March 16	8:15	15 minutes	Franklin County Presiding Commissioner Tim Brinker is the spokesperson for the media. He explains the Emergency Management procedures set in place, offers the health education tips needed, and brings all up to date on the virus testing so far.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Mercy Hospital was the first to offer curb side Covid-19 testing in St. Louis County and is the most important and largest health resource in the area. Mercy Hospital and doctors in Washington offer testing and will soon expand their services in this area also.	Friday, March 20	8:40	20 minutes Public Relation Director for the Washington Mercy Hospital joins the show to discuss the plans for virus curb side testing which will open and take place on the Washington Fair Grounds beginning March 23. He explains the procedures to follow, including numbers to call for anyone who is sick.
--	-------------------------	-------------	---