

WRFL 88.1 FM
2023 – Third Quarter (July – September)

Description of issue	Program	Date	Time	Length	Program Description
CRAVE, Park systems, Tahlsound	Trivial Thursdays	August 24, 2023	10a	2 hours	Saraya Brewer, organizer of CRAVE Food and Music Festival spoke of the organizing of bands, organizing of this huge festival and the locality's importance. Jenny Sanchez, Director of Natural Areas for Lexington Fayette Urban County Government Parks spoke of park systems in Lexington, the importance of the programs offered. Seth Murphy and Andrew English for Tahlsound music festival finished this show off, talking about the event, and playing live music.
SCFA, THRILLER Parade, Lexington Camera Club	Trivial Thursdays	August 31, 2023	10a	2 hours	Matt Gibson, SCFA Director spoke about what he does for UKY, how he got his position and the happenings at SCFA. Teresa Tomb, from Mecca Dance Studio spoke about THRILLER, a Lexington tradition that partners with WRFL. Lexington Camera Club (Guy Mendes, Tom Eblen, Rebecca Webb, and Liz Hansen) discuss photos they've chosen for the show.
Invasive Species in Kentucky	Campus Voices	September 6, 2023	5:30p	30 mins	Faith Roberts talked about the dangers of invasive species in plants. How this affects Lexington, and how the Arboretum deals with

					this, along with what people can do to help prevent spreading of invasive species.
Roots and Heritage Festival, Henry Faulkner at 100, KYukefest	Trivial Thursdays	September 7, 2023	10a	2 hours	Kim Baird with Roots and Heritage Festival, talking about the event, importance of it to Lexington, how popular this event is. Christina Bell of the Headley Whitney Museum and John Stephen Hockensmith talk about Kentucky Legend Henry Faulkner at his 100th. Sara Beth Brownrobie and Bing Futch for KYukefest, talking about the event, how it came to be and its significance. Live performance by Bing Futch.
LexArts, BCTC Theatre, Nunn Center for Oral History	Trivial Thursdays	September 14, 2023	10a	2 hours	Maury Sparrow with LexArts talks about what LexArts is, the importance of this program for Lexington. Tim X. Davis with BCTC Theatre talks about the new show, 2 of his students join and do a short acting segment. Doug Boyd with the Nunn Center for Oral History talks about projects done that have preserved stories all around KY, and the way this project truly gives voice to the teller. Jeff Ponatoski of Rackhouse Mavericks performs live.

Lexington League of Women Voters, LPL and Undesign the Red Line, Lexington Art League, Tahlsound	Trivial Thursdays	September 21, 2023	10a	2 hours	Liza Holland with Lexington League of Women Voters talks about the importance of voting, some basic voting hygiene. Anne Donworth from the Lexington Public Library talks about Undesign the Red Line and what that is and the exhibit opening up in the Central Library. Sylvia Cerel-Sunil of the Lexington Art League talks about recent exhibits, art in the LAL. Seth Murphy from Tahlsound talks about what this event is, how it came to be.
---	--------------------------	---------------------------	------------	----------------	--