

WRFL 88.1 FM
2023 – Second Quarter (April – June)

Description of issue	Program	Date	Time	Length	Program Description
Eastern Kentucky Floods	Campus Voices	April 5, 2023	5:30pm	30 Mins.	UKY Student, Lindsey Jones, reports on the long-term effects that the flooding had on Eastern Kentucky in July of 2022. With guests Apollo Demado, a History student at UKY, and Jacob Johnson, a History PhD Graduate. They deconstruct the long term effects that the flooding has on the Eastern Kentucky region.
Voter awareness, race issues, arts funding, regional music.	Trivial Thursdays on WRFL	April 6, 2023	10am	2 hrs.	Jen Jackson, Lexington League of Women Voters; Poet LeTonia Jones; LexArts; and songwriter/multi-instrumentalist Nick Teale!
Mental Health in College	Campus Voices	April 12, 2023	5:30pm	30 Mins.	UKY Student, Alexis Harman, reports on Mental health and what it looks like in students. How this affects a student's performance in school, and in their life. Jenna Beulin and Bree Durasing join as guests. They are both Clinical Psychology Graduate Students who work at Eastern Kentucky University for the Suicide Prevention and Truama Clinic.
Summer festivals, Sexual Assault Awareness Month, regional music.	Trivial Thursdays on WRFL	April 20, 2023	10am	2 hrs.	Seth Murphy of Tahlound Music Festival; Musical guest Abe Partridge; Kentucky Association of Sexual Assault Programs, Inc. (KASAP) and Latisha Jackson, Executive Director of Ampersand Sexual Violence Resource Center of the Bluegrass and author/activist Amelia Zachry. Musical guest Earl Bowman.

Regional literature and publishing, domestic violence prevention.	Trivial Thursdays on WRFL	April 27, 2023	10am	2 hrs.	Poet/bookmaker/writer Jonathan Greene, of Gnomon Press; artist, writer, and oral historian Arwen Donahue; Sexual Assault Awareness Month, with Stephanie Theakston of It's Time Lexington, a program intended to raise awareness about domestic violence in our community.
Regional literature and culture.	Trivial Thursdays on WRFL	May 4, 2023	10am	2 hrs.	Writer Tucker Leighty-Phillips; writer Whitney Collins; Kentucky Theatre's Max Morris.