

WRFL 88.1 FM
2023 – Fourth Quarter (October – December)

Description of issue	Program	Date	Time	Length	Program Description
Physical and Mental Health of Black Women	Campus Voices	Oct 4, 2023	5p	30 mins	Kennedy Whitby produced a new show on CV, Issues in Black and Blue. Hosted by Lanasia -- and Bryson --, this kickstarted the collaboration with WRFL and ABJ. Topics were Black women and physical and mental health. Kennedy reports, while hosts conduct interviews with guests --
Ecology, civic responsibility, local music	Trivial Thursdays	Oct 5, 2023	10a	2 hours	Lexington Urban Forestry Coordinator Heather Wilson about TREE WEEK 2023; Lexington League of Women Voters Cindy Heine and Tip Moody discuss election preparedness. Local music from Stoner Creek Shakedown.
Kentucky music, community arts, literature	Trivial Thursdays	Oct 12, 2023	10a	2 hours	Nathan Zamarron of LexArts discusses arts funding; Erica Cook and Natasha Collier of the Carnegie Center for Literacy & Learning on the latest Carnegie Classic, Phillip K. Dick's "Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep?" Regional musicians Romana Bereneth of Louisville's Bandshee and Babs Helton of Lex's Jockey Onassis discuss one another's work.

KY literature and history	Trivial Thursdays	Oct 19, 2023	10a	2 hours	Author Fiona Young-Brown discusses the Lexington Writers Room. Kentucky encyclopedia Sam Terry, of Sam Terry's Kentucky blog; and Katerina Stoykova of the Kentucky Book Festival
Kentucky House District 93	Radio Free Eskippakithiki	Oct 24, 2023	2p	1.5 hours	Geoff Sebesta interviews Kentucky House District 93 Adrielle Camuel about issues affecting her Lexington constituents as well as what it's like to run for office.
Culture, hispanic culture, halloween	Trivial Thursdays	Oct 26, 2023	10a	2 hours	Gallery Director Zachary Hall discusses the Living Arts & Science Center's annual Day of the Dead celebration; the creators of Lexington's nationally-known THRILLER Halloween Festival; and Casa De Cultura's Monica Calleja and Bluegrass Youth Ballet's Adalhi Aranda discuss Dia de los Muertos.
Global Conflict, War	Campus Voices	Nov 1, 2023	5:30p	30 mins	In a discussion with Director of UK's Patterson School of Diplomacy, Dr. Robert Farley, explains the effects of the war in Israel and how Hamas obtained the equipment to conduct and execute an attack on Israel. Farley also explains how the war affects UK's campus and advises students to stay informed.
Theatre, education, civic duty, local music	Trivial Thursdays	Nov 2, 2023	10a	2 hours	UK Theatre Dept's Stephen Wrentmore discusses their upcoming production of "Good." Election preparedness with Jen Jackson of the League of Women Voters of Lexington and Whit Whitaker, the president of the KY NAACP; and local music with local singer Sistah LaLa.

UK Campus Housing, Student Living	Campus Voices	Nov 8, 2023	5:30p	30 mins	UK Acting Director of Housing, Lisa Williams, joins the program to discuss the challenges UK faces in accommodating a record size freshman class. Residential Advisor, Jonathan Stark, also joins to share his perspective on the implementation of a new program to address the issue.
Local government, art history, theatre, education	Trivial Thursdays	Nov 9, 2023	10a	2 hours	Lexington Mayor Linda Gorton discusses her tenure; Nathan Zamarron of LexArts, along with artist/curator Seth Tuska discuss the legacy of sculptor John Tuska; UK Theatre's Christina Ritter discusses Kate Hamill's theatrical adaptation of Louisa May Alcott's "Little Women."
Workzone Safety, Road Construction, State Government	Campus Voices	Nov 15, 2023	5:30p	30 mins	Kentucky Representative John Blanton and Civil Engineer Brian Billings join to encourage those driving on the road to be mindful of construction workers' safety. Blanton explains a piece of legislation he is working on to address drivers who endanger construction workers safety.
Civil rights, regional music	Trivial Thursdays	Nov 16, 2023	10a	2 hours	Lyric Theater Director Christian Adair shares upcoming programming at the historic and racially significant venue; Michael Johnathan and Bryan Klausing, of the Woodsongs Old Time Radio Hour and Troubadour Concert Series; and Chester Grundy and Eli Uttal-Veroff discuss the Origins Jazz Series.

Regional food, food justice	Trivial Thursdays	Nov 23, 2023	10a	2 hours	Emily Wilhoit focuses on dishes and foods from the region with Bell County horticulturalist Beau Spicer.
Unequal development in Lexington	Radio Free Eskippakithiki	Nov 28, 2023	2p	2 hours	Geoff Sebesta and Charles Altendorf interview long time North of Center Lexington investigative reporter Danny Mayer about the impact of Tax Increment Financing and Industrial Revenue Bonds on unequal development practices in Lexington.
Social Media, Dangerous Trends, Children, Parenting	Campus Voices	Nov 29, 2023	5:30p	30 mins	After a rise in deadly social media trends, including the "One Chip Challenge", licensed professional Clinical Counselor Anna Stevens dive into the ways parents can keep their children from participating. Her background, specializing in children's behavioral issues, provides insight into why children are drawn to these activities in the first place. UK student and Kentucky Kernel Digital Editor, Gracie Moore, provides further analysis on social media trends.
Local theatre, art history and education, local music	Trivial Thursdays	Nov 30, 2023	10a	2 hours	Blue Grass Community Foundation's Lauren Parsons discusses the GoodGiving Challenge, their long-running NPO fundraiser supporting hundreds of local orgs; SAVS

					Director Ruth Adams and Staff Gallery Director Becky Alley; BCTC Theatre Director Tim Davis; and Jeshua Logston of the band Autonomous.
Regional literature, local music	Trivial Thursdays	Dec 7, 2023	10a	2 hours	Author Chris McGinley and Whitney Collins discuss new books; holiday music from Trish Torline.
Health, Black Women	Campus Voices (Issues in Blue and Black Special)	Dec 13, 2023	4p	1 Hour	Hosts, Kennedy Whitby and La'miya Starnes of the Association of Black Journalists UK Chapter explore issues effecting black women. In this edition, the recent study that found a correlation between women's hair products and cancer is discussed.
Community outreach, childrens programs, voter awareness	Trivial Thursdays	Dec 14, 2023	10a	2 hours	Rebecca Webb, director of Community Inspired Lexington discusses their work to raise up young people; Patty Kannapel of the League of Women Voters discusses the LWV's Legislative Transparency report; and Uniting Voices Lexington Director Dr. Michael Preacely the Kentucky outgrowth of the legendary Chicago Children's Choir.
Accountability in education spending	Radio Free Eskippakithiki	Dec 19, 2023	2p	40 minutes	Charles Altendorf opens the show discussing Herald Leader OPED by UK student Gavin Cooper calling for more accountability in higher ed spending. Charles adds some other articles for more context.

--	--	--	--	--	----------------------------------