

1st Quarter Issues Report 2014

WBDR FM

January 2014 April 2014

Chili Cook-Off: Saturday February 1st 2014 To benefit Volunteer Transportation Center at the NYS Office Building. Johnny Spezzano volunteered on behalf of the radio station acting as a Judge for this community event. Hundreds of community members participated in this warm-me up winter event.

The SPCA Pet of the Week: Jefferson County SPCA Joins the WBDR morning show every monday with a pet for adoption from the local dog shelter. SPCA Executive Director Joins us on air for a 20 minute segment. www.jeffersonspca.petfinder.com/

Local High School Student Brain Surgery: WBDR opens its studio up

help a local Teen dealing with Brain Tumors. Promoting a community Rally Saturday March 1st at Noon at Carthage American Legion on State street in Carthage. WBDR supported with live entertainment, and so much more! Ben Crump was a guest on the WBDR Morning Show.

Greyson Day: March 31st the community along with WBDR put everything into this fundraiser for a local baby with Leukemia. WBDR collected Children Books for The Galisano Children's Hospital in Syracuse. while raising almost $8000 dollars to help Greysen and his family with medical expenses incurred by treatments for Leukemia and traveling between Watertown & Syracuse's Children's Hospital in Syracuse

Autism Awareness Celebration: WBDR presents the Northcountry Walk for Autism April 2014. The Annual walk was led again this year by Border Air Personalities. WBDR along with Disabled persons action Organization and Benchmark WBDR has been encouraging its listeners to Join Morning Guy Johnny Spezzano to walk at this years event.

Supporting USA Military over seas effort. WBDR rallied its listeners to support the Troops: WBDR along with USO Ft Drum teamed up to send some joy overseas to our brave patriots. Care packages were organized and shipped to local service personal at Bagram Air force Base. WBDR listeners came though with letters and personal Items supporting the troops 10th Mountain Division is one of the army's most deployed.

Cub Scouts: We regularly open our studios up to tours for community organizations. This pack of Tiger Scouts got to see radio first hand. WBDR Morning Man Johnny Spezzano showed the students how to make a radio commercial. The kids even got a chance to be on the air. While making a recording for their parents.

