

ISSUES & PROGRAMS REPORT FOR DAYTON

WROU/92.1

717 E. David Rd.
Dayton, Oh 45429

937.294.5858 office
937.297.5233 fax

Completed by:
Faith Daniels

January 2013 – March 2013

In our ongoing effort to serve the public interest, WROU/92.1 broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to Dayton and the surrounding service area. Following is a list of those issues, and the stations most significant programming treatment of them.

WROU Community Focus Shows for
Jan-March 2013
Airs Sundays at 6:00a - 6:30a
All shows 30 minutes

01/13/13

Topic: "Martin Luther King Celebration, MLK Dayton"
Guests: Carol Prewitt and Anthony Whittmore

Discussed the FREE events being presented by MLK Dayton for The Martin Luther King Holiday. The discussion also outlined the activities, presentations, presenters and vendors participating during in each event and the how the community could get involved in the national day of service on the local level.

01/20/13

Topic: Community Health and Wellness "Dayton taking is family health seriously"
Guest: Dr. Ian Smith/ Camela Douglass Shavers Ph.D Physical Education

Dr. Ian Smith world renowned author and fitness guru was joined by local health advocate Camela Douglass to discuss the rising number of obesity in the Dayton and surrounding counties. Plans and strategies were discussed to bring understanding and empowerment to local families to combat the growing crisis. Program also included programs around the city to engage the family in physical fitness activities.

01/27/13

Topic: Moving for Mobility
Guest: Frankye Hearld from Mahogany's Child and program participants.

The program discussed the launch of a brand new senior citizen program called "Moving for Mobility." Ms. Hearld outlined the program at The Mahogany's Child and the resources that are available to assist seniors in continuing to stay active to improve their health. Additionally, she discussed the options that are available to families with seniors to help with at home flexibility.

02/03/13

Topic: Wilberforce University
Guests: Dr. Patricia Hardaway, President

Dr. Hardaway was a guest and discussed the new programming that has been developed at Wilberforce University. Dr. Patricia Hardaway also discussed the programs and resources that are currently available to potential students and government aide recipients. No student left behind funding project.

02/10/13

Topic: Go Red for Heart Month
Guests: Beth Langefels

Beth and heart surgery survivors discussed the Go Red For Heart Month programs and activities presented all during the month of February across the Dayton area. Additionally heart education programs that go on all year.

02/17/13

Topic: The Black History Month Educational series
Guests: Willis Bing Davis, President of Ebonnia Gallery

Discussed a Visual Arts program that identifies and celebrates African Americans during Black History Month Here in Dayton. The arts will feature African Americans who have excelled in their field, been a positive role models for youth and have enhanced the general community's appreciation for the arts in the Miami Valley. Youth from across the Miami Valley are featured in the Educational display all over the city.

02/24/13

Topic: Central State University African American Programming
Guests: Tony Fairbanks, Vice President, Central State University
Wanda Battle, Programming Director

Mr. Fairbanks and Ms. Battle discussed the new Black History curriculum and programming and the financial assisted programs that are available at Central State University. Tony Fairbanks reviewed educational breakout and sessions during Black History month that will be open to the public and free at Central State.

03/03/13

Topic: Urban League of Greater Dayton
Guests: Stephen Tucker, Executive Director Workforce Development

Mr. Tucker discussed the job readiness programs available at the all new Dayton Urban League. Additionally, the programs with specific focus on continuing education and career building. Job Fairs and community involvement with the focal point bringing jobs and candidates together.

3/10/13

Topic: March Madness Health, Wellness
Guests: Camela Douglass, MPh.E
Motivational Speaker and Health and Wellness specialist

This program discussed a quarterly “check up” for families that began the road to a healthier life style with the new year. She listed the local programs that support nutritional planning for the growing families in the area and programs that will meet the need for increased physical activities with children and parents. Also reviewed healthy eating options and FREE fun exercise options the make sure exercise boredom doesn’t occur.