

ISSUES & PROGRAMS REPORT FOR DAYTON

WROU/92.1

717 E. David Rd.
Dayton, Oh 45429

937.294.5858 office
937.297.5233 fax

Completed by:
Faith Daniels

July 2013 – September 2013

In our ongoing effort to serve the public interest, WROU/92.1 broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to Dayton and the surrounding service area. Following is a list of those issues, and the stations most significant programming treatment of them.

WROU Community Focus Shows for
July-Aug-Sept 2013
Airs Sundays at 6:00a - 6:30a
All shows 27-30 minutes

07/07/13

Topic: "Ohio Housing Finance Agency"

Guests: Dana Askew- Executive Dir. Ohio Housing Finance

Discussed the FREE assistance being offered to save homes from foreclosure in the state of Ohio.

The discussion also outlined the program overviews Rescue payments, Mortgage assistance, Modifications, Lien Elimination, Homeowner retention and transition assistance.

07/14/13

Topic: Health Awareness Programs at Premier Health Partners

Guest: Dr. Nick Davis

This program discussed the health awareness programs available in the Dayton area. Both preventative and emergency care programs that are free or at no-cost to a patient, with or without insurance. Patient advocacy and health planning.

07/21/13

Topic: Walk in Wednesdays/early enrollment Central State

Guests: Dr. Colette Pierce Burnette

Dr. Pierce-Burnette discussed the new opportunity for students and potential student to walk in on any Wednesday from 10-6pm and get registered or review qualifications or financial aid at the Dayton Campus at CSU. Discussed the no cost programs available, the requirements to begin the college experience and Staff accessibility and student/teacher ratio which research shows allows adult learners to graduate sooner.

07/28/13

Topic: Celebrate Life AIDS/HIV Outreach
Guests: Arlinda Coleman

Arlinda Coleman was a guest to discuss the AID/HIV Outreach taking place in the Metro Dayton area. Ms. Coleman discussed the free HIV testing and counseling available in the Montgomery and Green Counties. She also shared statistics of the new HIV cases and the ages beginning to be the lowest they have been since stats have been kept. Program will be teaching AIDS/HIV Prevention and life skills training for the community.

08/04/13

Topic: MVP Training and Community Partnership
Guests: Mick DeJene, Director MVP

This program discussed the free community training that is being offered to young adults in job readiness and GED preparation. The program also discussed the community partnerships that support growing the number of high school and college graduates in to the 2014 school year and beyond.

08/11/13

Topic: Hair Loss and health and wellness
Guests: Dr. Shawwan Gullette- Certified Tricologist

This program discussed a program and study in the greater Dayton area that identifies reasons for hair loss from the inside of the body out. The program also discussed health and wellness in relationship to a healthy scalp, skin and hair. The new Tricoligy seminar is free and open to the public and has a mission of helping create awareness with the community that hair loss can be controlled and stopped and reversed.

08/18/13

Topic: Twin Teague Annual Fundraiser
Guests: M. Walker, Gloria Lucus and G. Rowe

This program discussed the local Woman's Group Twin Teague's annual scholarship fundraiser. The group holds a fundraiser once a year to raise money that is divided into scholarships that have totaled more than $300.00 and helped hundreds of students advance into collegiate studies. This year they added a public school component, donating 200 musical instruments to 5 public schools this coming school year.

08/25/13

Topic: About My Sisters/ Women's Think Tank

Guest: Dr. Karen Townsend

This program discussed the ABOUT MY SISTERS program expanding to include all women and provide a think tank to discuss the obstacles and barriers that exist professionally and personally. The event brought together a variety of providers and service vendors to meet the needs discussed as well as give direction to growing professionally. The 20th year of the program raises the awareness of the needs of women and the community organizations and support groups available to meet that need.

9/02/13

Topic: "Sickle Cell Regional Walk, Run Jog"

Guests: Wendy Berry- West, Executive Dir. Ohio Sickle Cell & Health Association.

Cynthia Moon, Project Director, Central Ohio Comprehensive Sickle Cell Center.

Discussed the FREE event being presented by The Central Ohio Comprehensive Sickle Cell Center.

The discussion also outlined the activities, presentations, presenters and vendors participating during in regional Sickle Cell Outreach taking place in Art Van Atter Park on Sept. 7th at 9am. The annual walk raises money and awareness about Sickle Cell and the patients living with it and the services being offered in the Greater Dayton area.

09/08/13

Topic: The Dayton's Women's Fair

Guests: Denise Green-Miles and Dan Jacobs

The program discussed the Dayton Women's Fair focusing on Women's Health, wellness and motivation. The program also promoted FREE Health Screenings, seminars and demonstrations that are presented at the Dayton Women's Fair. The program included women's health and wellness, job readiness, physical fitness, mental fitness and life coaching.

09/15/13

Topic: Alzheimer's Association

Guests: Carrie Mueller, Director of Outreach and Communications

The program discussed the upcoming Alzheimer's Walk for a cure being held this month. The program also discussed the local programming for ALZ patients and all the services that are available for families in the Greater Dayton Area.

The Director also discussed the Alzheimer's Associations availability to counsel families, provide services and support families.

9/22/13

Topic: American Heart Association

Guests: Sybil Means, Director of Community Outreach

This program discussed the golf outing that raises awareness about stroke prevention program. The Interview also outlined the programs that will be available to the community. Program reviewed the complete calendar of the year of events and walks focused on strengthening the heart, preventing heart disease and preventing stroke. Additionally, she detailed the fundraising efforts and events coming up within the year offerings students and families the opportunity to participate and gain awareness about preventing heart attack, stroke and heart dieses.

9/29/13

Topic: W>O>W Woman of Wisdom

Guests: Julisa Cunningham and Katie Pepper

During this program The Women of Wisdom discussed the annual "Pretty Girls Rock!" day of enlightenment and empowerment that takes place at the Convention center for girls aged 12-17. The event offered information about self esteem, college readiness, self defense and a number of other seminars. The group will also implementing a Mentoring program who's desire help to keep young ladies in school, to fill out financial aid applications and obtaining counseling to finish their high school educations. WOW women also gave referral contacts for parents that needed assistance in parenting.