Issues/Programs list
January 1, 2018

Over the course of the last three months from this date, WNMC's most significant issues programming includes the following programs:

A Moment In Time (2:00)is broadcast weekdays at 12 noon. This is a program covers various historical topics. It is produced by public station WCVE in Richmond, VA

Sound Beat is broadcast weekdays at either 10am or 2pm. It is a 90 second show highlighting the holdings of the Belfer Audio Archive. The Belfer is part of the Syracuse University Libraries, and is one of the largest sound archives in the United States. Each SB episode focuses on one particular recording from the Archive, and provides a back story detailing its place in recording history.

Birdnote (1:30) broadcast weekdays at either 10am or 2pm, is a national science program, focusing on birds, but also covering a range of related environmental, general science and cultural issues.

Pulse of the Planet, (2:00) broadcast at 9am and 4pm each weekday, is a national program dedicated to science, social and cultural issues underwritten by the National Science Foundation.

Climate Connections (1:30) informs a national radio audience how climate change is already impacting our lives and values as well as “solution stories” about what diverse people and organizations are doing to reduce carbon pollution and increase resilience to climate impacts. The series “connects the dots” between climate change and energy, extreme weather, public health, food and water, jobs and the economy, national security, the creative arts, and religious and moral values, among other themes. M-F at 1:01pm.

Local Motion (90:00) is a locally produced cultural program broadcast each Friday from 5:00 to 6:30pm, giving updates on local cultural events and interviews with local musicians and artists.

Mornings on WNMC (weekday mornings, 6-8am) relays local and Michigan news from several sources, including the Traverse City Record-Eagle and the Detroit Free-Press. The program also features discussion of a range of local, national and international issues with invited guests from the community and callers.

Philosophy Talk (Saturday, 7am; Sunday 5pm) celebrates the value of the examined life. Each week, two host philosophers invite you to join them in conversation on a wide variety of issues ranging from popular culture to our most deeply-held beliefs about science, morality, and the human condition. Philosophy Talk challenges listeners to identify and question their assumptions and to think about things in new ways. Dedicated to reasoned conversation driven by human curiosity, Philosophy Talk is accessible, intellectually stimulating, and most of all, fun!

WNMC also presents interviews on an irregular basis with local and touring musical artists, authors, and other people of note.

WNMC also generally presents seven public service announcements each day (at 9:40am, 11:40am, 2:40pm, 5:40pm, 7:40pm, 9:40pm and 11:40pm each weekday, 8:40am, 12:40pm, 2:40pm, 4:40pm, 5:40pm, and 10:40pm on Saturdays, and 8:40am, 11:40am, 1:40pm, 2:40pm, 6:40pm, 8:40pm and 11:40pm on Sundays. Our weekend overnight programming also presents several PSAs. These concentrate on announcements of local events of a non-profit or culturally enriching nature.

WNMC also makes a practice of promoting culturally enriching music events in its listening area.
