Spotlight on America Presents

Sunday, 1/9/22 – 10:30-11pm

In the second edition of Sinclair produced, Spotlight on America Presents, we hold the US Government accountable for the ongoing “forever chemical” contamination crisis impacting military bases — and surrounding communities — nationwide. We meet a firefighter battling cancer he blames on the military’s toxin-laced firefighting foam, and we sit down with one of the nation’s most prominent U.S. Senators to push for answers. We pull the curtain back on the dark, multi-billion dollar telephone scamming industry. With the federal Government unable to fully clamp down on these scammers, we meet YouTube personalities and tech savvy entrepreneurs who are stepping into the breach. Spotlight on America also digs deeper into heavy-metal tainted baby food, and we reveal a popular U.S. Government-run program is still offering these potentially harmful products to millions of low-income moms. We end with a moving story about a COVID long-hauler who’s using his gift as a musical therapist to help other suffering long-haulers.
