Perspectives With Host Condace Pressley
October - December 2012

October 7:

Ava DuVernay, Writer, Producer, Director of the film Middle of Nowhere

Winner of the Best Director Award at the 2012 Sundance Film Festival, MIDDLE OF NOWHERE follows Ruby, a bright medical student who sets aside her dreams and suspends her career when her husband is incarcerated. As the committed couple stares into the hollow end of an eight-year prison sentence, Ruby must learn to live another life, one marked by shame and separation. But through a chance encounter and a stunning betrayal that shakes her to her core, this steadfast wife is soon propelled in new and often shocking directions of self-discovery - caught between two worlds and two men in the search for herself.

October 14:

Dr. Ian Smith: The Truth About Men

Men don't have glass heads. What's going on in there? Do they mean what they say? And what are they not saying? Why does anyone in a relationship with a man have to spend so much time wondering what things "mean"? Is it good that he called instead of texting? What does it mean that he introduced me to his sister but not his mother or his best friend? Why hasn't he said anything about my birthday yet when it's two weeks from now? Finally, a man who knows what's going on in there has written a book to decode men for women. It's rich with insight and action women can take today to make a relationship better tomorrow. Smith's fascinating, sometimes surprising topics include:

--The Subtle Art of Hooking Us (men really do want to be in committed relationships, even if they don't always show it)
--Beauty Matters (but beauty may not be exactly what you think it is)

October 21:

Dr. Jack Kennedy, District Health Director, Cobb-Douglas Public Health and Cobb Schools Spokesman Jay Dillon

Cobb 2020 Health Initiative: The Cobb2020 Partnership is a partnership of community organizations and individuals dedicated to promoting healthy lifestyles and the delivery of essential health services in Cobb County. Together, through a strategic process called Mobilizing Action through Planning and Partnerships (MAPPP), Cobb2020 has assessed the current health status of the County and is developing a Health Improvement Plan that will help create significant changes in building a healthier community. The overall goal is to implement strategic changes throughout Cobb County over the next five years that build a foundation for reducing and preventing chronic disease such as diabetes, stroke, heart disease and cancer by promoting healthy lifestyles and better access to health and prevention services for the community.

October 28:

Dr. D. Ivan Young: Break Up – Don't Break Down

D. Ivan Young provides a road map for anyone who is contemplating a breakup, in the middle of one, or just out of a relationship and trying to chart a new course. In simple steps and with equal parts encouragement and tough love, relationship expert Dr. D. Ivan Young moves through all of the issues surrounding this life transition, from dealing with anger, guilt, and peer pressure to minimizing the negative effects on children, to creating a new life and finding new love. Its down-to-earth language, participatory exercises, and relatable examples make Break Up—Don't Break Down the ultimate tool for getting over the pain of a dying relationship and getting on with the rest of your life.

November 4:

Former Atlanta Mayor Shirley Franklin discusses Human Trafficking

On November 10, the Buckhead Chapter of the Links, Inc. hosted a discussion forum on human trafficking and the sex slave trade. Human trafficking has been identified as the fastest-growing criminal industry in the world. Atlanta has been identified as a major transportation hub for trafficking young women and one of 14 U.S. cities with the highest levels of sex trafficking of children. The tragedy of modern day slavery through human trafficking afflicts more than 20 million people around the world. In response to the recent Obama Administration announcement of several new initiatives aimed at ending trafficking nationwide, the forum will engage the community in a dialogue around eradicating sex trafficking of children in Atlanta and address much-needed efforts to help the survivors.

November 11:

Carol Smith, Atlanta Area Coordinator, Operation Christmas Child

Operation Christmas Child is a worldwide children's project of Samaritan's Purse that uses simple gift-filled shoe boxes containing school supplies, toys, necessity items and notes of encouragement to let hurting children know God loves them and they are not forgotten. In 2012, Operation Christmas Child expects to reach a milestone - delivering shoe boxes to more than 100 million children since the project began in 1993. To achieve this, volunteers are leading a nationwide drive enlisting people to help give joy to needy children this Christmas through this simple project.

November 18:

Elisabeth Omilami, CEO, Hosea Feed the Hungry Foundation

Hosea Feed the Hungry is open all year long providing quality human services every week. All services are provided completely free of charge to over 50,000 families and individuals a year. Hosea Feed the Hungry provides free services to over 40 non-profit and faith based organizations quarterly throughout the year. These organizations range from local food pantries to transitional housing facilities, from churches to assistance programs for widows and orphans, from human services organizations that cater to specific neighborhoods to job readiness programs, and so much more. HFTH provides these organizations with the food and supplies that they need help the communities that they serve.

November 25:

Renard Murray, Regional Administrator Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services

Medicare annual open enrollment period is open for citizens to switch Medicare plans for the coming year. In the workplace, we face making choices about your health care plans each year in the fall. That's the time rates and plan benefits would change. The same is true for certain types of Medicare insurance plans. Once a year – between Oct. 15 and Dec. 7 – seniors have a chance to change from your current plan to a different plan. The Medicare open enrollment period impacts Medicare Advantage and Medicare Part D drug plans. There are some exceptions to changing plans outside the Medicare annual enrollment period. If you move you may be able to change plans or, if for some reason, your plan is terminated. Also there are some Medicare Advantage and Medicare Part D plans that you can switch to anytime during the year. These Medicare plans carry a 5-Star rating, awarded by Medicare. There are just a handful of regional insurance companies that are rated 5 stars.

December 2:

Jasmine Guy, Actor

Jasmine Guy stars in the short film shot and produced in Atlanta "What About Us?" The 15 minute film explores the disparities of media coverage and resources certain families receive when their loved ones go missing. The film debuted November 9th at the 3rd Annual Bronzelens Film Festival. The festival featured nearly 50 new films - new features, shorts, and documentary films from filmmakers across the country, the Caribbean, and Africa. In "What About Us?" Guy portrays a troubled woman whose issues are not immediately apparent until the culmination of events at the end of the film. The film is emotional, provocative and will certainly resonate with anyone who has been affected by a missing loved one.

December 9:

Southern Author Doris Staton English

Savannah to Sweetwater is the story of survival and redemption when three individual's worlds collide. All Rachel Gregory ever dreamed of was to be mistress of her father's plantation and to live her life in the ease and luxury of a Southern aristocrat. When she arrives home in the spring of 1859 from an extended stay in Europe, her dreams collide with reality. She finds her home in shambles, her deceased father's mill in the hands of another and herself virtually penniless. Savannah to Sweetwater is a tale of intrigue, conflict and romance. Set in the old South on the eve of the 1860 elections, it is the story of Rachel and Andrew and the love they both tried to deny. Their story is played out against a backdrop of an era ending and the conflicting values that ushered in its tragic destruction.

December 16:

Ruth Watson – Blackberry Days of Summer

BLACKBERRY DAYS OF SUMMER is a compelling look at the Jim Crow era in rural Virginia. This suspenseful tale of deceit is filled with lust, adultery, and romance. In the tradition of The Color Purple and The Help, Watson introduces readers to Herman Camm. As Robert Parker's body is lowered into the grave, in Jefferson County, Virginia, Herman slithers into the life of the mourning family. Camm is a beady-eyed, small-framed womanizer with nice clothes, who has a complicated life involving three women: his wife, Mae Lou Parker; her daughter, Carrie, and a nightclub singer, Pearl Brown. All of the women's lives converge when Herman is found dead from a shotgun wound. There are many people Herman has offended. And all three women are suspects in his murder. An investigation is launched. However, it is 1920, and the fate of a black man's life is never a concern in the Jim Crow South.

December 23:

Jeannette Harris, Saxophonist, producer and songwriter

Jeanette Harris is one of the artists performing at the 2012 Atlanta Jazz Festival. She started her music career by playing the piano at the age of seven and the saxophone at ten. She immediately connected with the sax and soon realized that people enjoyed hearing her play. After high school, Jeanette attended the prestigious Berklee College of Music in Boston, Massachusetts, where she graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music Performance. She has been rockin' the stage ever since! In 2005, Jeanette was recognized as a "Shooting Star" and nominated for "Best Jazz Instrumentalist" by the L.A Black Music Awards. She has had the privilege of opening for and performing with a number of big named artists. She is best known for her release Saxified. Her new release is Summer Rain.

December 30:

Dr. Jack Kennedy, District Health Director, Cobb-Douglas Public Health and Cobb Schools Spokesman Jay Dillon
