

Quarterly Issues Programs List for the 4th Quarter of 2023

Station WYEP [Pittsburgh/PA]

Following is list of some of the significant issues responded to by the station along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the quarter. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which issues appear does not reflect a priority or significance.

Issue	Title/Description	Date	Time	Duration
Environment	An interview with Murray Fisher of The Billion Oyster Project. New York Harbor was once one of the most dynamic environments on the planet, and The Billion Oyster Project works to revive our shared blue space. The Billion Oyster Project's mission is to restore oyster reefs to New York Harbor through public education initiatives, creating a healthier, happier, and more resilient city—one oyster reef at a time.	10/7/2023	6:25 AM	8:01
Health and Science	A discussion about VisionSpring, a pioneering, global social enterprise accelerating the uptake of eyeglasses in emerging and frontier markets. They expand the optical market, using innovative distribution and service strategies to sell radically affordable, durable, attractive eyeglasses for consumers living on less than $4 per day. With partnerships in over 43 countries, they are making the wonder of clear vision possible for everybody.	10/28/2023	6:25 AM	10:28
Environment	Martin Tyner is a federally licensed falconer, eagle falconer, wildlife rehabilitator, wildlife propagator, and wildlife and environmental educator. He has been providing wildlife and environmental programs throughout the western United States, to schools, scouts and community groups for over fifty years, and he discussed his work with Utah's Southwest Wildlife Foundation.	11/4/2023	6:16 AM	13:11
Identity & Community	Musician Bill Toms was a guest on Joey Spehar's show to talk about a concert benefiting PAAR (Pittsburgh Action Against Rape). Toms talked about how rape affects not only the person who was assaulted but also their families.	11/13/2023	9:20 AM	8:00

Environment	A conversation with Anne Rolfes of The Louisiana Bucket Brigade, a 501(c)(3) environmental health and justice organization working with communities that neighbor the state's oil refineries and chemical plants. The group uses grassroots action to create an informed, healthy society that holds the petrochemical industry and government accountable for the true costs of pollution to hasten the transition from fossil fuels.	11/25/2023	6:18 AM	9:55
Identity & Community	Musician Clinton Clegg from the band The Commonheart was a guest of Joey Spehar's show to discuss the Light of Life Rescue Mission and their work for Pittsburgh men, women, and children experiencing homelessness, poverty, or addiction.	12/29/2023	9:25 AM	5:00
