48 HOURS

- 11/03/12 PREEMPTION

- 11/10/12 48 HOURS: “Secrets of the River” - Mackenzie Cowell was a high school senior and aspiring model who was studying at a beauty school when she made a dinner date with her father, Reid, in February 2010. Mackenzie never made dinner, and Reid received a call from police saying his daughter’s car was found abandoned on a ranch, 40 miles from their home in Wenatchee, Washington. Four days later Mackenzie was found dead along the banks of the Columbia River. She had been strangled, stabbed and beaten. Investigators looked at a list of potential suspects, including her boyfriend, who failed part of a lie-detector test, though he had a solid alibi. They talked to her parents, who had gone through a bitter divorce. And police talked to her mother’s boyfriend, with whom she had tangled with in the past. Liz Reid, a police informant, came forward claiming to have seen the actual murder on videotape -- shot by the killers. However as the task force began to investigate this, a tip came in about Chris Wilson, a classmate of Mackenzie’s from the Academy of Hair Design. After police linked DNA at the crime scene to Wilson, he was charged with her murder. Wilson claimed he was innocent and his mother hired attorney John Henry Browne. Police dismissed Liz Reid’s story after she changed it several times and they did not find a video. When the task force searched the apartment that Wilson lived in during the time of the murder, they found a stain which tested positive for Mackenzie’s DNA. Prior to the trial, D.A. Gary Reisen made Wilson an offer -- plead guilty to manslaughter and serve only six-and-half years in prison -- but Wilson turned it down and the trial began. Fearing an unfair trial after the jury questionnaires came back believing Wilson was guilty, Chris Wilson accepted a new plea deal -- fourteen years in prison in exchange for agreeing to these words: “...I also did recklessly cause the death of Mackenzie Cowell by strangulation and by stabbing her with a knife”. Chris Wilson believes he was framed by law enforcement. On Screen Graphics: Christopher Wilson may be eligible for release from prison in 2023. He will be 42 years old. Former police informant Liz Reid recently received a scholarship to attend the University of Washington. Interviewed: Reid Cowell, Mackenzie’s father; Sandy Francis, Reid’s fiancée; Joaquin Villasano, Mackenzie’s boyfriend; Detective John Kruse, Wenatchee Police Dept.; Robbin Wagg, Douglas County Chief Deputy; Liz Reid, police informant; Wendy Cowell, Mackenzie’s mother; Christopher Wilson, Mackenzie’s classmate; Jefferson Robbins, investigative reporter, The Wenatchee World, CBS News consultant; Kathleen Zornes, Wilson’s mother; Amelia Savage, Wilson’s best friend; John Henry Browne, Wilson’s attorney; Emma Scanlon, Wilson’s attorney; Gary Reisen, prosecutor; Emmanuel “Buddah” Cerros, accused by Liz Reid of Mackenzie’s murder. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 11/17/12 48 HOURS: "Soccer Moms Confidential" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the investigation of ex-cop turned private eye Chris Butler who staffed his San Francisco Bay area firm with local soccer moms to solve cases. Butler and his firm of private investigator moms became media sensations -- Lifetime Television started a reality show based on the P.I. Moms. Reporter Pete Crooks was invited to write about the real-life "Charlie's Angels", but the story took a strange turn when he learned from a confidential informant that most of the cases were staged, crooked cops were involved, and that Butler was dealing drugs with top California narcotics cop Norm Wielsch. Butler and Wielsch were also running a massage parlor which was allegedly a front for prostitution. On Screen Text Graphics: A trial date has not been set. If convicted, Chris Butler and Norm Wielsch could face up to life in prison on several of the charges. Updated on-screen text graphic for the 11/17/12 rebroadcast: Chris Butler was sentenced to eight years in prison. But he could be released a year early in April 2019. He would be fifty-eight years old. Norm Wielsch is scheduled to go on trial in January 2013. Includes interviews with: Norm Wielsch; Pete Crooks, Senior Editor of Diablo, a pop culture magazine and a CBS News Consultant; Carl Marino, Director of Operations for the agency; Ryan Romano, decoy at the agency; Dr. Phil McGraw, TV Host; Michael Cardoza, Wielsch's attorney; Ami Wiltz, P.I. Mom; Denise Antoon, P.I. Mom; Charmagne Peters, P.I. Mom. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Peter Shaw, Greg Fisher) (OAD: 02/18/12)
- 11/17/12 48 HOURS: "Highway of Tears" (10:00-11:00p) - A report on the more than twenty girls and women, who since 1969, have disappeared or been killed along the stretch of pavement in rural British Columbia, Canada, known as Highway 16. To locals, the road is now known simply as "The Highway of Tears". Maddy Scott may be one of the roadway's many victims. On May 28, 2012, the 21-year-old went to a party with 50 others at Hogsback Lake, not far from the highway, only to never be seen again. Just six months earlier, in the same town, 15-year-old Loren Leslie's body was found on a logging road not far from Highway 16. Leslie was brutally beaten and molested. There are signs all along Highway 16 warning women not to hitchhike because a killer might be on the loose, but the murders have not ceased. Police arrested 20-year-old Cody Legebokoff in Leslie's murder. A patrolman pulled him over, thinking he was poaching game. He had Leslie's ID in his truck. Her body was just down the road. Legebokoff has since been identified as the alleged killer of three others, though police have not revealed how they've connected him to the murders that occurred in 2009 and 2010. Still, because of his age, police know Legebokoff couldn't be responsible for all of the murders along Highway 16. Just two months ago, officials at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) got a break in some cases because they linked DNA samples from one of the highway's victims, Colleen MacMillen, found murdered in 1974, to Bobby Jack Fowler. Police also believe Fowler, a Texas native who worked as a roofer in Prince George, may have killed as many as twenty people in the United States and Canada. Victims of Highway 16 mentioned in this broadcast: Alberta Williams, Delphine Nikal, Lana Derrick, Monica Ignas, Monica Jack, Ramona Wilson, Tamara Chipman, Gail Weys, Pamela Darlington. On Screen Graphics: Cody Legebokoff, accused of murdering Loren Leslie and three other women, is expected to stand trial in September 2013. Investigators believe Bobby Jack Fowler may have killed as many as 20 people across the United States and Canada. Interviewed: Dawn and Eldon Scott, Parents of Madison (Maddy) Scott; Bob Friel, investigative reporter, Outside magazine, CBS News consultant; Sgt. Ken Floyd and Constable Tom Wamsteeker, Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Amanda Fitzpatrick, Jasmine Klassen and Jordy Bolduc, Maddy's friends; Doug and Donna Leslie, parents of Loren Leslie; Charleine Laing, Loren's friend; Garrett Anatole, Cody's friend; Sgt. Wayne Clary, RCMP; Claudia Williams, Alberta's sister; Matilda Wilson, Ramona's mother; Tom Chipman, Tamara's father; Kevin and Shawn MacMillen, Colleen's brothers; Ron Benson, Investigator. 48 HOURS (continued)

11/24/12

48 HOURS: "Presumed Guilty" - a report on the nearly thirty year effort of Frank O'Connell and his son Nick, to overturn his conviction for the 1984 murder of Jay French in Pasadena, California. French was the ex-husband of Jeanne, a woman O'Connell had dated for a short time months before. French and his ex-wife, Jeanne, had a bitter custody dispute over their son. Police maintained O'Connell shot French to help Jeanne. O'Connell said he was thirty miles away and had witnesses to prove it. On his attorney's advice, O'Connell waived his right to a jury trial putting his fate in the hands of a judge. He gambled wrong and was sentenced to 25 years-to-life in prison. He filed four separate appeals between 1986 and 1995, and all were denied. Then he reached out to Centurion Ministries, a non-profit organization dedicated to overturning wrongful convictions. Finally in 1998, Centurion Ministries sent Frank a letter accepting his case. Kate Germond, Director of Centurion Ministries, knew the eyewitness to the shooting, neighbor Dan Druecker, was the strongest part of the state's case against Frank. After Kate asked Dan to read the police files from the case, he decided to officially recant his testimony with a declaration in September 2008. This reversal convinced the judge to reopen the case against O'Connell, granting access to the entire file left behind by the detectives in 1985. Centurion discovered notes in the file revealing there was another witness who was not certain about their identification of O'Connell, much like Dan. By withholding these notes, detectives violated a 1963 Supreme Court ruling: authorities must reveal any evidence that could change the outcome of a trial. A judge recognized these actions and the ruling of Frank's conviction was overturned. The 1985 conviction would remain overturned, but the original murder charges against O'Connell were not dropped. Frank was out on bail for 30 days until the next hearing where the District Attorney's Office was unable to present enough evidence against O'Connell; the case was dismissed. Frank can still be arrested and retried if they do come up with new evidence. On Screen Graphics: Frank O'Connell is the 49th person freed by the work of Centurion Ministries. Interviewed: Lt. Dave Dolson and Detective Steve Lankford, LA County Sheriff's Department; Frank O'Connell, defendant; Nick O'Connell, Frank's son; Daniel Druecker, Jay French's neighbor; Gina French, Jay's widow; Rosemarie O'Connell, Frank's mother; Kate Germond, Director of Centurion Ministries; Dr. Robert Shomer, expert on eyewitness testimony; Juan Mejia, Assistant District Attorney; Jolene French, Jay's sister.
