The state's financial watchdog is crunching the numbers in the State Education Department and says things don't add up. Abc27 is getting results tonight. Dennis Owens spoke with PA Auditor General Eugene DePasquale about one of the most comprehensive audits of the Department of Education ever performed. According to DePasquale, there's been a dereliction of duty over the past several years by the people in charge. He says the department basically ignored 561 schools that were underperforming academically.

10/13/15 – 5:00P – 2:59 Duration

Funding for public schools is caught up in the budget impasse but private schools are also feeling the pain in a few different ways. Dennis Owens is here watching your money. Catholic schools across the Commonwealth get state funds to help pay for non-religious text books like math, science or English. That's money in limbo. Today students and staff from the Neighborhood Academy in Pittsburgh rallied in the Rotunda. It is a private college prep school for poor, inner-city kids. Nearly a third of its $3 million dollar budget comes from the Educational Improvement Tax Credit Program. That EITC money is a budget casualty; not just for the Neighborhood Academy, but for nearly every neighborhood in PA. Rev. Tom Johnson, co-founder, Neighborhood Academy, was interviewed.

11/06/15 – 5:00P, 6:00P – 2:49 Duration

We are following up on the Lower Paxton Township construction project story from earlier this week. After going through a stack of Lower Paxton Township meeting minutes from last year, Amanda St. Hilaire got some answers, but she also discovered questions about the ethics of this process. It also turns out that the county got a pretty good deal on the land in question. Amanda found statements from Lower Paxton Township Supervisors that didn't quite check out. And, when neighbors took their concerns to the board, the supervisors said this was the first they had heard of any issues. But Amanda was holding an e-mail detailing zoning concerns from neighbors to the township manager and to the supervisors, sent almost two weeks before that meeting.

11/10/15 – 11:00P - 2:49 Duration

There were strong words at tonight's Lower Paxton Township Board of Supervisors meeting. Neighbors are upset about a construction project they say is devaluing their homes. We broke the story last week and Amanda St. Hilaire is staying on the story tonight. The Board of Supervisors prepared a statement in response to neighbor's concerns, but the people say they are not satisfied with what they heard. In addition, Amanda did leave several messages for Supervisor Robin Lindsey to ask about her voting to approve an office building that is being built for her husband, District Judge Joseph Lindsey. We haven't heard back from her in the four days since the first story aired.

A state investigation into a controversial Lower Paxton Township construction project shows that the township didn't follow the correct procedures. Amanda St. Hilaire continues her investigation. The township has sworn up and down that they have followed correct procedures. But sources say a new investigation from the Department of Labor & Industry might show differently. Concerned neighbor, Tim Murphy spoke with us. We filed a right to know request with the township asking for the permits for this project and the response from them was... interesting. We'll have that for you coming up at 6:00P.

12/01/15 – 6:00P – 3:06 Duration

Neighbors want to know why a district justice office is being built on residential land, practically in their backyards. Last week we discovered the project on Locust Lane was originally supposed to be farther away from neighbors, but the township moved it closer. Now we're trying to find out why. So tonight there's a township supervisor's meeting. We're hoping to get some answers and learn if township leaders did their homework before voting on this project. Amanda St. Hilaire will be back at 11P with a full report.

12/07/15 – 3:02 Duration

The State Labor & Industry Department wrapped up its investigation of the controversial construction project in Lower Paxton Township. The report that was issued by Labor & Industry said that a retaining wall did not have the correct permits. The township fixed the issue, the case was closed and construction can continue, even though the land is not zoned for that project. It's an issue that we are still trying to get Lower Paxton Township to address.

High crimes and misdemeanors by legislators is big business for defense attorneys. The AP ran the numbers and since 2011 the House and Senate spent $2.8 million taxpayer dollars on outside counsel defending staffers and lawmakers in criminal cases. Many of the cases resulted in jail time and or resignations for high profile politicians like former Senator Jane Orie or former Speaker of the House Bill DeWeese. Local attorney Bill Costopolous represented them both and says much of the money is spent preparing staffers to appear as witnesses before a grand jury. In the legislature, once an employee is charged with a crime, their taxpayer funded defense comes to an end. Dennis Owens reported. Bill Costopolous was interviewed.

12/07/15 – 5:30P, 6:00P – 3:05 Duration

A former Philadelphia Eagle will perhaps be a future politician. Jon Ritchie is running for state office. We first broke this story on abc27 at noon. The republican wants to fill a senate seat in Cumberland Country currently held by Pat Vance. Dennis Owens spoke with him today. Brice Arndt and Rep. Mike Regan are also running for the seat. They were interviewed for this report. The primary election is April 26th.

12/08/15 – 11:00P – 2:12 Duration

There's a battle over a proposed Harrisburg tax increase affecting people who work in the City of Harrisburg. We were at the meeting tonight for discussion of the Harrisburg 2016 budget. The budget presentation will continue tomorrow with a vote expected later this month. We'll continue to keep you updated on this continuing story.

12/13/15 – 11:30P – 2:12 Duration

Lots of taxpayer money is being spent to investigate porn-gate. State AG Kathleen Kane has hired five attorneys whose services come with quite a price tag. Andrew Forgotch has the details. Randall Hayes, Harrisburg; Chuck Ardo, spokesman for the Attorney General and Ronald Payton, Harrisburg, were all interviewed.

12/16/15 – 7:00P – 1:10 Duration

We have good news tonight for people living in Dauphin County! There won't be a tax increase. Commissioners approved the 2016 budget today and it contains no increase for the 11th straight year. The Commissioners did voice frustration over the state budget impasse saying they're draining funds to keep emergency services and they're not sure if they will get the money back once a state budget is approved. Commissioner George Hartwick was interviewed.

12/16/15 – 11:00P – 1:49 Duration

For months, the State Attorney General has been releasing racy e-mails. Kathleen Kane says they were exchanged between fellow prosecutors, judges and others in law enforcement. Some have already lost their jobs. Today it was alleged that Kane, herself, may have received some of the e-mails. Mark Gilson, Philadelphia Assistant DA, was interviewed. Kane's spokesman says the allegation is baseless.

12/23/15 – 11:00P – 2:40 Duration

It's all in the Governor's hands tonight! The Senate sent Governor Wolf a spending plan today in a last-ditch effort to break the 6-month stalemate before Christmas. Lawmakers are speaking out. Representatives Dave Reed, Stephen Bloom and Kevin Schreiber spoke with our Dave Marcheskie.

SECRETS OF THE SELL

"Shark Tank's" Mr. Wonderful, Kevin O'Leary, brings his expertise as master of the art of the sell to "20/20's" second on-air sales challenge. For this challenge, "20/20" has recruited college seniors with little to no sales experience to compete for a coveted spot in a sales boot camp with O'Leary. O'Leary and ABC/ESPN anchor Hannah Storm provide live direction and commentary and award the 2015 winner with a special prize.

UNFRIENDING

Social media is supposed to connect people. When an online feud erupted between Jenelle Potter and a newly engaged couple, Billie Payne and Billie Jean Hayworth, the young couple ended up dead. Potter, a 30-year-old inhabited a twisted, social media-riddled world of her own creation. There she created a different persona for herself, befriending complete strangers, engaging in many online relationships. She also fueled hate, feuding with many online, the most bitter of these feuds with Billie Payne and Billie Jean Hayworth. Prosecutors say Potter had a crush on Billy Payne and openly agitated against Billy Jean. The couple was found dead; it is a twisted murder plot which lands not only Janelle, but both her parents, behind bars.

AFFLUENZA

It was a story that made national headlines – Ethan Couch, a privileged 16 year old with a troubled past, killed four innocent people while driving drunk. It was not the accident itself that catapulted the case into the national media; rather it was the teen's defense team's argument that Couch suffered from "affluenza". At the sentencing, a prominent psychologist testified that Couch was a product of profoundly dysfunctional parents, who gave their son too much and never taught him the consequences of his actions. The strategy worked, and Couch did not go to jail – sparking a national outrage over privilege and accountability. Matt Gutman reports.

THE FOREVER FAMILY

Justin and Marsha Harris of Arkansas seemed like perfect adopters – they were pillars of their community. They fought to adopt three abused sisters. Unfortunately, they could not handle the girls. Their home erupted in chaos with the girls even making death threats to the family. The Harris' say there was nothing else they could have done and had good intentions when they resorted to "re-homing." In this case, the girls were handed to a man who turned out to be a pedophile. Elizabeth Vargas reports.

Friday, October 30, 2015

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: LEAH REMINI

Actress Leah Remini will give an exclusive interview on her experience with and ultimate break from the Church of Scientology. She will talk about her association with the Church for over 30 years as recounted in her memoir "Troublemaker: Surviving Hollywood and Scientology." Her book describes joining the Church with her family as a teenager, building her career in Hollywood while remaining a conscientious Scientologist, severing her ties with the Church in 2013, and her life since leaving Scientology. Dan Harris reports.

MYSTERY ON THE HUDSON

Angelika Graswald sits behind bars, accused of killing her fiancé Vincent Viafore while kayaking on New York's Hudson River this past April. But was it really a horrifying crime or was it a heartbreaking accident in a very cold river with treacherous tides and unforgiving currents? Elizabeth Vargas' reports.

Friday, November 13, 2015

THE SEARCHERS

U.S. Army veteran Allen Thomas using social media to search for his twins, who disappeared from his life in Korea nearly half a century ago. His simple plea on Facebook: "My name is Allen Thomas and I am looking for my son and daughter... I have been searching for decades..." generated a worldwide response. Yet after over one million shares, retired Sergeant Thomas was no closer to solving the mystery "20/20" teamed up with investigative genealogist Pamela Slaton to work with Thomas on his quest. "20/20" follows the twists and turns that end with a miraculous reunion more than 40 years in the making. Elizabeth Vargas reports.

Friday, November 20, 2015

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW: DONALD TRUMP

In a wide ranging interview, Barbara Walters sits down with presidential candidate Donald Trump. Mr. Trump's wife Melania joins in the conversation in her first broadcast interview since her husband declared his presidential run, and Trump's children sit down for the first time together with Ms. Walters.

Friday, November 27, 2015

MYSTERY IN THE MATERNITY ROOM

Zella Jackson Price, 77, was completely shocked to discover the baby she thought died in 1965 at Homer G. Phillips Hospital in St. Louis was very much alive. After the reunion between Zella and her daughter Diane, almost 50 years after, triggered an avalanche of publicity, scores of other mothers who gave birth around the same time in that hospital in the 1960s came forward, wondering if the infants they too say they were told had died, are also alive. Was someone at the hospital stealing babies and then selling them? Debora Roberts reports.

THE WOMAN IN THE VIDEO

One of South Florida's most sensational trials is about to be replayed. Dalia Dippolito was recorded on video tape allegedly hiring a hit man to kill her newlywed husband – and then was convicted by a jury that needed only three hours of deliberation. But now, her lawyers have another chance as an appeals court has ruled the jury pool was tainted and Dippolito's case will be re-tried. Amy Robach reports.

Friday, December 11, 2015

THE SEARCHERS

U.S. Army veteran Allen Thomas used social media to search for his twins, who disappeared from his life in Korea nearly half a century ago. His simple plea on Facebook generated an immediate and overwhelming worldwide response. Yet after over one million shares, retired Sergeant Thomas was no closer to solving the mystery of what happened to his son and daughter, born to his former Korean wife. That is when "20/20" teamed up with investigative genealogist Pamela Slaton to work with Thomas on his emotional quest.

THE PLIGHT OF IRAQI CHRISTIAN REFUGEES

Former U.S. counter-terrorism officers Michele and Joe Assad are taking matters into their own hands, planning the evacuation of 560 Iraqi Christian refugees fleeing the atrocities of ISIS. Working with Father Douglas and building off their own professional expertise, the Assads have designed what they believe is a vetting/backgrounding process to determine that these refugees are not a security threat to any prospective new home country. After petitioning several nations, the Assads have convinced the Republic of Slovakia to take them in.

ALL IN THE BANK-ROBBERING FAMILY

Scott Catt, his 20-year-old son, Hayden, and his 18-year-old daughter, Abby, accused of working together to rob a bank in Texas. Hayden and his dad went into the banks while Abby served as the getaway driver. The Catts made off with close to $100,000 before they were caught. "20/20" spoke with all three Catts about how this all-American family ended up in jail for bank robbery.

20/20 Saturday

Saturday, December 26, 2015

FAMILY SECRETS

Three people looking for lost loved ones – Louise, who was left in a New York City phone booth two days after she was born; John, abandoned with a brother in a Bronx apartment when they were babies; and Candy, a teenage mother who promised the baby she was forced to give up that she would someday find her again. Three people haunted by the mystery of their past, on a quest for the loved ones they yearn to know. "20/20" joins them as they turn to Pam Slaton for answers. Slaton, who was also adopted and tracked down her own birth mother, uses investigative genealogy to unlock family mysteries. Elizabeth Vargas reports.

Also, a young American hiker named Chris McCandless, the accomplished son of successful middle-class parents, was found dead in an abandoned bus in the Alaskan wilderness 23 years ago and became the subject of the best-selling book and movie "Into the Wild." The question remains: why did he sever all ties with his past, burn or give away all his money, and head into the Denali Wilderness? McCandless' own letters, released for the first time, as well as new and surprising interviews, probe the mystery that still lies at the heart of a story that so many find compelling to this day.
