

KHSF and KHSM Quarterly Issues and Programming Report.

July, August and September-2016

BBC programming with EcoNews Report airing on Sunday at 4:00 am. There are multiple hosts who engage in discussions on environmental issues.

Author:

Air Date: 9-1-16; Show title: Econews; length: 29 minutes; Host: Scott Greacen; Guest: historian Erik Loomis; Topic: Author of Empire of Timber, exploring his findings about the forgotten environmentalism of Pacific Northwest organized labor.

Dam Removal:

Air Date: 8/4/2016; Show Title: EcoNews Report; Length: 30 Minutes; Host: Scott Greacen; Guest: Konrad Fisher; Topic: Efforts to protect and restore Klamath River water quantity (flows) and quality to protect salmonid fisheries, progress toward dam removal; enforcement efforts.

Dunes:

Air Date: 8/25/2016; Show Title: EcoNews Report; Length:30 Minutes; Host: Delia Bense Kang; Guest: Carol Vander Meer; Topic: Friends of the Dunes Coastal Naturalist Training and other programs.

Environment:

Air Date: 9/29/2016; Show title: EcoNews; Length: 29 minutes; Host: Tom Wheeler Guest: Erin Kelly and Emily Sinkhorn; Topic: adventure hiking the Big Foot Trail.

Air Date: July 7, 2016 ; Show Title: Econew; Length: 29 minutes; Host: Scott Greacen of Friends of the Eel River; Guest: Dan Barton; Topic Malheur National Wildlife Refuge occupation in early 2016 and an update on some of the principal people involved.

Air Date: 7/14/2016; Show title: EcoNews Report; Length: 29 minutes; Host: Sydney Stewart' Guest: Levon Durr owner of Fungaia Farm; Topic: The completion of the mycore mediation project in Orleans.

Air Date: 7/21/2016; Show title: EcoNews Report; Length: 29 minutes; Host: Jennifer Kalt, Guest: Jacob Pounds of Humboldt Baykeeper; Topic: Jacob Pounds, Citizen Research Coordinator for Mad River Alliance talks about summer steelhead counts and temperature monitoring on the Mad River.

Air Date: 8/4/2016; Show Title: EcoNews Report; Length:29 Minutes; Host: Scott Greacen; Guest: Konrad Fisher; Topic: Efforts to protect and restore Klamath River water quantity (flows) and quality to protect salmonid fisheries, progress toward dam removal; enforcement efforts.

Air Date: 7/28/2016; Title of Show: EcoNews; Show Length: 29 minutes; Host: Delia Bense-Kang ; Guest: Justin Robbins of Big Flat Blitz; Topic: Restoration efforts at big flat on the lost coast

Air Date: 8/18/2016; Show Title: EcoNews Report; Length: 29 minutes; Host: Jennifer Kalt; Guest: Fred Evenson, Ecological Rights Foundation; Topic: Mercury in fish in Monterey Bay's Elkhorn Slough.

Air Date: 8/25/2016; Show Title: EcoNews Report; Length: 29 Minutes; Host: Delia Bense Kang; Guest: Carol Vander Meer; Topic: Friends of the Dunes Coastal Naturalist Training and other programs.

Air Date: September 8, 2016; Show Title: EcoNews; Length: 29 minutes; Host: Tom Wheeler; Guest: Natalynne DeLapp, Executive Director of EPIC;; Topic: The ESA listing of the Northern spotted owl and the anniversary of the Headwaters Forest protests.

Air Date: September 15, 2016; Show title: EcoNews; Length: 29; Host: Pete Nichols, National Director of Waterkeeper Alliance,;; Guest: John Wathen of Hurricane Creek keeper and Tonya Bonitatibus of Savannah River keeper; Topic: The Dakota Access Pipeline and the historic coming together of over 280 tribes to protest the pipeline in Standing Rock.

Air Date: September 22, 2016; Show Title: Econews; Length: 29 minutes; Host: Tom Wheeler; Guest: Natalynne DeLapp, Executive Director at EPIC; Topic: EPIC's victory in listing the northern spotted owl under the California Endangered Species Act and the 20th anniversary of the largest protest to save the Headwaters Forest.