

KHSM Third Quarter 2018 Issues and Program Report

Period: July – September, 2018

KHSM broadcasts the syndicated programming of Radio Bilingüe, except for locally-produced programs noted below. Radio Bilingüe is the leading Latino public radio network and content producer for the nation's public broadcasting system. Its mission is to serve as a voice to empower Latinos and other under-served communities.

KHSM Locally-produced programs - TUESDAYS 7PM, WEDNESDAYS 7AM AND SATURDAYS 1PM ON KHSM. RADIO BILINGÜE NORTHCOAST

Measure K, Humboldt's Sanctuary Ordinance Augments California's Sanctuary State Policies

AUG 27, 2018 Brenda Perez and Emily Velez of Centro Del Pueblo talk about SB 54, the California State Sanctuary Bill and Measure K - A sanctuary law for Humboldt County to enhance local control of our public safety dollars; expand community safety; and help keep families together.

Charlando: Journey 2 Justice

AUG 14, 2018 The Dream Riders are back again with another campaign! They are riding their bicycles from Seattle (WA) to San Diego (CA) for 37 days to advocate for a pathway to citizenship for all non-citizens in this country. This includes all 11 million undocumented immigrants and 35,000 intercountry adoptees.

Charlando: On Site with Food For People

- AUG 10, 2018 The Charlando hosts visit Food For People's main site in Eureka. Carly, Juan and Anne give a tour of FFP's hub of operations and discuss the extensive services provided throughout the northcoast region.

Charlando: Opportunities to Build Resilience and Equity

AUG 7, 2018 This episode of Charlando focuses on community empowerment. Charlando hosts and guests share a wide ranging discussion: From recognizing small business opportunities for the Latinx community to honoring strength and building resilience in local Native communities.

Charlando: The Immigrant Experience, Two Perspectives

JUL 24, 2018 The Charlando hosts interview guests about the immigrant experience. Marianne Pennekamp discusses immigration politics and human rights - and shares some of her experience as a young woman escaping Nazi influences in Europe. Then Paula from Centro Del Pueblo joins the conversation to share another perspective of the immigrant experience.

Charlando: Educational Success and Honoring Language

JUL 6, 2018 On this episode of Charlando, Marisol Ruiz, Associate Professor School of Education at HSU, joins the discussion to highlight research on bilingual education, effective teaching strategies and honoring language and culture.

Charlando: Culture, Social Justice and Politics with Cesar Abarca

JUL 1, 2018 On this episode of Charlando, Assistant Professor César Abarca joins Xochitl, Brenda and Yojana for a discussion about culture, politics and social justice. Cesar is a community organizer, scholar-activist, and urban farmer.