Crime
10/1/2016	6:01 AM	41 Action News Today @6A	:40	Odessa Homicide	Weeks after a city eliminated its police force-- 41 Action News uncovered new claims that Odessa police mishandled a murder investigation. Last year in June -- Travis Graham shot and killed Randy Dyer. Our investigators just obtained this memo from the prosecutor saying an Odessa officer failed to interview key witnesses. Despite Graham originally facing murder charges-- he pleaded guilty to voluntary manslaughter. Those charges carry a major difference in prison time.
10/1/2016	10:05 PM	41 Action News at 10	:35	KC Freedom Project	A rally today for men the KC Freedom Project says were wrongly convicted of murder. Groups came together at the Mills Creek Park on the Plaza for Keith Carnes and Byron Case. Both men were convicted of murder in Jackson county courts. Case was sentenced for a 1997 shooting and Carnes for a 2003 shooting death.
10/30/2016	8:02 AM	41 Action News Today Weekend	:15	Anti-Crime Canvassing	A week ago - we were telling you about another shooting death in the metro. Now - Charles Bradford's family is going door to door - hoping someone has information. 41 Action News reporter Josh Helmuth met with them while they canvassed a neighborhood. Ad hoc group against crime helped the Bradshaw family canvas dozens of homes in the area....
11/30/2016	5:03 AM	41 Action News @ 5A	:15	Crown Plaza Robbery	Police searching for the suspects in a downtown robbery and shooting. It happened last night outside the Crowne Plaza hotel at 13th and Wyandotte. The victim is expected to survive. Police have not arrested anyone in connection to the crime.
11/28/2016	10:10 PM	41 Action News at 10	:25	Health Department on Violence	With a rising murder rate in Kansas City authorities are working on a new way to combat crime. Along with the health department their goal is to tackle crime as a public health issue - not a safety one. Right now, organizers are working to find funding for the initiative.
11/4/2016	11:34 AM	41 Action News Midday	:15	Mo Bank Robbery Shootout	A wild crime spree had a deadly ending in mid-Missouri. Police say three people escaped a halfway house stole a car and robbed a bank. As they headed into another city the trio got into a shootout with police near a school. Officers chased the suspects into a home. One of the men killed himself. Police arrested the other two. No officers were hurt.
12/31/2016	6:37 AM	41 Action News @ 6A	:20	Ks Sex Crime	New information about the Mexican national accused of raping a 13 year old girl on a bus in Kansas. We now know Tomas Martinez-Maldonado had been deported 10 times and voluntarily left the US nine times before the crime. The crime allegedly happened September 27th aboard a greyhound bus in Geary County. There's a status hearing for this case scheduled for January 10th.
12/4/2016	8:02 AM	41 Action News Today Weekend	:35	Lenexa Social Crime	A warning from police as we find more and more ways to communicate without calling each other. Lenexa police say at least once a week someone will message them online asking how they can report a crime going on right now.
12/13/2016	11:30 AM	41 Action News Midday	:20	KCMO Program	Kansas City is working on a similar project. Its hope is that tearing down vacant homes will cut down on crime and lower the number of homes on the city's dangerous buildings list. Since May, the city has torn down 140 buildings and plans to demolish 41 others soon. A two year timeline is in place to get rid of over 800 abandoned buildings.

Education
10/28/2016	4:23 PM	The Now	:06	Student Loan Rules	A number of for-profit schools have closed with little or no warning in the past few years. ITT tech is the most recent one we've told you about. Now students are getting new protections so they're not on the hook when this happens. The Now's Rae Daniel is in the newsroom now --to explain. The department of education put out these new rules today. They will make it so you can get your federal loans erased if your college misrepresents the quality of its programs.
10/4/2016	6:07 PM	41 Action News at 6	:28	Ks Schoold Board Summit	People dedicated to education in Kansas came to the metro today. We were there for the Kansas Association of School Boards' fall summit in Overland Park. Teachers, administrators and lawmakers all came out to Blue Valley's hilltop learning center. This comes with a lot uncertainty surrounding the future of funding Kansas schools.
10/13/2016	5:36 AM	41 Action News Today @6A	:30	MO Education Push	Back in the day -- students had 12 to 15 credit hours for each semester in college. But now a new Missouri plan is taking another look at that thinking to help make school more affordable. Yesterday -- the 15-to-finish initiative started. It works with a national non-profit to find a new way to look at student's class scheduling habits. It's aimed at helping schools adjust their requirements to help keep students in school and graduating. It could allow for Missouri colleges to get more money since state aid is based on student performance.
11/30/2016	5:22 AM	41 Action News @ 5A	:15	Ks Education Internet	High speed internet is headed for Kansas classrooms. The "Kansas Connect and Learn Initiative" will cost about 100-million dollars over the next two years. Governor Brownback says the move could help with teacher shortages in rural areas.
11/13/2016	6:14 AM	41 action News @ 6A	:35	KC School Fair	When it comes to your child's education there are a lot of options you may not know about. That's why for the first time Kansas City Public Library hosted a "city school" fair at the Central Library yesterday. Parents and students got the chance to learn about the 50 public schools, charter, private and other school options.
11/7/2016	5:03 PM	41 Action News at 5	:00	KCPS Accreditation	For the first time in 30 years the Kansas City school district is on the road to regaining its accreditation. The district received a passing 70 percent on its recent report card -- but this battle is far from over. 41 Action News reporter Lisa Benson talked to the superintendent to find out what the next step is.
12/1/2016	4:06 PM	The Now	:31	DESE Tours KCPS	K-c-p-s --is showcasing what it believes the school district is doing right --as it gets closer to gaining full accreditation. Superintendent Doctor Mark Bedell --and other district officials --toured several schools today -with members of the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education -- or "DESE" for short. Tomorrow morning -- Doctor Bedell will host a public meeting --to go over what the district is doing to get full accredited --and what challenges they are facing. That meeting starts at 8:30 tomorrow morning at Truman Medical Center.
12/15/2016	11:43 AM	41 Action News Midday	:20	KS Education Budget	Big plans on Governor Sam Brownback's budget proposals. The governor says his proposals include a new scholarship program for training teachers for rural schools as well as another initiative to bring doctors and dentists to those same areas. Brownback says the proposals come as he tries to eliminate more than a billion dollars in budget shortfalls projected through June of 2019.
12/23/2016	5:03 PM	41 Action News at 5	:20	KS Education Funding	There's still debate on how Kansas should change it's funding for public schools. Governor Sam Brownback says he wants a new formula to focus on student performance but educators are wanting something more traditional. School boards have expressed their interest in creating a per-student formula. The governor is still asking for suggestions through his office.

12/28/2016	6:35 PM	41 Action News at 6	:25	Pennies Cost More To Make	The government lost 45-million dollars making pennies this year. You heard that right -- 45-million. It actually costs one-and-a-half cents to make a penny. The mint churned out 9-million of them this year alone. So far, leaders haven't been able to come up with a cheaper way to make the coin. The nickel is a money loser too. Fortunately, Uncle Sam makes money off the quarter and dime.
12/21/2016	4:33 PM	The Now	:25	Social Security Student Loans	If you still have student loans you might want to get those paid off before you start collecting social security. We found out today that the government is garnishing more social security benefits than ever because of student loan debt. And it's not just a little bit. The government can keep about 150 dollars a month until that loan is paid off. Of course, some lawmakers are against this. But when someone doesn't pay that means taxpayers are on the hook for the bills.
12/9/2016	4:03 PM	The Now	:20	Budget Deadline	Congress has to pass a spending bill by midnight to stop a government shutdown. The house has already passed it and gone home for the holidays. But some democrats in the senate are fighting it. They want the extension on an expiring health insurance program for retired miners to be longer than what is in the bill now. We'll let you know what happens.
