

KINU provides a musical format for the Kotzebue audience base that complements the public radio format provided by KOTZ-AM. The primarily music-based programming is meant to compliment the native, public affairs and news programming of KOTZ-AM. KINU also has NPR news on the hour that provides national and international affairs coverage. Current Temperature runs once an hour.