

Current Significant Problems, Needs and Issues of Indianapolis, Indiana
Winter Quarter 2024

Filed April 2024 – January, February, March

Law Enforcement, Education, Infrastructure Maintenance, Housing, Zoning & Urban Planning, Recreational Opportunities, Poverty, Healthcare, Taxation, Governance, Employment, Environment, Workforce Development

Local programs carried by WFYI-FM to address in part the current Significant Problems, Needs and Issues:

"Indiana Week In Review", Friday, 6:00p.m. and Saturday, 6:30 a.m. (27:00)

Hosted by State House Reporter Brandon Smith, with prominent spokespersons each from the Indiana Democratic Party and the Indiana Republican Party and two print journalists reviewing the events of the past week in state and local governments throughout Indiana.

"Indiana Lawmakers", Saturday 6:00 a.m. (28:00)

Only in production during the Indiana General Assembly's sessions, this show keeps Hoosiers updated on the hottest issues being debated by the state's legislators. Host Jon Schwantes and legislative analyst Ed Feigenbaum take you behind the closed doors of the Statehouse. Indiana's governor, state senators, representatives, as well as industry experts weigh in on topics ranging from education to healthcare.

News Cast, Weekdays 6:04am, 6:30am, 7:04am, 7:30am, 8:04am, 8:30am, 12:04pm, 4:04pm, 4:30pm, 5:04pm, 5:30pm, 6:04pm

Hosted by WFYI news staff, these newscasts focus on daily news covering the Central Indiana Region.

News Features, Weekdays 7:45am and 5:45pm (4:00)

In depth stories and interviews from local journalists.