Title: General Manager

On the following dates, these radio stations were granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission:

KGOU and KROU on May 27, 2005

KWOU on January 25, 2011

KOUA on February 11, 2011

These licenses were granted by the FCC to serve the public interest as a public trustee until June 1, 2013.

These licenses will expire on June 1, 2013. We must file applications for license renewal with the FCC by February 1, 2013. When filed, copies of these applications will be available for public inspection during our regular business hours. These applications contain information concerning these stations' performance during the last eight years or since the license was granted.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal applications and to whether these stations have operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the FCC by May 1, 2013.

Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast renewal process is available at KGOU's main office, Room 300 of Copeland Hall, 860 Van Vleet Oval on the University of Oklahoma campus in Norman, Oklahoma, or may be obtained from the Federal Communications Commission, in Washington, D.C., zip code 20554.
