

WFWN/WNOG-1240/1270, The Fan, Public File Report

Programming:

Mondays-Friday

The Thom Abraham Show:

6:00 AM- 9:00 AM

The only LIVE and LOCAL sports morning show in SWFL. Thom has deep sports knowledge including former coaching experience combined with personal contacts with sports professionals that lends a great knowledge base to the listener. Thom is also very lifestyle oriented and not afraid to talk about personal and topical issues on the show that build a true team like atmospheres with his listeners known as the “Dawg Pound”

The Dan Patrick Show

9:00 AM- 12:00 PM

Dan Patrick worked as a FM DJ, a sports broadcaster in Dayton, Ohio, and at CNN Sports. For 18 years, he helped build ESPN in many roles, most notably, co-host of SportsCenter. As for some of the places you can see and hear Patrick, the Dan Patrick Show has been syndicated on radio since 2007, simulcast on DIRECTV since 2009, simulcast on NBC Sports Network since 2012, as well as streamed live on Danpatrick.com. He also is a senior writer for Sports Illustrated, and has hosted NBC’s Olympic coverage in 2012 in London and 2014 in Sochi.

Jim Rome

12:00 PM- 3:00 PM

The Jim Rome Show, a.k.a. The Jungle, airs on more than 200 radio stations each weekday and boasts more than two million listeners. But these are no ordinary listeners. They are a legion of fans known as the clones who live and breathe for Jim Rome’s “take” on the day’s larger issues of sport. It is his departure from conventional sports commentary that has resulted in Rome’s unique dialogue with his listeners.

The Doug Gottlieb Show

3:00 PM- 6:00 PM

“Listeners of my radio show will enjoy a fast, highly opinionated program that will challenge and engage sports fans nationwide. And I’m looking forward to developing a new television program, following in the steps of my former colleague and friend Jim Rome,” said Doug Gottlieb.

The DA Show

6:00PM – 10:00PM

Damon Amendolara, known by his gams as D.A., hosts a program which is a mix of the latest sports news, discussions and controversy, in addition to interviews with newsmakers from the sports world and calls from night-owls across the country.

Ferrall On The Beach

10:00PM-2:00AM

“Ferrall on the Beach” takes listeners through the day’s headlines and most talked about topics in sports, generates spirited discussions with callers, and conducts captivating interviews with a variety of special guests.

After Hours With Amy Lawrence

2:00AM – 6:00AM

Prior to her weekly show, Lawrence headlined three weekend shows on CBS Sports Radio and also served as fill-in host for various shows across the network. Previously, she spent nine years at ESPN Radio where she was the only regular female host and she was the first female in Oklahoma history to pilot her own sports radio talk show. Lawrence has handled basketball ply by play and color duties for various radio and television outlets over the past 15 years and served as the voice of University of Hartford women’s basketball for the last six seasons.

Weekends

CBS Sports Weekends

Some CBS sports upcoming broadcast stars share the spotlight as they recap the happenings of the week in sports/

Play by Play

The NFL

The Florida Gators

The Florida State Seminoles

The Majors in Golf

Public Service Announcements

PSA :60 – United Way

PSA :30 – Feeding America

PSA :60 - Wounded Warrior Project

PSA :30 – Lee County Sheriff Mike Scott, Drug Abuse

PSA :60 – American Stroke Association / Who Might You Save

PSA :60 –Veterans & Prescription Drugs

PSA :60 - Feeding America – Food Angels

PSA :60 - Crime Prevention Council / Heard it on the News

PSA :60 – UNCF / Stock Tip: Alisha

PSA :30 – Fort Myers Police Department Baker Safety

PSA :30 - Texting & Driving

PSA :30 – Goodwill Job Training

PSA :30 – NHTSA – Stop Texts, Stop Wrecks

PSA :30 – Patriotism

PSA :60 – Air National Guard

PSA :60 – United Way

Oct- Nov 2014 – Taste of Lee Sponsor