PBS Special Report Healthcare Reform

Thursday, September 24, 9:00 – 10:30 PM

"PBS Special Report on Health Care Reform" is an unprecedented collaboration among PBS public affairs producers. Anchors, reporters and producers from "NOW on PBS," "Tavis Smiley" and "Nightly Business Report" will work together to provide a seamless 90-minute show that examines the urgent topic of health care reform. Correspondents and producers from all shows will collaborate to provide analysis, discussion, insight and engagement with the proposal to provide universal health care in the U.S. The program will open with the latest on the issue -- what's happening in Congress and the state of play between supporters and opponents of reform. But the bulk of the show will look in-depth at issues critical to success or failure of the initiative.

(4) Swine Flu

Washington Week

Friday, August 14, 8:00 – 8:30pm on GPB Knowledge

Presidential rumor control in the health care debate, calling the shots in the battle against swine flu, Hillary Clinton's mission to Africa, and what's next for Afghanistan. I'm Pete Williams sitting in for Gwen Ifill, tonight on Washington Week. The president takes to the road to put out wildfires over health care reform. Pres. Barack Obama said, "The way politics works sometimes is that people who want to keep things the way they are will try to scare the heck out of folks." How fear about an end-of-life provision has become the viral talking point in the reform debate. The start of the school year also means flu season is just around the corner. The younger individuals and pregnant women appear to be much more vulnerable to serious disease. The government's plan to get ahead of the swine flu virus. Hillary Clinton spends 11 days in Africa, but was it a lost-in-translation moment that overshadowed her mission? Secretary of State Hillary Clinton said, "Wait, you want me to tell you what my husband thinks? My husband is not the secretary of state. I am." Questions of substance and standing for the secretary of state. And while U.S. troops drawdown in Iraq, the fighting intensifies in Afghanistan on the eve of presidential elections there. Secretary of Defense Robert Gates said, "They're obviously holding an election in adverse circumstances. How the Taliban is forcing changes in U.S. strategy. Covering these stories this week: Janet Hook of the Los Angeles Times, Michael Duffy of Time Magazine, Janine Zacharia of Bloomberg News, and James Kitfield of National Journal.
