

WSGS 101.1 FM

2ND Qtr. 2014 Community Issues/Programs

1.) Across Kentucky – Monday thru Friday airs at 6am. A 3 minute agricultural program discussing issues in Kentucky.

2.) Thursday April 24th 2014 – 4-4:15pm (15 minutes)

WSGS & WKIC Announcer Mike Reeves interviewed featured guest: Estill Neace, owner of Big Blue Smokehouse in Hazard to promote that Law enforcement from around the area was gathering at the restaurant that evening to raise money for the Special Olympics. Mike interviewed Estill prior to the event to urge listeners to stop by and raise money for this worthy cause.

3.) Wednesday April 30th 2014 9:30-10:30am (1 hour)

Mike Barnett with Twin rocks bible camp was featured guest on the Faron & Scott show to raise money for Twin Rocks Bible Camp, during this hour Mike encouraged listeners to call in and pledge any amount to the camp to sponsor a child for the camp this summer. Local churches and organizations was invited to use the camp as well.

4.) Thursday May 1st 2014 9:30-9:40am (10 Minutes)

Morning talk show host Scott Napier interviewed Pamela Melton with the American Cancer Society relay for life of Perry County's event jail and bail. An event in which you can have your friends, family or co-workers arrested by local volunteer police & then they raise "bail" money in form of donations to the American Cancer Society. The talk show also featured jail songs to try to raise interest for the event taking place that day.

5.) Wednesday May 21st 2014 8am-4pm

Each year WSGS dedicates a full day to raise money for the Hazard/Perry County Senior Citizens Center. Guest announcer & senior citizen director Beth Caudill host the radio day and guest with various organizations stop by to be on air to help raise money by challenging local business, friends, family and co-workers to donate to this worthy cause. WSGS employees along with volunteers took pledges and donations throughout the day.

6.) Wednesday June 25th 2014 9:45-9:55am

HCTC director of admissions Scott Gross was in studio guest to promote the college fall enrollment, they informed listeners of when the fall enrollment would take place and urged students to register, apply for financial aid etc.