

WSGS 101.1 FM

4th Qtr. 2017 Community Issues/Programs

1.) Across Kentucky – Monday thru Friday airs at 6am. A 3 minute agricultural program discussing issues in Kentucky.

2.) FRIDAY OCTOBER 6TH 2017 - 7:30-7:37AM

Twin Rocks Bible camp wanted to promote their Fall Family Fun Days so Rae ann stopped by the studios to invite everyone to Fall Family Fun Days this weekend to help fund the camp which invites children of all ages to Summer Camp regardless of their ability to pay. She mentioned the 3 day event and all the events taking place.

3.) Tuesday October 31st 2017 – 7:35-7:41AM

Hazard Middle School teacher Derek Allen stopped by the studios with students to promote Kindness week at the school this week and beyond encouraging others to promote kindness.

4.) THURSDAY NOVEMBER 16TH 2017- 9:30-9:45AM

HCTC – Guest Bart Massey and Perry County Judge Executive Scott Alexander In studio guest stopped by to discuss the latest drone projects taking place in Hazard. The main focus was that a Search and Rescue training is being offered tomorrow with the drones so they encouraged the listening audience to be involved and participate.

5.) Wednesday December 6th 2017 – 7:45-8am

Perry County Judge Executive Scott Alexander and Wanda Brown with Christmas in a small town was in studio guest to discuss the events taking place this week in downtown free of charge during Christmas in a small town, she gave the list of events and invited everyone to come out and take part in the fun.

6.) THURSDAY DECEMBER 28TH 2017 - 9:30AM-9:45AM

JOE FARMER from Manchester with the Appalachian Mentoring Project was in studio guest on the Faron & Scott show to promote the new Appalachian Mentoring Program. The program is designed to match good mentors with kids who could use a positive influence in their life. Troubled youth that may be at risk would have the opportunity to have a positive influence in their life to mentor them and do activities with them and so forth to help in shaping their future.