

WSGS 101.1 FM

4th QTR. 2012 Community Issues/Programs

1.) Across Kentucky – Monday thru Friday airs at 6am. A 3 minute agricultural program discussing issues in Kentucky.

2.) Wednesday October 3rd – 10:10-10:20am (10 Minutes)

Mike Barnett with New Hope Church and Twin Rocks Bible Camp called in to promote Fall Fun days at Twin Rocks Bible Camp. Listeners were encouraged to attend this event which raises money for the camp.

3.) Thursday October 18th – 9:30-9:45am (15 Minutes)

Perry County Judge Executive Denny Ray Noble and Tawny Hogg with Hazard/Perry County Tourism was interviewed by Faron & Scott regarding the recent opening of Eagles Landing in Buckhorn. To celebrate the first year of success they hosted a community appreciation event and they was on the show to invite the public.

4.) Thursday November 29th 9:30-9:45am (15 minutes)

Marlow Tackett & Perry County Judge Executive was in studio guest to promote Marlow's annual Christmas for the Needy which takes place at the Old American Woodmart building on the Coal Fields Industrial Park in Perry County. They wanted to urge the public to donate food, clothing, household supplies, and toys to help those less fortunate.

5.) Thursday December 20th 9:30-9:45am (15 minutes)

Marlow Tackett was back in studio to discuss the upcoming "Christmas for the needy" to be held Sunday December 23rd in Hazard. He invited anyone in need this Christmas season to come be a part of the event.