

Thursday, October 1, 2015

Valley Regional Hospital in Claremont announces five layoffs; Claremont School Board agrees to implement superintendent evaluations; Quechee, Vermont man pleads not guilty to charges of sexual trafficking; Officials in New Hampshire and Vermont still watching water levels after heavy rain; Pheasant hunting season begins in New Hampshire; Former Dartmouth College fraternity suing town of Hanover in regards to zoning board ruling; Churches in Newport and New London providing school children with warm breakfast; Skate park of Plymouth to extend at Tenney Mountain. SPORTS - Keene hosts regional qualifier for Boston Marathon.

Friday, October 2, 2015

Windsor Town Manager announces closed down company has paid back all loans to town; Residents of Sullivan County to see small decrease in annual tax rates; Central Street home in Claremont to receive face lift despite lack of cooperation from owner; New Hampshire Department of Transportation aware of risky stretch of road on Claremont's Washington Street; More than 200 students from local schools visit Mount Sunapee for Watershed Discovery Day; Three local men in federal court on charges of running bath salt distribution ring; Vermont officials confirm additional cases of E. coli. SPORTS - Highlights of Stevens boys soccer vs. Mascoma.

Monday, October 5, 2015

Single-car accident on Route 11 near Claremont/Newport town line forces road closure; New London woman injured while biking on Henniker trail; Unidentified minor leads police on chase through Royalton, Vermont and West Lebanon, New Hampshire; Hartford police to station social worker within department; New Hampshire Governor Maggie Hassan announces run for U.S. Senate; Springfield, Vermont man airlifted to hospital after two-car collision in Bethel; Stretch of Route 120 in Cornish sees third accident in one week; Flu shot clinics taking place throughout Twin States; Revolution clothing store in White River Junction holds fashion show. SPORTS - Highlights of the Stevens football team's showdown with Inter-Lakes/Moultonborough.

Tuesday, October 6, 2015

Utilities crews finish repairs on pole severed in Route 11 crash on Claremont/Newport town line; Massachusetts man sentenced after pleading guilty to robbing three local banks; Newport select board considering raising annual fees to three towns for use of its ambulance service; Claremont zoning board approves request for new Domino's sign to be located on Washington Street; Unidentified man chased into woods after single-car accident on Route 103 in Sunapee; Dartmouth-Hitchcock among three Granite State hospitals joining forces; Spofford, New Hampshire cottage destroyed in fire; Fall foliage delayed due to warm temperatures. SPORTS - Highlights of the Sunapee volleyball team's matchup with Moultonborough.

Wednesday, October 7, 2015

Program Issues List_4th Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

Claremont once again attempting to sell former Goodwin Community Center and its indoor pool and gym; Public forum to allow residents of Hartford, Vermont to weigh in on possible sidewalks; Owner of Common Man restaurants issues substance abuse challenge; Claremont business recognized during 6th annual Rising Stars Awards; Two candidates for Vermont governor officially kick off campaigns; Dartmouth College community to partake in fact-finding survey; Union representing service employees and campus safety officers at Dartmouth agree to new contract; Solarize Upper Valley offering free webinar on launching your own solar campaign. SPORTS - Results from Sunapee girls soccer's bout with Stevens.

Thursday, October 8, 2015

10-year anniversary of devastating flooding throughout Western New Hampshire; Residents of Newport to hear presentation outlining possible secession from SAU 43; Claremont Police Department launches investigation into graffiti found on Planned Parenthood office on Pleasant Street; Springfield, Vermont woman arrested on charges of domestic assault and unlawful mischief; Claremont School District votes to officially move to paperless report cards; Dartmouth College officials continue to analyze sexual assault statistics on campus; Dartmouth College football coach to appear on CBS' The Late Show; Claremont business names one of coolest companies for young professionals to work. SPORTS - Results from Division IV golf state championships.

Friday, October 9, 2015

Dedication of new waiting pavilion at Claremont's Amtrak development; Claremont School District to expand renovations to city's elementary schools; Lebanon city councilors mulling ideas for improving downtown and pedestrian mall area; Former New Hampshire Governor and White House Chief of Staff John Sununu speaks at Colby-Sawyer College; VA office on Etna Road in Lebanon closed while employees prepare to move back to White River Junction; Debate raised in Woodstock over controversial star and cross lit on local hillside; Sunapee police still seeking individual who fled the scene of a single-car crash on Route 103; Dartmouth College kicks off homecoming weekend with annual bonfire. SPORTS - Complete highlights and interviews from Division IV champion Newport golf team.

Monday, October 12, 2015

COLUMBUS DAY SPECIAL - Warner Fall Foliage Festival Parade

Tuesday, October 13, 2015

Lebanon Police ask for help in identifying suspect accused of robbing Kmart; A vacant Claremont mill building one step closer to receiving major face lift; Charlestown, New Hampshire woman arrested on charges of possessing heroin and fleeing police; Brattleboro Police searching for driver of a vehicle who fled the scene of a two-car accident; New Hampshire state representative seeks answers from Dartmouth College on whether loaned money was reimbursed; Vermont's Attorney General's Office warns residents of bankruptcy

Program Issues List_4th Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

scam; Springfield's Edgar May Health and Recreation Center issues Sugar Free Challenge.

SPORTS - Lebanon football wins Principal's Cup over rival Hanover.

Wednesday, October 14, 2015

Groundbreaking ceremony held for New London Hospital's Newport Health Center; Newport School District discusses plans to withdraw from SAU 43 and create single-town district; Hanover Police reports fewer incidents during Dartmouth College homecoming weekend than years past; Village trustees vote to allow non-residents of Bellows Falls the ability to purchase year-round parking permits; Georges Mills General Store celebrates reopening after devastating fire; New London's Colby-Sawyer College reports slight increase in retention rates from previous year; Florida Governor and Republican Presidential Candidate Jeb Bush speaks to New Hampshire voters in Lebanon; Vermont Secretary of State announces voter registration website. SPORTS - Highlights of girls soccer bout between Newport and Bishop Brady.

Thursday, October 15, 2015

Croydon School Board defends its decision to continue funding the tuition of students attending the private Newport Montessori School; Students at Hanover High School granted access to free condoms in an effort to promote safe sex; Springfield, Vermont man killed while standing next to broken down vehicle on Interstate 91 in Hartland; More than 30 Vermont residents attend public forum regarding transportation issues in Vermont; Superintendents of Claremont and Newport make wager for upcoming high school football game between the towns; Westminster, Vermont mobile home destroyed in afternoon fire; Opera House Square Complex topic of Claremont City Council meeting; 2nd Annual New London Pumpkin People Contest kicks off. SPORTS - The Kearsarge boys soccer teams takes on Bow under the lights.

Friday, October 16, 2015

United Way in Sullivan County holds its 8th Annual Free Coat Giveaway in the Newport Common; U.S. Senator Kelly Ayotte attends roundtable discussion at Dartmouth College on now expired Land and Water Conservation Fund; West Lebanon woman pleads guilty to stealing more than $1,300 while employed at the VA Medical Center in White River Junction; Author of "We Are Market Basket" spoke at the Fiske Free Library in Claremont; Mount Sunapee Resort earns numerous awards in SKI Magazine's annual reader survey; Sunapee Police Benevolent Association to hold Halloween Candy Drive to support Central Street homes; Charlestown principal to be honored in Washington DC as a National Distinguished Principal; Sullivan County Republicans hold annual fundraising dinner. SPORTS - Stevens girls soccer celebrates "Senior Night" before matchup with Belmont.

Monday, October 19, 2015

Bellows Falls Police uncover 600 bags of heroin in car of Connecticut couple; Home and dental practice of tax evaders Ed and Elaine Brown set to go up for auction again; New London Parks and Recreation Department holds annual Great Pumpkin Race; Claremont mayoral candidate Charlene Lovett explains her run for office and plans if elected; Dartmouth College receives

Program Issues List_4th Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

almost $1,000,000 in grant money to increase cyber security on campus; Alice Peck Day Memorial Hospital in Lebanon appoints new Manager of Same Day Surgery and Post-Anesthesia Care Unit; New Abbott Library in Sunapee set for parking lot expansion; Edgar May Health and Wellness Director Mallory Peterson explains programs put on by the facility. SPORTS - Highlights of the Annual Chamber Challenge Cup game between the Newport and Stevens football teams.

Tuesday, October 20, 2015

Newport Select Board unanimously votes to increase annual fees for towns utilizing its ambulance service; Sunapee Police Officer presented with Congressional "Above and Beyond the Call of Duty" Award for his response to a January fire; Second-degree murder charges dropped against Hartford, Vermont man accused of killing his girlfriend's son; Single-family home in Quechee, Vermont receives extensive damage during fire; Officials hold public forum in Hartford, Vermont regarding proposed solar farm; MFW Associates, LLC, proposes solar farm in nearby Windsor, Vermont; Select board's decision could bring skiing and riding back to Mount Ascutney Resort; Claremont Superintendent Middleton McGoodwin antes up after Stevens' loss to Newport in rivalry football game. SPORTS - Sunapee boys soccer team suffers disappointing loss to Epping.

Wednesday, October 21, 2015

Claremont Planned Parenthood attacked by vandals for the second time in a month; Vermont's State Board of Education hold public forum in Hartford on controversial Act 46; Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center submits revised plans for a new palliative care center to Lebanon Planning Board; St. Gaudens and Woodstock National Historic Site welcomes new deputy superintendent; Proposed budget for SAU 43 up 11-percent from current school year; Claremont Soup Kitchen under fire as former board of director requests formal investigation by New Hampshire's Attorney General's Office; Judge denies request by Owen Labrie and his lawyers to avoid registering as a sex offender; Vice President Joe Biden announces he will not run for President in 2016. SPORTS - Kearsarge field hockey falls to Newfound in Division III playoff action.

Thursday, October 22, 2015

Upper Valley Humane Society rescues 30 animals from Lebanon home after 911 call; Planner Parenthood's Vice President of Public Policy responds to second act of vandalism in one month against Claremont facility; 33-year-old Claremont man indicted on a single felony sex assault charge from 2012 incident; 32-year-old Lebanon man indicted on six sex-related charges after allegations he assaulted a disabled minor; Hanover Select Board votes to allow downtown vendors ability to renew premier spots; Newport taxpayers to save significant money on tax rates; Authorities discuss future of Lebanon mall building purchased by Claremont's River Valley Community College; Aroma Joe's to open new coffee shop in Newport. SPORTS - The Sunapee volleyball team caps off its regular-season schedule with a win over Newfound.

Friday, October 23, 2015

Former property of tax evaders Ed and Elaine Brown in Plainfield, New Hampshire sold at auction; One person killed and another injured in separate single-car accidents in Springfield, Vermont and Newport, New Hampshire; Claremont's Planned Parenthood announces it will remain closed for the week following second act of vandalism in month; Republican presidential candidate and Ohio Governor John Kasich speaks to potential voter in Newport, New Hampshire; Students at New London Elementary School walk in remembrance of former student who died last September; Claremont Community Television to air mayor debate; Spring Ledge Farm in New London highlights seasonal crop. SPORTS - Highlights of the Sunapee girls soccer team's matchup with Wilton-Lyndeborough.

Monday, October 26, 2015

Claremont mayoral candidates plea their cases to voters during debate; 41-year-old Claremont man arrested for possessing bath salts; William Hopwood elected to Colby-Sawyer College board of trustees; Driver killed in fatal car crash identified as 29-year-old Newbury, New Hampshire man; Future of the former New London Central School in question as explained by school board vice chair; Claremont's Valley Regional Hospital hosts 4th annual Health and Wellness Fair; New London, New Hampshire Police Chief offers safety tips for Halloween. SPORTS - Kearsarge football fights its way to win over Division II rival Lebanon.

Tuesday, October 27, 2015

Vermont set to test its statewide Amber Alert System tomorrow afternoon; Windsor police officer asks for his gun back after incident during November drug bust; Dartmouth-Hitchcock's proposed Palliative Care Center closer to reality after meeting with Lebanon Planning Board; Claremont's Valley Regional Hospital seeking volunteers; Cornish, New Hampshire mulling departure from SAU 6 for new single-town district; Bridge on Springfield, Vermont's South Main Street renamed in honor of Gulf War veterans; Bellows Falls police gear up for annual "Adopt an Angel" program; Interview with director of New London's Sparrow School for children ages three through five. SPORTS - Reflections from the Colby-Sawyer women's tennis team's NEAC title.

Wednesday, October 28, 2015

Vermont Yankees announces plans to withdraw nearly $7-million dollars from decommissioning fund; 26-year-old White River Junction woman arrested for stealing from Hubert's Family Outfitters in Claremont while an employee; 36-year-old Hartland, Vermont man pleads not guilty to flashing a handgun at a passing motorist; 34-year-old Northfield, Vermont man pleads not guilty to driving school bus under the influence of alcohol; Member of New London Hospital's board of trustees talks about new Newport Health Center; A Brattleboro, Vermont woman arrested after months-long investigation into drug trafficking; Opposition group voices concerns over proposed Windsor solar farm; CNBC to host third Republican Presidential Debate tonight. SPORTS - The Fall Mountain boys soccer team falls to Bishop Brady in Round 1 of the Division III tournament.

Program Issues List_4th Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

Thursday, October 29, 2015

Good Beginnings of Sullivan County announces name change during meeting at Common Man Restaurant; Claremont's City Council approves upgrades to Veteran's Park field and parking lot; 44-year-old Randolph, Vermont man injured in West Hartford car accident; Norwich, Vermont select board delays decision on dam damaged during Tropical Storm Irene; Brattleboro, Vermont man arrested on charges of distributing heroin; Walpole Valley Farms to host Halloween costume party; Republican presidential candidate and former Florida Governor Jeb Bush to visit New London, New Hampshire; Republican Paul Ryan elected as 62nd Speaker of the House. SPORTS - Two local girls soccer teams in Fall Mountain and Kearsarge need overtime to decide first round tournament matchup.

Friday, October 30, 2015

Republican presidential candidate and former Florida Governor Jeb Bush visits New London, New Hampshire; Nine residents of Lebanon, New Hampshire arrested on drug charges; Charges dropped against Woodstock police officer accused of assaulting his wife on two separate occasions; New Hampshire media outlets honored during annual Granite Mike Awards; Back roads in West Windsor, Vermont receive improvements; Principals of two Hartford, Vermont schools announce retirement; Local businesses and homeowners in Plainfield, New Hampshire show off Pumpkin People; Safety tips for Halloween Trick-or-Treating. SPORTS - Controversial non-call decides playoff boys soccer game between Stevens and Hillsboro-Deering.

Monday, November 2, 2015

Democratic presidential candidate and Vermont Senator Bernie Sanders visits Lebanon, New Hampshire; Claremont repairs for tomorrow's municipal elections including contested mayoral race; Claremont Ford Dealership ordered by state to pay liens; Hartford, Vermont selectman suing town after fall in municipal building; Cornish, New Hampshire still mulling possibility of single-town school district; Lebanon, New Hampshire business lays off 40 employees; Vermont authorities set to check on sex offenders; Abandoned dog found on Claremont railroad tracks. SPORTS - Sunapee girls soccer team advances to Division IV semifinals for a sixth straight year.

Tuesday, November 3, 2015

Residents of Claremont, New Hampshire take to the polls for municipal elections; One person injured during basement fire in Hanover, New Hampshire; Police identify individual killed by Vermont train while walking on tracks; Charges still being considered in fatal Interstate 91 truck accident; Police searching for Cavendish, Vermont man wanted for gas theft; Claremont Zoning Board discusses gravel pit on Alden Road; Republican presidential candidate and U.S. Senator Lindsey Graham to campaign in Lebanon and Hanover, New Hampshire tomorrow; Democratic presidential candidate Lawrence Lessig withdraws. SPORTS - Brackets revealed for the upcoming NHIAA football tournaments.

Program Issues List_4th Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

Wednesday, November 4, 2015

Charlene Lovett defeats incumbent mayor Jim Neilsen in Claremont municipal elections; Croydon School Board continues to defy request from New Hampshire Attorney General's Office; Windsor, Vermont woman pleads not guilty to embezzlement; New Hampshire Governor Maggie Hassan and executive council to visit area; Republican presidential candidate Lindsey Graham stops in Hanover, New Hampshire, Vermont's Woodstock Inn & Resort undergoing renovations; Dartmouth College in the process of selling Wheelock Building; West Lebanon Feed and Supply reflects on awards. SPORTS - Updates on the New Hampshire high school boys soccer tournaments.

Thursday, November 5, 2015

37-year-old Unity, New Hampshire man sentenced to seven years in prison for role in local heroin and crack-cocaine distribution ring; Croydon School Board member related to three of four students attending private school funded by public tuition dollars; Medical Marijuana Dispensary hiring employees; Presidential candidates Carly Fiorina, Chris Christie and Hillary Clinton set to visit the Upper Valley in coming days; Dartmouth College partakes in Moving Forward program; New Hampshire Governor Maggie Hassan and members of the executive council visit Newport and Claremont; Area cities rank among drunkest in Vermont; YCN Game of the Week rescheduled due to power outage. SPORTS - Sunapee volleyball advances to the finals for the first time since 2006.

Friday, November 6, 2015

Claremont's Planned Parenthood remains closed after sustaining significant damage in recent vandalism; Faulty circuit breaker to blame in Newport power outage; Privacy activism meeting planned at Lebanon's Kilton Public Library; Republican presidential candidate Carly Fiorina visits Newport, New Hampshire; Alice Peck Day Memorial Hospital holding groundbreaking for new building; Public forum set to discuss future of New London's historic 1941 building; River Valley Community College President elected to national position; Newbury, New Hampshire's The Fells to host holiday Christmas show. SPORTS - Sunapee girls soccer falls to rival Derryfield in the Division IV semifinals in Laconia, New Hampshire.

Monday November 9, 2015

Two arrested in Claremont, New Hampshire on drug charges; Stevens high School seeking parent volunteers; Hartford considering formation of massive school district; New Jersey Governor and Republican presidential candidate Chris Christie visits Hanover, New Hampshire; Claremont church organ once again working after vandalism; Crews from nine different fire departments needed to extinguish Weathersfield, Vermont cabin fire; Four-alarm fire on Valgar Street in Brattleboro, Vermont displaces 45 residents; Lebanon, New Hampshire considering hydro-power along Mascoma River. SPORTS - Roundup of high-school playoff action from the weekend in both New Hampshire and Vermont.

Program Issues List_4th Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

Tuesday, November 10, 2015

Vermont State Police investigating death of Hartford man found dead in his home after fight; Hartford Police seeking information on hit and run that left a bicyclist with minor injuries; Brattleboro and Vermont State Police investigating untimely death of 35-year-old man found shot in his car; Two arraigned as a result of Claremont, New Hampshire drug bust; Upper Valley native charged in Halloween murder in Colorado; Public tour to be held at New London, New Hampshire's historic 1941 building; Mount Royal Academy students serve lunch to veterans; FOX News to host fourth Republican Presidential Debate tonight. SPORTS - Recap of the Kearsarge boys cross country team's Division III championship.

Wednesday, November 11, 2015

New London, New Hampshire community honors Veterans with Veteran's Day ceremony; Residents of Claremont gather to honor the city's veterans; Hartford, Vermont man found dead in his home after fight said to have suffered heart attack; Brattleboro Police upgrade investigation to a homicide in untimely death of man found in car; Croydon School Board receives support in its ongoing school choice battle with the New Hampshire Attorney General's Office; One Mile West Restaurant in Sunapee closes its doors for good; Hanover, New Hampshire rewarded by Zappos.com with 1,800 boxes; Highlights of the League of New Hampshire Craftsmen's current exhibit. SPORTS - A list of local volleyball players named to New Hampshire All-State team.

Thursday, November 12, 2015

Tortoise saved but home destroyed in Newport, New Hampshire fire; Hearing date set for injunction filed in Croydon School Board controversy; Lebanon city council considers raising taxes; Dartmouth College settles lawsuit with former women's lacrosse coach; Norwich, Vermont not appealing decision on dam damaged during Tropical Storm Irene; Vermont State Police deem Brattleboro apartment fire to be suspicious; Brattleboro, Vermont Fire Department without heat due to faulty boiler; Officials at St. Gaudens National Historic Site look forward to next year. SPORTS - Fall Mountain football teams pulls out of scheduled Thanksgiving Day game with Monadnock and announces retirement of boys soccer coach Tim St. Pierre.

Friday, November 13, 2015

Authorities diffuse hostage situation in Cornish, New Hampshire that began with domestic assault call; Springfield, Vermont pedestrian killed after collision with vehicle; Accident in Woodstock, Vermont damages historic cast-iron fence; Route 4 bridge spanning from Lebanon, New Hampshire to Hartford, Vermont now open; Three New Hampshire Welcome Centers including one in Lebanon set to open for winter season; Brattleboro, Vermont man pleads guilty to larceny; The Today Show's Al Roker visits Brattleboro, Vermont and sets world record in the process; Deer hunting season in New Hampshire now open. SPORTS - Preview of tomorrow's Division III football semifinal between Newport and Bow.

Monday, November 16, 2015

Program Issues List_4th Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

Dartmouth College students traveling abroad in Paris safe after terrorist attacks; West Lebanon, New Hampshire Pizza Hut closes its doors to customers; Volunteers in Claremont, New Hampshire decorate Broad Street Park Christmas Tree; Vermont State Police investigating single-car accident on Interstate 91 in Hartland; Hanover, New Hampshire police to begin enforcing winter parking ban; Two arrested in Bellows Falls, Vermont for theft of copper pipes; Vermont woman charges with driving under the influence and fleeing the scene of an accident; Local solar energy group announces merger/ SPORTS - Newport football advances to second straight championship game with win over Bow.

Tuesday, November 17, 2015

Claremont's Twisted Fitness on Pleasant Street to close after foreclosure; 19-year-old Claremont, New Hampshire man sentenced to prison for robbing E-Z Mart Convenience Store; Springfield School District examines proposed budget for 2017 fiscal year; Vermont State Police arrest suspect in Brattleboro homicide; Dartmouth College releases statement on campus protest; Dartmouth College considers creation of independent graduate school; Claremont, New Hampshire announces details on winter parking ban; Controversial Claremont, New Hampshire Soup Kitched to hold open house. SPORTS - Hanover girls hockey player commits to play collegiate hockey at Northeastern University after graduating high school.

Wednesday, November 18, 2015

Trial begins for Enfield, New Hampshire daycare operator accused of not watching child who died on her watch; Claremont, New Hampshire property taxes set to increase next year; Contents of Claremont Ford Dealership on Washington Street auctioned off; Hartford, Vermont planning board approves new apartment building; Dartmouth College set to test emergency alarm system; Massachusetts fighter jets conduct exercises over area skies; Croydon, New Hampshire fire and EMS weigh options after proposed increase of fees; Windsor, Vermont to hold second meeting involving Act 46. SPORTS - Mountain bike Trail Ride Review of improved trails in Cornish, New Hampshire.

Thursday, November 19, 2015

Windsor, Vermont's Seldon Technologies set to auction of equipment and intellectual property; Cornish, New Hampshire School District proposes plans for withdrawal; Lebanon, New Hampshire airport installs controversial hazard beacons; Windsor, Vermont holds public forum on Act 46; Police investigate untimely death of man found in Lebanon, New Hampshire; Claremont to cash on environmental credits for renewable energy use; Officials at Colby-Sawyer College in New London, New Hampshire approve new building; Strafford, Vermont set to try and sell solar site. SPORTS - Areas athletes named to New Hampshire's All-State girls soccer team.

Friday, November 20, 2015

Update on the auction of defunct Claremont Ford Dealership located on Washington Street; Cornish, New Hampshire mulling the future of elementary school with withdrawal looking;

Program Issues List_4th Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

Hartford, Vermont officials reeling after member of town's school board resigns; Sunapee, New Hampshire's Abbott Library set to receive Library of the Year award from state trustees; 49-year-old Lebanon, New Hampshire man charged with recklessly firing a gun indoors; Winter parking ban approaching in Lebanon, New Hampshire; Brattleboro, Vermont winter parking ban in effect; Republican presidential candidate Ben Carson files for New Hampshire Primary. SPORTS - Preview of tomorrow's NHIAA Division III football championship between Inter-Lakes/Moultonborough and Newport.

Monday, November 23, 2015

Enfield, New Hampshire daycare operator found guilty in wrongful death of child under her care; 85-year-old man injured in Springfield, Vermont rollover; Former Hartford Motors car dealership to house new dealership; Vermont's Springfield Hospital installs solar hot water heaters; Dartmouth College provost apologizes for campus protests; Mount Sunapee Resort in New Hampshire set to hold annual ski swap; Sunapee Holiday program promotes giving back to the community; Vermont State Police preparing for holiday weekend. SPORTS - Highlights from the Newport football team's win over Inter-Lakes/Moultonborough in the Division III championship at UNH.

Tuesday, November 24, 2015

Croydon, New Hampshire votes to accept donations sent to GoFundMe.com to support legal fees; White River Junction VA Director to leave position for Phoenix, Arizona; Charlestown, New Hampshire man arrested for driving under the influence; Lebanon, New Hampshire manufacturing business one step closer to moving to Claremont, New Hampshire; Vermont Governor Peter Shumlin announces plan for traffic violation forgiveness; Dartmouth College president addresses campus protest; Owner of Common Man Restaurants wins award; Mount Sunapee Resort begins snowmaking, set to open Friday. SPORTS - Area athletes named to New Hampshire's All-State boys soccer team.

Wednesday, November 25, 2015

Chester, Vermont police making four arrests of men suspected in several local robberies; Lebanon, New Hampshire airport activates controversial hazard beacons; Charlestown, New Hampshire teen wins scholarship; New London, New Hampshire surgeon hold open house; Defunct Claremont Ford Dealership on Washington Street vandalized; Opposition increases against proposed prison plan in Bellows Falls, Vermont; Claremont Police Department receives reaccreditation after lengthy process; Time-Out Grill in Claremont, New Hampshire offering free Thanksgiving meal. SPORTS - Final Power Ranking of area fall high school teams.

Thursday, November 26, 2015

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY - No News Program

Friday, November 27, 2015

YCN SPORTS SPECIAL - 2015 NHIAA Division III Champion Newport Football Team

Program Issues List_4th Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

Monday, November 30, 2015

Windsor, Vermont teen killed and another injured after collision with train; SEVCA'S crisis fuel program begins today in Vermont; Town of Newport, New Hampshire hoping to sell former Lil' Red Baron Mexican Restaurant; Dartmouth College professor charged in federal court for possessing child pornography; Vermont man receives minor injuries after crash; Claremont Ford auction canceled due to change in circumstances; Mascoma Valley residents hopeful for grocery store after study; New Hampshire largest newspaper endorses New Jersey Governor Chris Christie for president. SPORTS - Mountain bike Trail Ride Review of the Cornish Town Forrest.

Tuesday, December 1, 2015

The Croydon School board awaits judge's decision on private school tuition injunction; Claremont Planned Parenthood reopens after two vandalisms; Claremont offers state's cheapest 4 bedroom housing; Bellows Falls VT woman arrested on multiple charges after traffic stop; dispute continues over culdesac and property lines in Lebanon; Brattleboro ski jump vandalized with broken windows and graffiti; Mount Ascutney mountain gets closer to reopening; a judge approves Scott Milne's proposed development in Quechee, Vermont. SPORTS - Sunapee veteran boys basketball coach Ed Tenney announces retirement.

Wednesday, December 2, 2015

Authorities continue to search for bank robber who hit bank in Charlestown; wet and cold weather wreaks havoc on roadways with accidents; Lebanon man seriously injured in afternoon wreck on Interstate 89; high speed chase with Canaan police ends with rollover and arrest of driver; Dartmouth College student seeks help in recovering stolen $20,000 violin; NH Dismas Home moves closer to opening in Manchester; Newport offers chance to send letters to Santa; Kearsarge Indian Museum holds final event of the year. SPORTS - Top 5 plays from last winter in all winter sports.

Thursday, December 3, 2015

Tractor trailer crash on Interstate 89 closes portion of the highway; former day care operator from Enfield sentenced to prison for child's death; Claremont school board still waiting on school budget proposal; alleged getaway vehicle found in Charlestown bank robbery; 21year old Lebanon man seriously injured in accident on Interstate 91; Sunapee School Board hears concerns from parents and students on bullying; Dartmouth College community mourns loss of world-renowned professor; Mt. Ascutney Hospital holds art exhibit featuring local artists. SPORTS Area basketball teams prepare for winter season through scrimmage action against each other.

Friday, December 4, 2015

Bomb treat forces the evacuation of White River Junction courthouse and other state buildings; Sunapee's Lower Main Street bridge reopens after construction; Newport holds off on creating

Program Issues List_4th Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

single financial district for town and school; informational piece on advantage of snow tires in winter driving; Vermont man facing multiple charges after an altercation with police officers; morning fire destroys a building in Chester VT; New London construction projects delayed due to funding; display of what Spring Ledge Farm offers for December goods. SPORTS - Springfield girls basketball start their winter season in debut game.

Monday, December 7, 2015

Ohio Governor John Kasich campaigns in Claremont and New London; driver uninjured in car rollover in New London; a woman and three children hurt in car rollover on Interstate 91; Bellows Fall police investigate an untimely death found in a home; mysterious packages delivered around town during White River Junction bomb threat; Claremont's Twisted Fitness closes doors for good; Vermont muzzleloader and deer archery season begins; Sunapee residents run into frigid lake for a good cause in Looney Lunge. SPORTS - Newport and Stevens girls basketball kick off seasons in double highlights.

Tuesday, December 8, 2015

Local mother suing school after her student was knocked unconscious; police still seeking vandals who toppled headstones at Newport cemetery; Springfield man arrested on drug charges during routine traffic stop; Vermont residents ask for fewer incarcerations in state prisons; accident prone area on Claremont's Washington Street claims another crash; National Regulatory Commission responds to concerns about closing of Vermont Yankee; Warner holds holiday shopping spree and extravaganza; Bernie Sanders tops TIME Magazine's reader poll. SPORTS - A preview of Sunapee boys basketball as they prepare for the upcoming season.

Wednesday, December 9, 2015

Former Twisted Fitness building in Claremont sold to bank for $60,000; city of Lebanon files motion to dismiss airport lawsuit with new hazard beacons; support in Cornish remains strong for withdrawal plan from SAU; Newport radio station begins annual Toys for Tots toy drive; historic steam engine delivered to Claremont to aid in education; residents in New London sleep outside in cardboard boxes for homeless; Brattleboro residents meet at forum to bring awareness to homelessness; Goshen Selectboard approves license for junkyard in town. SPORTS - Stevens High School bowling team starts season off with big win.

Thursday, December 10, 2015

Claremont City Manager Guy Santagate announces his retirement; pipe bomb injures four in Northfield Vermont; Carly Fiorina discusses healthcare at visit to Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center; Lebanon School Board approves new teacher contracts; Claremont's Arrowhead ski area tube track damaged by tree clearing operation; Claremont Rotary planning to host First Night 2016 New Years Eve celebrations; police offering reward in arson investigation in Brattleboro apartment fire; New London Historical Society holds open house in holiday spirit.

Program Issues List_4th Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

SPORTS - Stevens High School bowling team hones in skills with more practice after season opener win.

Friday, December 11, 2015

Cornish school finalizes plan to withdraw from SAU 6 and votes unanimously to do so; Hartford fire chief and interim town manager resigns; Lebanon hires new police chief to begin later in December; Weathersfield man continues to be sought by authorities for multiple bank robberies; Newport students carry students from school to food shelter to help community; Unity home destroyed in an early morning fire; excessive steam emitting from Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center is mistaken for smoke; Governor Peter Shumlin announces completion of solar project at prison in Springfield; Heart of Claremont volunteer group decorates city for the holidays. SPORTS - Windsor boys basketball team suffers a narrow loss in home opener.

Monday, December 14, 2015

Two Claremont residents arrested after found with 180 bags of heroin; Windsor to hold public forum to discuss town budget; Cornish loses town's only bank after financial losses; reminder of upcoming deadline for health care coverage; Newport holds chili contest for public to vote on the best chili in the region; Springfield hospitals join New England network to enhance care to its patients; Donald Trump gets endorsed by New England Police Benevolent Association; Newport Library Arts Center holds Gallery of Gifts for holiday shopping. SPORTS - Roundup of sports scores from Friday's games and highlights of Sunapee girls and Kearsarge boys basketball teams.

Tuesday, December 15, 2015

Police continue to search for suspect in multiple bank robberies including armed robbery; man from West Windsor sentenced for possession of child pornography; electrical cable determined as cause of house fire in Cornish; judge upholds decision on using septage as fertilizer in Newport; number of homeless Stevens High School students on the rise; Lebanon approves new terminal for Dartmouth Coach bus line; Hartlands three corners intersection moving toward renovation for safety; announcement of final Republican debate of 2015 being held. SPORTS - Sunapee girls basketball team holds banner night and takes win over opponent.

Wednesday, December 16, 2015

Springfield man arrested in connection with robbery; former Mount Ascutney Resort sold to trust for public land; Sunapee antique store catches fire but escapes major damage; interview with Claremont City Manager Guy Santagate on career and retirement; Springfield gas station robbed at gunpoint; budget specifics unveiled at public forum in Windsor and public offer feedback; local sports teams in Claremont negotiate over gym space for practice; warm weather in region delays winter sports like skiing and ice skating. SPORTS - Local sports roundup from Tuesday night's games including Newport, Mascoma, Windsor, and Fall Mountain.

Thursday, December 17, 2015

NY driver crashes in Claremont's historic Moody Building; Croydon's lawyer denies an injunction from NH Board of Education; Newport School Board finalizes plan to withdraw from school district; residents of Bellows Falls meet to discuss proposed justice center four Springfield men arrested for local burglaries; postal worker accused of stealing gift cards and cash; Newport Opera House temporarily left without power from electrical issue; Wilmot community members bring spirit to the holidays in local event. SPORTS - Kearsarge boys basketball take down Conant in thrilling finish.

Friday, December 18, 2015

Drunk driver in Cavendish crashes car with 4-year-old also in vehicle; Claremont Planned Parenthood finally fully operational after vandalisms; Norwich seeking lawyer's advice on terms of town manager's employment; NY man arrested after crashing in Claremont's Moody Building; date officially set for New Hampshire primary election; schedule debate at Stevens at High School to be presented to an arbitrator; Norwichbased solar company proposes site in Sharon; MJ Harrington business in Claremont offers good options for last minute holiday shopping. SPORTS - Local sports roundup from Thursday night's games including Hanover and Hartford.

Monday, December 21, 2015

Interstate 89 temporarily closed after multi car accident; Dartmouth College professor arrested on trafficking charges; Hartford considers changes to its disputed voting structure for town positions; Newport Fire and EMS respond to gas leak in Keene; city of Lebanon analyzes and considers Mechanic Street improvements; Newport Farmer's Market announces plans for 2016 season and opening date; Newport opts for hefty increase for its 2017 school budget; father and son face drug charges after being found with heroin in Lebanon. SPORTS - Lebanon girls and boys basketball teams fight their way to wins over rival Hanover.

Tuesday, December 22, 2015

State police seeking suspect in Ludlow bank robbery; Newport approves cost increase for use of ambulance service in neighboring towns; Croydon finalizes plans to withdraw from SAU 43; Chris Christie visits New London and criticizes President Obama; Windsor's Seldon Technologies bought by Las Vegas company; West Hartford's new library faces budget cuts after renovation; Quechee church set to close its doors after 100+ years of offering services; candlelight vigils held in Newport and Lebanon for homeless. SPORTS - Sunapee girls basketball team celebrates major win and milestone in win over Epping.

Wednesday, December 23, 2015

Authorities issue a reward for information on man accused of robbing multiple banks; Lebanon finalizes proposal for school budget for 2017; Newport agrees on $18 million budget for 2017; 99 Restaurant in Lebanon and Brattleboro raise money for Boys & Girls Club; NHDOT orders removal of passing signs in Newport; donations sought for family in Washington NH after fire;

Program Issues List_4th Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

Kearsarge High School students compete in gingerbread building contest; Spring Ledge Farm shows off what they offer for December goods. SPORTS - Newport boys basketball hang touch in loss to Hopkinton.

Thursday, December 24, 2015

Warm weather delaying ski seasons at local mountains including interview with Mount Sunapee; Swanzey man leads state police on chase through Vermont and New Hampshire; New York man arraigned after Moody Building crash in Claremont; Fugitive of the Week from Springfield arrested while visiting home for holidays; Croydon says no to ambulance service from Newport after price increase; Claremont Christmas light display at Mitchell's home once again attracting crowds; Enfield police give out $100 bills in the place of tickets in holiday spirit; Lebanon airport tracks Santa Claus as he comes to the Upper Valley. SPORTS - Scores from high school hockey action and tease for YCN Game of the Week.

Friday, December 25, 2015

CHRISTMAS DAY - No News Program

Monday, December 28, 2015

Two injured in Claremont as car crashes into home in early morning hours; suspected bank robber responsible for string of robberies turns himself in to police; Dummerston, Vermont man sentenced to nine years in prison for child pornography; kayaker groups in Lebanon oppose proposed hydroelectric dam that would block rapids; warmest Christmas on record encourages summer sports including water skiing on Lake Sunapee; first snowfall of the year predicted for December 29th; winter snow storm could mean nothing to area students already on winter break; Vermont attorney general warns solar companies to watch their word usage and promise of "renewable" energy. SPORTS - Results roundup from holiday basketball over the weekend.

Tuesday, December 29, 2015

First snowfall of the year brings accidents and snow removal to the area; family of nine in Unity displaced by house fire; Dartmouth College swimmer drowns while vacationing in Florida; Lempster NH couple arrested for running meth production lab; Claremont police identify teenagers involved in car collision with home; Brattleboro's largest employer kicks off major renovation project; suspected bank robber from Weathersfield ordered by judge to be held without bail; Donald Trump slams Union Leader newspaper after defamatory front page opinion piece. SPORTS - Roundup of local sports action, focusing on holiday tournaments.

Wednesday, December 30, 2015

Area residents raise nearly $3,000 for Unity family displaced by fire; Springfield unveils $11 million budget proposal for year 2017; three killed in collision with tractor trailer in Killington on Route 4; Dartmouth swimmer cause of death likely from blackout; former Lebanon schools superintendent to oversee Rivendell schools in Orford; Lebanon Boston Lot bike trail system

Program Issues List_4th Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

reopens for winter biking season; Off Broad Street players acting group prepares for Claremont's New Years Eve celebrations; Claremont prepares for Rotary Club's First Night event. SPORTS - Roundup of local sports action with scores from Tuesday's games.

Thursday, December 31, 2015

YCN 2015 Year in Review; review show that breaks down the top eight news stories and top eight sports stories from the entire year.