

Wednesday, July 1, 2015

U.S. to open embassy in Cuba; New Hampshire Department of Health and Human Services announces screening policy for Severe Combined Immunodeficiency Disorder; Visiting Nurse Associations in New Hampshire and Vermont continue talks to increase access to home health care; Federal legislation qualifies veterans for in-state tuition rates at colleges and universities nationwide; New Hampshire Republican Senator Kelly Ayotte launches 2016 re-election campaign; 23-year-old Wethersfield, Vermont man survives serious crash on Interstate 91; New Hampshire Governor Maggie Hassan to attend ribbon-cutting ceremony at White River Junction Vet Center. SPORTS - Interview with boys basketball tournament MVP from inaugural Granite State Games.

Thursday, July 2, 2015

New Hampshire Governor Maggie Hassan attends ribbon-cutting ceremony at White River Junction Vet Center; Vermont man suffers gunshot wound to the face outside his gun shop; Lempster, NH woman suffers burn from nearby lightening strike; Hanover, NH to auction of used equipment from Public Works Department; List of local fireworks shows to be held in Connecticut River Valley of New Hampshire and Vermont; Vermont Governor Peter Shumlin declares July "Lake Appreciation Month". SPORTS - New Hampshire announces All-State baseball honors.

Friday, July 3, 2015

New Hampshire Governor Maggie Hassan to sign bill restricting the sale or possession of manufactured drugs; Roadwork in Lebanon and Hanover, NH, could lead to traffic delays; Vandalism to computers at the Richards Free Library in Newport, NH could cost thousands; 60-year-old Vermont man and 20-year-old Pennsylvania man injured in separate accidents in Vermont; Interview with cast members of "Sound of Music" at New London Barn & Playhouse. SPORTS - New Hampshire announces All-State softball honors.

Monday, July 6, 2015

Coverage and commentary from the Andover, New Hampshire Fourth of July Parade.

Tuesday July 7, 2015

Vermont School superintendent invites residents to oversee summer town meetings; New Hampshire governor vetoes proposed budget; New Hampshire House Democratic leader and Senate Democratic leader back governor's budget veto; Vermont State Police confirm one traffic fatality over Fourth of July weekend; Trial begins on West Nile Virus vaccine; New Hampshire governor signs law giving veterans preference in hiring decisions. SPORTS - Vermont announces all-MVL baseball team.

Wednesday July 8, 2015

Residents oppose proposed expansion of Claremont Speedway; Centers for Disease Control and Prevention says heroin use up 150-percent from 2007; Vermont State Police say distracted

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

driver causes crash on I-89 in Hartford; Home values in Upper Valley increasing; Court order needed to fill two vacant select board seats in Orange, New Hampshire; New Hampshire Governor Maggie Hassan vetoes bill that would allow residents to carry concealed weapons; Brattleboro launches Area Affordable Housing initiative. SPORTS - Newport faces Claremont in Junior Babe Ruth baseball.

Thursday, July 9, 2015

New Hampshire governor signs budget into law; Moody Park trails in Claremont in midst of renovation; Claremont city officials look into selling the Goodwin Community Center and Zotto Gym; Concord rally protesting NH gun control laws cancelled; Popularity increases of Upper Valley's Coffee with a Cop program; South Carolina governor signs bill to remove Confederate Flag from state house. SPORTS - Lebanon Senior Legion baseball takes on Goffstown.

Friday, July 10, 2015

New Hampshire Representative Annie Kuster supports "Make it in America" campaign; Lebanon police warn residents of increase in phone scams; Invasive beetle found in four New Hampshire communities; Lebanon City Council approves River Valley Community College's application to renovate defunct Lebanon College; New Hampshire Senator Jeanne Shaheen introduces legislation to put Harriet Tubman on $10 bill; New Hampshire governor signs legislation that would allow Eversource Energy to sell power plants. SPORTS - Vermont announces all-MVL softball team.

Monday July 13, 2015

Police continue search for man accused of assaulting convenience store clerk in Westmoreland, NH; Workers at Co-Op Food store in Lebanon could join New England branch of the United Food and Commercial Workers; Update on roadwork schedules in Newport, NH and Bellows Falls, Vt.; Newport School District remains accredited by New England Association of Schools and Colleges; New Hampshire Fish and Game Department increases hunting license fees. SPORTS - Lebanon Junior Legion baseball takes on Contoocook.

Tuesday, July 14, 2015

Members of New Hampshire and Vermont's congressional delegation optimistic on Iran deal; Clash between residents of Cornish, NH and SAU 6 superintendent Dr. Middleton McGoodwin continue; Former New London Town Administrator to have rotary named in his honor; Trailer detaches from car on Interstate 91 in Windsor, Vt.; 34th annual Prouty benefits Norris Cotton Cancer Center at Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center; Vermont State Auditor proposes going after delinquent taxpayers more aggressively. SPORTS - Sunapee Junior Babe Ruth Baseball team takes on Lebanon.

Wednesday, July 15, 2015

Two motorcyclists were killed when a car crossed the centerline in Brookline, NH; New Hampshire and Vermont congressional leaders continue push for federal dollars for road and

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

bridge repair; Community group aims to connect towns with foods grown within their own communities; New Hampshire governor signs executive order to continue students' focus on math and sciences; 16-year-old Vermont girl injured in ATV accident; Towns in Windham County, Vermont adjusting to lack of tax revenue from Vermont Yankee closure. SPORTS - Girls basketball scrimmage between Sunapee and Newport.

Thursday, July 16, 2015

New Hampshire man pleads guilty to manufacturing methamphetamines; Warner, NH in negotiations with cable television provider TDS; National Historic site in Lebanon seeks building partner; Claremont School Board debates open campus at Stevens High School; Hanover Public Works to accept electronic waste; The Fells in Newbury, NH to host garden show; New Hampshire's two U.S. Senators sponsor legislation to protect rights of motorcyclists. SPORTS - Claremont Babe Ruth baseball team takes on Sunapee.

Friday, July 17, 2015

Flags across nation flown at half-staff after killing of 4 Marines in Tennessee; Claremont School Board looks into keeping special needs students closer to home; Enfield, NH arrested for internet crimes against children; Springfield, Vt., to update 70-year-old sidewalks; American Civil Liberties Union looks into case involving Confederate Flag in Canaan, NH; Interview from Garden show at the Fells in Newbury, NH. SPORTS - Highlights of the Lebanon Senior Legion baseball team.

Monday, July 20, 2015

Water main breaks reroutes traffic in Lebanon, NH; Several NH towns from Claremont to Sunapee damaged by severe thunderstorms Sunday night; 24-year-old Claremont man killed when tree fell on car during storm; Northern Vermont hit hard by storms causing flooding; New Hampshire governor vetoes bill that would alter tobacco taxes; Neil Young donates to Vermont food fight initiative; Claremont and Newport police arrest 13 on felony drug charges; SPORTS - Highlights from NASCAR in Loudon, New Hampshire.

Tuesday, July 21, 2015

Interview with Newport, NH Town Manager on downtown road work; Newport's incoming town manager hosts meet-and-greet; New Hampshire ranks second among top states for children to grow up in; New Hampshire governor signs bill to protect public dollars from EBT fraud; Ohio governor John Kasich becomes 16th Republican candidate for President; Clean-up kits available for Vermont residents affected by weekend storms and flooding; Highway crews to begin work on Bridge Street in West Lebanon, NH. SPORTS - Signature hole feature at Lake Sunapee Country Club.

Wednesday, July 22, 2015

New Cumberland Farms opens on Pleasant Street in Claremont, NH; Discussion continues into idea of consolidating smaller school districts in Vermont; Hammond Cove Shooting Range

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

reopens in Hartland, Vt.; New Hampshire congressional delegation says residents and businesses need more time to decide on Northern Pass Project; Lebanon Zoning Board approves AVA Gallery expansion; Springfield, Vt., continues talks on switching from traditional lighting to LED lights. SPORTS - Trail review of Moody Park Mountain Bike Trails in Claremont, NH.

Thursday, July 23, 2015

Tax program encourages business growth in downtown Claremont; Executive Director of Claremont Soup Kitchen let go by board of directors; New Hampshire Governor offers compromise on proposed budget; Farms across Vermont to participate in Vermont Open Farm Week; Vermont leads nation in maple syrup production; New Hampshire seeks help in updating Wildlife Action Plan. SPORTS - Coverage of New England Amateur Golf Tournament.

Friday, July 24, 2015

House votes to block bill that would require foods with GMOs be labeled; U.S. Senate extends loan program offering aid to small businesses; Former New Hampshire House Speaker leaving public sector for job at private technology firm; Two Vermont men charged for alleged stabbing in Brattleboro; Hartford Animal Control plans house-to-house visits to register animals; Hartford Town Manager announces he won't return to position next year; Green Mountain Power working to construct solar array; History Channel show American Pickers coming to Vermont. SPORTS - Lebanon Junior Legion baseball takes on Plymouth.

Monday, July 27, 2015

New York man killed in accident on I-91 in Wethersfield, Vermont; New Hampshire Governor Maggie Hassan signs Uniform Securities Act into law; Interview with Claremont store owners on economic development initiative; Cornish-Windsor covered bridge to be restored; New Hampshire Governor Maggie Hassan lands key role within National Governor's Association; Boston residents aren't supporting bid to host 2024 Olympics. Employees of Lebanon Co-Op Market to vote on whether or not to unionize; Cornish School Board to hold emergency meeting on low student enrollment. SPORTS - Mountain Bike Trail Review of French's Ledges in Plainfield, NH.

Tuesday, July 28, 2015

Cornish School Board holds emergency meeting on low student enrollment; Lebanon Co-Op Market votes not to unionize; New Jersey Governor Chris Christie campaigns at the Salt Hill Pub in Newport, NH; Vermont State Police seek public's help in locating a missing Andover woman; Hartford, Vermont seeking help identifying people in historic photos; Road work continue on I-91 North and Southbound lanes in White River Junction; City of Claremont urging residents to volunteer in various commissions and committees. SPORTS - Junior Babe Ruth baseball championship between Hanover and Sunapee.

Wednesday, July 29, 2015

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

The search for a missing 57-year-old Andover, Vermont woman continues; Damage from July storms doesn't warrant federal disaster aid according to Homeland Security Director; Lempster resident reacts to New Jersey Governor Chris Christie's visit to Newport; U.S. Senator Kelly Ayotte among senators supporting Campus Accountability and Safety Act; Hartford, Vermont man charged with reckless endangerment, disorderly conduct and giving false information to police; Street paving continues in Lebanon, NH; Springfield, Vermont sets date for Market Madness Street Fair. SPORTS - Frisbee Golf at Tilton Park in Sunapee, NH.

Thursday, July 30, 2015

Parent company of defunct Vermont Yankee to provide $350,000 grant to benefit five towns in southwestern New Hampshire; U.S. Senate approves ongoing federal transportation funding through summer construction season; Vermont Farm open to be held Aug. 3 through Aug. 9 throughout state; Vermont Senator Bernie Sanders stops at Common Man in Claremont during presidential campaign; Phase one of Claremont Parks and Recreation Department's Moody Park restoration project complete; Pieces recovered from missing Malaysian Flight 370 that vanished more than a year ago. SPORTS - Claremont Country Club signature golf hole.

Friday, July 31, 2015

Despite first-in-the-nation primary, new report says New Hampshire's voter turnout low; House fire in Lebanon, New Hampshire the result of lightning strike; Annual New London Hospital Days Parade begins tomorrow at 2 p.m.; New London non-resident taxpayer town meeting to be held Monday; New legislation makes it easier for businesses to sell goods overseas; Vermont State Police investigating forced-entry burglary in Newfane; Crash between tractor-trailer and motorcycles leaves two with life-threatening injuries in Franklin, NH; Viewer submitted photos from last night's blue moon. SPORTS - High school basketball jamboree in Lebanon, NH.

Monday, August 3, 2015

Severe thunderstorm watch across New Hampshire; magnitude earthquake hits Epsom, NH; Wilmot Planning Board holds sixth meeting on proposed oil and propane facility; Shona Grill in Bellows Falls sets grilling world record; Democratic Presidential candidate Bernie Sanders speaks at Common Man in Claremont; New London holds town meeting and informative meeting on Pleasant Lake levels; NH Governor Maggie Hassan encouraged by president's clean power plan. SPORTS - Trail Ride Review of Boston Lot Trail system in Lebanon

Tuesday, August 4, 2015

Lancaster circus tent accident kills two; Cornish man pleads guilty to sexual assault; Wrap-up of damage caused by severe thunderstorms; Governor Maggie Hassan and Senator Jeanne Shaheen discuss New Hampshire's heroin problem; Follow-up on New London town meetings; Sunapee to hold summer town meeting tonight; Crews continue search for missing Claremont man in Connecticut River; Disc sports could become Olympic Sport. SPORTS - Interview with new Stevens High School athletic director.

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

Wednesday, August 5, 2015

Seven arrested in Claremont drug bust; Follow-up on Governor Hassan and Senator Shaheen's press conference on drug abuse in New Hampshire; Investigation continues into deadly tent collapse in Lancaster; 3 Vermont mosquitoes test positive for West Nile Virus in Springfield; Break down of Sunapee's summer town meeting; Canaan Fire Chief to help fight California wildfires; Cornish, NH man accused of inappropriate relationships with multiple minors; Canterbury police chief arrested on sexual assault charges; Preview on first Republican presidential debate. SPORTS - Frisbee golf at Mount Sunapee Resort.

Thursday, August 6, 2015

Shaheen co-sponsors bill to hold colleges accountable on student debt; Mount Washing College shuts down operations; Vermont Governor Peter Shumlin adds new member to his administration; The New London Barn Playhouse season is in full swing; Mt. Ascutney Hospital to turn first profit in two years; Numerous hikers getting sick on Appalachian Trail; Governor Maggie Hassan fights back against defunding Planned Parenthood; Vermont receiving national grant to clean up toxic land; A reminder to viewers of tonight's first Republican presidential debate. SPORTS - Interview with new Newport athletic director.

Friday, August 7, 2015

Cornish-Windsor covered bridge to receive repairs; New Hampshire senator supporting mammogram access; Medical marijuana dispensary proposed in Upper Valley; Claremont to host hazardous waste and medicine collection day; Race between Democratic presidential candidates Bernie Sanders and Hillary Clinton; Solar Power site proposed in Windham, Vermont; Brattleboro on Wheels event hosted by Rotary club; Charlestown, New Hampshire meals program ending; New Hampshire State Department asks for photos of historic sites; New jewelry store opens in Claremont. SPORTS - Coverage of yacht race on Lake Sunapee

Monday, August 10, 2015

Warner woman rescued from mountain; Westminster man killed in Vermont motorcycle accident; Burglary in at Downers Four Corners Convenience Store in Wethersfield, Vermont; Claremont-Concord Railroad to sell Claremont portion of railroad; Watersheds United Vermont coordinating cleanup in all Vermont rivers and streams; Barre, Vermont woman charges with killing social worker; New Hampshire considers SATs vs. Common Core exams; Hard-hat tour through Northern State Theatre in White River Junction, Vermont. SPORTS - Mini golf at Mount Sunapee Resort.

Tuesday, August 11, 2015

Hillary Clinton speaks at River Valley Community College in Claremont; Lower Main Street Bridge construction in Sunapee could affect morning commutes; Fugitive captured in Alexandria, New Hampshire by U.S. Marshalls; Windsor, Vermont holds meeting on solar project proposal; New Hampshire named best state to live in for disadvantaged children;

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

Update on New Hampshire's hunting season schedule. SPORTS - A review of the signature hole at Newport Golf Club.

Wednesday, August 12, 2015

Republican presidential candidate Rand Paul speaks at Claremont Savings Bank Community Center; Windsor Fire Chief announces he's leaving town to accept a job in Washington; Vermont woman arrested in Bellows Falls after police find 400 bags of heroin in her car; Gas prices in New Hampshire's Upper Valley lower than other portions of state; Alice Peck Day Hospital in Lebanon receives women's health award; Dartmouth-Hitchcock to pay almost $500,000 after U.S. Department of Health audit; Genetically modified food labeling takes net step in Congress; Meteor shower could be visible tonight locally; Bernie Sanders pulls ahead of Hilary Clinton in New Hampshire polls. SPORTS - Interview with high school basketball player leaving for Prep School.

Thursday, August 13, 2015

Claremont School Board votes to keep Stevens High an open campus; Hartford, Vermont man accused of killing his girlfriend's toddler released on home detention; Man saved by Newport Fire and EMS personnel thanks first responders; New Hampshire Department of Transportation to begin night paving on I-89 between New London and Grantham; Brattleboro Retreat set to host 6th Annual Ride for Heroes on Saturday; Deadline for Vermont muzzle loading hunters approaching; Ohio Governor and Republican presidential candidate John Kasich thanks New Hampshire strategist for his support; West Central Behavioral Health set to host annual Paddle Power event; Dover, Vermont to host Independent Television and Film Festival. SPORTS - Preseason look at Stevens High football team.

Friday, August 14, 2015

Sugar River Technical Center to be assessed by Claremont and Newport School Boards; Missing Hanover, New Hampshire women with mental illness found; New Hampshire launches immediate review of license requirements for substance abuse treatment centers; Lynn Solomon visits Spring Ledge Farm to discuss seasonal crops; Ex-boyfriend of woman accused of killing Vermont social worker pleads not guilty to disorderly conduct; Mural in downtown Lebanon removed over night; Selectman in Cornish, New Hampshire plan to rebury remains of resident; Conservation group plans to create new state forest in Vermont; Tomorrow marks the Hay Day Family Festival at the Fells in Newbury, New Hampshire. SPORTS - Preseason look at Newport football team.

Monday, August 17, 2015

Motorcycle accident in Bradford, New Hampshire kills one; 19-year-old Brattleboro woman missing and believed to be traveling to Florida; Bellows Falls Fire Chief announces he will be retiring from the department; Residents of Lebanon, New Hampshire to weigh in on possible medical marijuana dispensary; New Hampshire sees increase in beer and wine sales over summer months; New Hampshire Governor Maggie Hassan calls for full investigation into

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

impact of Northeast Direct Pipeline project; I-91 construction in Brattleboro, Vermont to include repairs of four bridges; Hanover, New Hampshire nursing home cited for several deficiencies in patient care. SPORTS - Trail Ride Review of Cornish, New Hampshire biking trails.

Tuesday, August 18, 2015

Cornish and Unity school boards vote to split the costs of hiring two new teachers; Norwich Vermont School board weighing advantages of school district consolidation; Florida man killed and Maine man arrested after tractor-trailer accident on I-91 in Norwich, Vermont; Cost of hunting and fishing licenses could go up in New Hampshire; Less Vermonters waiting for changes to their health plans after backlog; New Hampshire state police never followed through on plans to test body cameras; Keurig announces plans to lay off 5-percent of Vermont workforce; The Centera marketplace in Lebanon, New Hampshire could see 27 new condos. SPORTS - Preseason preview of Lebanon football team.

Wednesday, August 19, 2015

Sunapee Police Chief David Cahill welcomes residents for "Coffee with a Cop" program; the trial of a Turnbridge, Vermont man accused of raping minor continues; Warnings about the dangers of hot and humid weather; New Hampshire U.S. Senator Jeanne Shaheen applauds announcement of a new Heroin Response Strategy; SAU 43 seeking director for Newport's School Buses; Hartford School Board in a 30-day cool off period after months of failed contract negotiations; E-Z Pass celebrating 10 years on the New Hampshire turnpike system; 4th Annual Tristan's Live, Laugh, Love Run to Benefit David's House to be held this weekend. SPORTS - Preseason look at Kearsarge football team.

Thursday, August 20, 2015

Residents of Lebanon, New Hampshire discuss possible medical marijuana dispensary; City of Lebanon, New Hampshire introduces new town manager; Regal Cinemas announce bag-checking policy after recent theatre shootings; Brattleboro, Vermont select board says it needs more information for proposed 140-foot cell tower; Valley Regional Hospital in Claremont, New Hampshire to open new Urgent Care Center; Overheated extension cord blamed for causing fire at Claremont, New Hampshire mobile home; Northern Parr transmission line project to bury 52 miles of lines; 66th Annual Cornish Fair coming up the third weekend in August;. SPORTS - Preseason look at Hanover football team.

Friday, August 21, 2015

Lebanon, New Hampshire car crash closes portion of Route 12-A near I-89 off ramp; Crews from seven fire departments battle fire that burnt more than six acres of land; Florida Governor Jeb Bush and Wisconsin Governor Scott Walker continue campaigning in New Hampshire; Vermont House Speaker Shap Smith becomes first candidate for Vermont governor; Frank Reed to become Vermont's Commissioner of the Department of Mental Health; 29-year-old sentenced to 1 to 2 years in prison after pleading guilty to reckless conduct with a deadly weapon after

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

Sunapee shooting; "Fire on the Mountain" Chili Fest to be held at Pat's Peak Ski Area in Henniker, New Hampshire. SPORTS - Preseason look at Sunapee girls soccer team.

Monday, August 24, 2015

Three people injured during a ride malfunction at the 66th Annual Cornish Fair; Claremont Police arrest two minors for breaking into and vandalizing a Pearl Street church; New Hampshire congressional delegation hold public forum on improving veteran's health benefits; Residents of Warner, New Hampshire introduced to TDS new fiber service; Public hearing to garner input from Lebanon, New Hampshire residents on changes to the city's airport; Raymond S. Burton Museum and Learning Center opens in Bath, New Hampshire; Vermont's only former female governor speaks at Brattleboro College commencement; Republican presidential candidate Lindsey Graham stops in Newport, New Hampshire; United Methodist Church in White River Junction, Vermont proposes $20 million dollar assisted living facility. SPORTS - Preseason look at Fall Mountain football team.

Tuesday, August 25, 2015

Man suffers life-threatening injuries in Warner, New Hampshire motorcycle accident; Vermont Governor Peter Shumlin campaigns for Hilary Clinton in Claremont, New Hampshire; Vermont Land Trust hoping to buy 100-acre parcel in Woodstock where nation's first ski rope-tow was located; Proposal to condense services offered by Alice Peck Day Memorial Hospital being addressed by Lebanon Planning Board; Multi-million home up for auction in Wilmot, New Hampshire; Market Madness Street Fair in Springfield, Vermont set for September 5th; Vermont Agency of Education announces the Vermont Smarter Balanced Assessment Portal is now live; SAU 6 holds back to school festival to give supplies to students; 3rd Annual Amateur BBQ Pulled Pork Competition held in Walpole, New Hampshire. SPORTS - Preseason look at Brattleboro football team.

Wednesday, August 26, 2015

Two minors accused of vandalizing Claremont, New Hampshire church apologize to its pastor; Controversial new class schedule implemented at Stevens High School; Reminder of school bus safety tips with schools starting in the area; Water main break in Lebanon, New Hampshire closes portion of Miracle Mile; Ribbon Cutting Ceremony held for Valley Regional's new Urgent Care Center; Sunapee Highway Department to replace failed drainage pipes under Jobs Creek Road; Final Lebanon Farmer's Market and Music Fest to be held tomorrow; New Hampshire Division of Forests and Lands encourages residents to check with fire warden before burning; Vermont's two biggest snakes headed to Vermont. SPORTS - Preseason look at the defending champion Newport golf team.

Thursday, August 27, 2015

Owners of the Ink Factory plan to move into vacant Claremont, New Hampshire mill building; Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center announces new Chief of Surgery; Residents of Croydon, Goshen and Sunapee could be left without ambulance service; River Valley Community College

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

to add location at former Lebanon College; Colby-Sawyer College involved in program to make it easier for low-income, minority students to graduate; $5-million dollar Wilmot, New Hampshire home sold for slightly more than $2-million dollars; Jurors hear closing arguments in St. Paul's rape case trial; New Hampshire senator Jeanne Shaheen speaks out in support of helping small businesses grow exports. SPORTS - Preseason look at Stevens boys soccer team.

Friday, August 28, 2015

Lebanon's Alice Peck Day Memorial Hospital and Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center to affiliate; Vehicle seized during Bellows Falls, Vermont traffic stop found containing drugs; G.S. Precision in Brattleboro, Vermont considers expanding its two facilities; Stevens teacher's union files unfair labor practice over controversial new class schedule; Sobriety checkpoints planned in Newport and Sunapee, New Hampshire; Verdict reached in trial of St. Paul's rape trial in Concord, New Hampshire; Hartford Police Department to up patrols ahead of first day of school; Norwich select board debates body cameras for town's police department; North Sutton, New Hampshire to celebrate Farm Days at Muster field Farm. SPORTS - Preseason look at Sunapee boys soccer team.

Monday, August 31, 2015

Former intern of the New London Barn Playhouse dies in New York; Vermont man was killed during large motorcycle ride in Vershire; Hartford School District working on new code of conduct for athletic events; Sunapee, New Hampshire holds public meeting on proposed sale for Livery building on Main Street; Construction throughout New London, New Hampshire could cause delays for commuters and pedestrians; Claremont, New Hampshire boasts some of the lowest gas prices in Granite State; 4th Annual Reach the Peak event held at Arrowhead Mountain in Claremont, New Hampshire; Crew members from USS Kearsarge visit Warner, New Hampshire and hike mount Kearsarge. SPORTS - Highlights from Week 1 Vermont high school football between Brattleboro and Hartford.

Tuesday, September 1, 2015

Three people injured during head-on-collision in Charlestown, New Hampshire; Tractor trailer rollover on Interstate 89 in Sutton, New Hampshire causes minor delays; Brattleboro police investigating untimely death of man found in South Main Street home; Lebanon Rogers house may receive two grants for restoration and repairs; Republican presidential candidate John Kasich to stop in New London and Lebanon, New Hampshire tomorrow; Highlights from the crew of the USS Kearsarge's visit to Warner, New Hampshire. SPORTS - Stevens girls soccer tries to bounce back from season-opening loss.

Wednesday, September 2, 2015

Highlights from Republican presidential candidate John Kasich's stop at New England College in Henniker, New Hampshire; Colby-Sawyer College to open School of Health Professionals; A microwave is to blame for causing a fire at the Windsor Motel on Route 5 in Ascutney, Vermont; Large fire destroys much of the Randolph Village Fire Station on Route 12; River

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

Valley Community College receives $150,000 grant for its new Lebanon campus; Claremont School Board to host first meeting of the new school year tonight at Sugar River Valley Regional Technical Center; A popular swimming spot in Lyme, New Hampshire closed to receive chemical treatment; Volunteers getting ready for Lake Sunapee United Methodist Church in Sunapee, New Hampshire. SPORTS - Highlights from Newport field hockey team's season-opening win over Conant.

Thursday, September 3, 2015

Claremont School Board files objection to the New Hampshire Public Employees Labor Relations Board on teacher's union grievance regarding controversial new class schedule at Stevens High; Stevens principal Patricia Barry announces she's battling Breast Cancer; Sound bites from Republican presidential candidate John Kasich's stop at New England College in Henniker, New Hampshire; Google Executive and Hartford resident Matt Dunne to run for Governor of Vermont; Motorcycle accident in Cavendish, Vermont leaves man seriously injured; New LED lights installed at Sunapee Middle-High School playing fields; Green Mountain Power has put plans for a new solar site in Windsor, Vermont on hold; Republican presidential candidate Scott Walker will campaign in New Hampshire tomorrow. SPORTS - Highlights from the Stevens girls soccer team's showdown with Newport.

Friday, September 4, 2015

U.S. Representative Ann Kuster visits Claremont for roundtable discussion on drug abuse and mental health issues; Organizers of Claremont Brew fest announce plans for "Battle of the Brews"; Pair of family-owned businesses in Lebanon, New Hampshire to shut down; Interview with outgoing Colby-Sawyer College president Tom Galligan Jr.; Rockingham Parks and Rec Department to hold grand opening for new playground; Wethersfield, Vermont man pleads guilty to three different robberies; New London Barn Playhouse staff reflects on the life of former intern killed in New York accident. SPORTS - Sunapee boys soccer team takes on Moultonborough in season opener.

Monday, September 7, 2015

Labor Day Special - Spotlight on presidential candidates who've campaigned locally; Look at area football teams as they prepared for regular-season openers.

Tuesday, September 8, 2015

44-year-old woman killed after collision with car while walking on Claremont, New Hampshire road; 25-year-old Claremont woman indicted by second Grand Jury in two months; Dartmouth College English professor arrested for possession of child pornography; Significant select board meeting to be held tonight in both Sunapee and New London, New Hampshire; Demolition of old bowling alley in Newport, New Hampshire under way; Green Mountain Power schedules planned power outage in Bellows Falls, Vermont; Lieutenant Governor Phil Scott adds himself to list of Republican candidates for Vermont Governor; Former New Hampshire Governor John Sununu's son Chris Sununu announces run for governor; Newport, New Hampshire plans

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

budget for winter road cleanup. SPORTS - Highlights of the Kearsarge football team's season-opening win over Pembroke.

Wednesday, September 9, 2015

Lebanon, New Hampshire hoping to earn "bike-a-ability" rating by the League of American Bicyclists; Interview with local Veterinarian on the heightened flea season noticed by local pet owners; Sunapee select board discusses sale of historic Livery building on Main Street; Sunapee Police Department showcases its new medication drop box; Harvard Professor Lawrence Lessig announces run for president at Elderly Housing Development in Claremont, New Hampshire; Windsor, Vermont select board tells residents it won't take a stance on proposed solar panel site; Three Colby-Sawyer College nursing students suing college after failing class; Lynn Solomon visits Spring Ledge Farm in New London, New Hampshire to talk fresh crops. SPORTS - Highlights of double-local girls soccer matchup between Sunapee and Newport.

Thursday, September 10, 2015

Union representing Stevens High teachers withdraws cease-and-desist order on new controversial class schedule; Driver identified in fatal crash that killed 44-year-old woman walking on Claremont, New Hampshire road; Springfield Hospital earned Energy Star certification from US. Environmental Protection Agency; Massachusetts man said to be major supplier of heroin to Southern Vermont sentenced to 5 to 10 years in prison; Sullivan County man sentenced to 7 to 15 years in prison after pleading guilty to shaking his 5-month-old son; Keurig abandoning Vermont plan to begin operations in Switzerland; Three waterways in Bellows Falls, Vermont and Walpole, New Hampshire could be receiving official names; New York based solar company planning sites in Vermont; Belletetes Building Product Specialists in Andover, New Hampshire seeking volunteers for Build it Forward Program. SPORTS - Stevens boys soccer suffers first loss against Kearsarge.

Friday, September 11, 2015

Local remembrance ceremonies honoring victims of September 11, 2011; Croydon, New Hampshire select board receives cease-and-desist order to stop funding tuition of students' attending private schools; Two-car accident in Sunapee, New Hampshire forces police to close one lane of Route 11; Construction season in full swing with paving to begin on Interstate 89 between New London and Grantham, New Hampshire; Local sculptor presents plans to create fountain within Claremont, New Hampshire's Opera House Square; Vermont Transportation Secretary Sue Minter becomes third Democratic candidate for Vermont Governor; 2nd Annual Brattleboro Bacon fest set to kickoff tomorrow; City officials preparing the Springfield Warming Shelter for its third season of operation. SPORTS - Trail Ride Review segment on the Pinnacle network of trails in Newport, New Hampshire.

Monday, September 14, 2015

South Carolina Governor and Republican presidential candidate Lindsey Graham visits New England College with Arizona Senator John McCain; Device used to illegally obtain debit card

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

and password information found at Mascara Savings Bank in Hartford, Vermont; Lake Sunapee Bank announces it will open a 37th branch in Concord, New Hampshire; Drivers who use Route 5 in White River Junction, Vermont to face heavy delays with bridge replacement; 37-acres in Sunapee, New Hampshire donated to Ausbon Sergeant Land Preservation Trust; Croydon Select board decides to not comply with cease-and-desist order submitted by New Hampshire Attorney General's Office; Playground at North Charlestown Community School named after former student who dies of Lymphoma; Highlights of Kearsarge Regional High School's homecoming activities. SPORTS - Highlights from the Lebanon football team's win over Plymouth.

Tuesday, September 15, 2015

Kilton Public Library in Lebanon, New Hampshire in center of controversy regarding online privacy rights; Downed power line on Main Street in Claremont, New Hampshire causes minor traffic delays; Claremont School Board discusses plans to create 23 additional spaces at Maple Avenue Elementary School; Dartmouth College English professor accused of possessing child pornography waves his right for a probable-cause hearing; The home of federal tax evaders Ed and Elaine Brown in Plainfield, New Hampshire up for sale; Windsor, Vermont Police say a 23-year-old caretaker is accused of scamming a disabled man out of nearly $2,000; Brattleboro, Vermont man cited for simple assault and unlawful trespassing after an incident that left him shot in the leg by state police; Sunapee Central Elementary School celebrates International Dot Day. SPORTS - Highlights of the Newport girls soccer team's second straight victory.

Wednesday, September 16, 2015

Controversial internet browsing network to be reactivated at Kilton Public Library in Lebanon, New Hampshire; West Wethersfield Vermont Fire Station cleans up mysterious spill along Route 131; Hartford, Vermont select board decides to no longer pursue potential rooms, meals and alcohol tax; Two people sent to hospital after head-on-collision along Route 103 in Sunapee, New Hampshire; Major construction in Claremont, New Hampshire could create heavy delays in coming weeks; Revitalization work continues at the Old Academy Building in New London, New Hampshire; Solarize Upper Valley offers property examinations to see if homes are suitable for solar panels; Second Republican presidential debate set for tonight. SPORTS - Highlights of the Fall Mountain girls soccer team's matchup with Kearsarge.

Thursday, September 17, 2015

18-year-old Charlestown man accused of vandalizing Claremont, New Hampshire church pleads not guilty to two felony charges; Owners of former fitness club in Lebanon, New Hampshire forced to pay back illegally-offered lifetime memberships; Springfield Medical Care Systems to receive $300,000 as part of Department of Health and Human Services initiative; Presidential candidate Lawrence Lessig visits New England College in Henniker, New Hampshire; Progress moves forward on renovations to Dunbar Free Library in Grantham, New Hampshire; New Hampshire lawmakers end months-long stalemate with signing of new budget; Director of the West Claremont Center of Music and Arts win state art award; Local apple tree farms set for upcoming picking season. SPORTS - Highlights of the Mascoma volleyball team's matchup with Sunapee.

Friday, September 18, 2015

Statistics released from sobriety checkpoint in Sunapee, New Hampshire; Alice Peck Day Memorial Hospital's plans for new multi-specialty outpatient clinic hits road block; Northern Stage theater set to kickoff first season in its new Barrette Center; Extended excerpts from presidential candidate Lawrence Lessig's visit to New England College in Henniker, New Hampshire; Brattleboro select board updates residents on the status of city's sidewalk project; Lynn Solomon discusses fall harvest at Spring Ledge Farm in New London, New Hampshire; 2nd Annual Claremont Brew fest and Battle of the Brews to be held tomorrow. SPORTS - Highlights from the Springfield field hockey team's matchup with Brattleboro.

Monday, September 21, 2015

5-month old baby from Hartland, Vermont discovered unresponsive while under the care of uncle; Claremont, New Hampshire man arrested for traveling 117mph on Interstate 91 in Westminster, Vermont; Claremont School District creates committee to address risky sexual behavior of district's middle and high school students; Highlights from the 2nd Annual Claremont Brew fest and Battle of the Bands; Loon rescued from Little Lake Sunapee in New London, New Hampshire euthanized; Construction continues on bridge replacement on Interstate 91 in White River Junction, Vermont; Holy Trinity Church in Springfield Vermont celebrates 110th anniversary; Common Man Restaurant in Claremont, New Hampshire hosts scholarship dinner. SPORTS - Highlights of the Hanover football team's homecoming matchup against Kearsarge.

Tuesday, September 22, 2015

Croydon, New Hampshire School District discusses its policy on allowing parents to choose their children's schools beyond the fourth grade; SAU 6 Superintendent Middle McGoodwin to testify in front of Concord lawmakers on background checks for school employees; Strafford, Vermont man caught speeding at 125mph on Interstate 91 in Rockingham, Vermont; Vermont State Police continue investigation into the death of a 5-month-old Hartland baby found dead while under the care of his uncle; Republican presidential candidate Scott Walker suspends his campaign; Colby-Sawyer College adding six new people to its staff; Dartmouth College appears on nationwide sexual assault survey; Extended highlights from the 2nd Annual Claremont Brew fest and Battle of the Brews. SPORTS - Highlights of the Sunapee volleyball team's matchup with Franklin.

Wednesday, September 23, 2015

Croydon, New Hampshire issues response to New Hampshire Attorney General's Office on cease-and-desist order; Planned upgrades to Mechanic Street in Lebanon, New Hampshire hits road block; Part-time firefighter and EMT to become Windsor Fire Department's next fire chief; Hartland, Vermont man arrested for pointing a gun at a passing motorist while standing next to

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

a child waiting for a school bus; Hartford, Vermont officials seek head start in planning budget for 2017 fiscal year; Public hearing held on proposed partnership between Alice Peck Day Memorial Hospital and Dartmouth-Hitchcock; Library Arts Center in Newport, New Hampshire hosting exhibit from the Soo - Nippi Quilters Guild; Capitol Center for the Arts in Concord New Hampshire to begin 20th season. SPORTS - Highlights of the Kearsarge field hockey team's matchup against John Stark.

Thursday, September 24, 2015

Vermont health officials issue warning on E. coli after five confirmed cases in the state; Bellows Falls Police Department investigating a string of vehicle break-ins along Forrest Street and Center Street; Four candidates have filed in race for Claremont, New Hampshire mayor; New Hampshire governor Maggie Hassan spoke on the River Park development in West Lebanon; Resident requests inquire into "Wildlife Dead Zone" in Windsor, Vermont during last night's selectman meeting; Thomas Hoyt named to Colby-Sawyer College Board of Trustees; Brattleboro, Vermont man wins Emmy for Outstanding Main Title Design; Super harvest full moon to be seen overnight Sunday. SPORTS - Double-local showdown between the Stevens High and Newport field hockey teams.

Friday, September 25, 2015

Lake Sunapee Region VNA and Hospice welcomes new medical director; Springfield Medical Care System set to hold variety of free health and wellness classes; Flying Goose Brew Pub & Grille in New London, New Hampshire earns viewer's choice award for best craft brewery; Charlestown, New Hampshire company wins bid to perform improvements around the Sullivan County prison complex in Unity; 28-year-old Brattleboro man charges with aggravated sexual assault; Lake Sunapee Chowder Challenge set to begin Sunday in Sunapee Harbor; St. Gaudens National Historic Site in Cornish, New Hampshire to hold 10th annual Sculptural Visions event. SPORTS - Highlights of the Stevens boys soccer team's matchup against non-divisional Sunapee.

Monday, September 28, 2015

Four-way race for Claremont, New Hampshire whittled down to two candidates; Multi-car accident on Interstate 89 in Sutton, New Hampshire forces officials to close the highway for an extended period of time; Northwood, New Hampshire woman rescued from Mount Kearsarge after injuring her lower leg while descending a trail; Republican presidential candidate Rand Paul speaks at New England College in Henniker, New Hampshire; 49-year-old Newport, New Hampshire man arrested on charges of possessing child pornography; Vermont health officials say E. coli outbreak came from contamination at a Worthy Burger in South Royalton; Bridge on Lower Main Street in Sunapee, New Hampshire to be closed for repairs; Lake Sunapee Region VNA and Hospice held public flu shot clinic. SPORTS - Highlights of the 44th annual Bernard Cup boys soccer game between Stevens and Fall Mountain.

Tuesday, September 29, 2015

TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES - Did not air a news program.

Program Issues List_3rd Quarter - 2015

YCN News

WYCX-CD

Wednesday, September 30, 2015

Entire state of New Hampshire and parts of Vermont remain under a flood warning with 4-inches of rain have fallen over 36-hour span; Croydon School Board ignored deadline set by New Hampshire Attorney General's office to stop funding tuition to private schools; Claremont Soup Kitchen board of directors vice president resigns after Monday night meeting; Seldon Technologies in Windsor, Vermont closes and lays off 32 employees; Boston to Montreal railroad could have stop in Claremont, New Hampshire; Local Claremont, New Hampshire restaurant destroyed in fire. SPORTS - Highlights from the Sunapee girls soccer team's matchup with Newport.
