

WLVL-AM Public File 2023 Q2

Interviews on “Wake-Up Niagara” 6am – 9am Mondays through Fridays

4/3 - BRAD BISBING, Assistant General Manager of the Buffalo Bisons talked about the upcoming baseball season and opening day activities.

4/3 – ANGELO MORINELLO, NYS Assemblyman talking about the latest developments in the state budgeting process.

4/7 – CLAUDIA TENNEY, US Congresswoman for NY 24 discussed the latest legislative developments and the local Radio Freedom Act.

4/13 – RACHEL SACCO, Rape Crisis Program Supervisor for the YWCA of Niagara County talked about the programs and assistance available to rape victims.

4/20 – C.J. URLAUB, President of Mount St. Mary’s Hospital in Lewiston giving updates on the construction of the new Lockport Memorial Hospital.

4/21 – CATHERINE SHICK, Public Relations Director for FeedMore WNY discussed the increasing need for supplies to keep our food banks stocked, the need for which is constantly rising.

4/24 – JOE JASTRZEMSKI, Niagara County Clerk talking about pistol permits and the need for Real ID’s being pushed back until 2025.

4/25 – FRANK CAMPBELL, Outdoor Promotions Director for Destination Niagara USA reported on the out-of-town efforts to attract tourism to Niagara County.

WLVL-AM Public File 2023 Q2

Interviews on “Wake-Up Niagara” 6am – 9am Mondays through Fridays

5/2 – BILL HILTS, JR., Outdoor Reporter for the Buffalo News reporting on the upcoming fishing derbies scheduled for Lake Ontario.

5/4 – DAN COLPOYS, Executive Director of the Niagara County Mental Health Association explaining the event planned to seek new volunteers.

5/5 – DAVE KINYON, Executive Director of the Lockport Locks Heritage District discussed the upcoming canal season and the various activities.

5/10 – BOB EMERSON, Executive Director of Old Fort Niagara talked about the big Memorial Day Programs that will kick off this season.

5/23 – MAJOR TOM DUPEREE, Administrator for the Lockport Salvation Army spoke about the various programs available to the community and the need for volunteers.

5/25 – JOHN SYRACUSE, Newfane Town Supervisor talked about the various changes and upgrades made in Olcott Beach preparing for this summer.

5/26 – RICK ABBOTT, Niagara County Legislator District 13 highlighted the Hometown Heroes program that is going on throughout the city of Lockport and beyond.

5/31 – RIKKI CASON, Marketing Director for the Kenan Center in Lockport explained the upcoming Craftsmen Artisan Festival and why we should attend.

WLVL-AM Public File 2023 Q2

Interviews on “Wake-Up Niagara” 6am – 9am Mondays through Fridays

6/1 – MARYBETH HALL, Account Manager for the American Red Cross explaining the urgent need for blood donors and how to sign-up.

6/5 – MIKE NORRIS, NYS Assemblyman for District 144 summarizing the activity in Albany as the Legislature closed its current session.

6/7 – CAROLYN MOORE, Community Relations Director of Mount St. Mary’s Hospital in Lewiston with an update on the soon to be opened Lockport Memorial Hospital.

6/7 – TOM SY, Town of Lockport Economic Development Director explaining the lawsuit against Yahoo Inc. and updates on other new businesses coming to the area.

6/9 – SHAWN FOTI, Niagara County Legislator discussing improvements in Olcott Beach and talked about the E.M.T. situation the county is facing when Eastern Niagara Hospital closes mid-month.

6/15 – DOREEN ALBEE, Lewiston Garden Walk Director presenting details on the upcoming event and why we should attend.

6/16 – RICK ABBOTT, Niagara County Legislator talked about the improvements to some of the county parks including the county owned golf course.

6/22 – JOHN LOMBARDI, Candidate for Mayor of Lockport announces his campaign and outlines his strategies if he is elected.