ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF RADIO FREE MOSCOW, INC.

The undersigned, all of who are natural persons of the age or eighteen years or more, acting as incorporators of a corporation, hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

FIRST: The name of the corporation is: Radio Free Moscow, Inc.

SECOND: The period of duration of the Corporation is perpetual.

THIRD: The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in effect or as may hereafter be amended ("the Code"). The purposes for which the Corporation is formed is to:

(A) Operate a non-commercial radio station with the purpose of serving the people of Moscow, Idaho and surrounding areas with news, music, artistic and educational programming seldom heard elsewhere on the radio dial locally.

(B) To allow public participation in programming and programming decisions on the radio station as provided by the radio station's Mission Statement.

(C) To use the radio station to inform the public about local events and issues.

In furtherance thereof, the Corporation may receive property by gift, device or bequest, invest and reinvest the same, and apply the income and principal thereof, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine, either directly or through contributions to any charitable organization or organizations, exclusively for charitable or educational purposes, and engage in any lawful act or activity for which the corporation may be organized within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or any successor provision.

In furtherance of its exclusively charitable and educational corporate purposes, the Corporation shall have all the general power to solicit grants and contributions for such purposes.

FOURTH: The Corporation shall have membership as defined by the by-laws.

FIFTH: There shall be a minimum of five and a maximum of eleven directors who shall be elected or appointed as provided by the by-laws.

SIXTH: Provisions for the regulation of the internal affairs of the Corporation, including provisions for distribution of assets on dissolution or final liquidation are as follows:

A. No part of the net earnings of the Corporations shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to any director or officer of the Corporation, or any other private person, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article THIRD hereof.

B. During such period, or periods, of time as the Corporation is treated as a private foundation pursuant to § 509 of the Code, the directors must distribute the Corporation's income at such time and in such manner so as not to subject the Corporation to tax under § 4942 of the Code, and the Corporation is prohibited from engaging in any act of self-dealing (as defined in § 4941(d) of the Code), from retaining any excess business holdings (as defined in § 4943(c) of the Code) which would subject the Corporation to tax under § 4943 of the Code, from making any investments or otherwise acquiring assets in such manner so as to subject the Corporation to tax under § 4944 of the Code, from retaining any assets which would subject the Corporation to tax under § 4944 of the Code if the directors have acquired such assets, and from making any taxable expenditures (as defined in § 4945 (d) of the Code).
