

Quarterly Issues

WTTL-FM

4th Quarter 2018

April-

PSA's ran this month written and recorded by the Hopkins County Junior Leadership. Psas ran this month for Hopkins County Relay for life. The Hopkins County Humane Society were guests in the studio on April 6th, 13th, 20th and 27th to discuss needs and animals available for adoptions at the Hopkins County Humane Society. Meaghan Team with Murray State University was a guest on April 4th, 11th, 18th and 25th to discuss programs and education opportunities at Murray State Madisonville Campus. Chad Hart with the Hopkins County Family YMCA was a guest on April 6th, 13th, 20th and 27th to discuss renovations, programs and changes to the Hopkins County Family YMCA.

MAY-

PSA's Ran this month written and recorded by the Hopkins County Junior Leadership. The Hopkins County Humane society were guests on May 4th, 11th, 18th and 25th to discuss animals and needs of the shelters. Chad hart with the YMCA came on May 4th, 11th, 18th and 25th to discuss the renovations, programs and introduction of 24 hour access at the Hopkins County Family YMCA. Melanie Tapp and Krista Brasher were guests on May 22nd to discuss The Hopkins-Muhlenberg Elder Abuse Council and the shop to stop senior hunger food drive. Meaghan Teal was a guest on May 2nd, 9th, 16th and 23rd to discuss education opportunities at Murray state Madisonville campus.

June-

PSA's begins this month for in kind donations to the 9/11 heroes run in Hopkins County. PSA's Ran this month for in kind donations in support of the Light of Chance Beautiful Mess Jam Fest. Eric Logan was a guest on 12th to discuss the beautiful mess jam fest. Krista Brasher and Melanie Tapp were guests on June 13th do discuss the Shop to stop senior hunger food drive. 1069 TTL Broadcast live for 1 hour on June 15th from the Shop to stop senior hunger food drive event. Melanie Tapp was a guest on June 4th to discuss a veterans seminar to educate veterans on benefits available to them for assisted living. Psas ran this month written and recorded by the Hopkins county junior leadership. The Hopkins county humane society were guests on June 1st, 8th, 15th and 22nd to discuss needs and animals at the shelter in an effort to increase adoptions.