

Quarterly Issues

WTTL-FM

January

PSA's ran in the month of January promoted the capital campaign at the Hopkins County Family YMCA.

PSA's began on January 22nd they were written and produced by Junior Leadership. PSA's discuss drinking and driving, drugs and texting and driving.

Chad Hart from the Hopkins County Family YMCA was a guest on January 5th, 12th, 19th, 26th and 30th at 8am to discuss renovations at the YMCA and the capital campaign to raise funds for construction.

Nancy and Angie were guest on January 5th, 12th, 19th, 26th and 30th at noon to discuss the Hopkins County Humane Society and the pet of the week.

February

PSA's ran in this month promoting the YMCA capital campaign.

PSA's ran this month that were done by Junior leadership discouraging youth from drinking and driving, drugs and texting while driving.

PSA's ran this month for Big Brothers, Big sisters of Hopkins County Bowl for Kids Sake.

Chad Hart was present on February 2nd, 9th, 16th, and 23rd at 8am to update community of renovations and the capital campaign.

March

PSA's began this month promoting a civic blood drive for the Lions Club of Hopkins County.

PSA's done by Junior Leadership ran this month focusing on Drinking and Driving, drugs and texting and driving.

PSA's ran this month for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Hopkins County Bowl for Kids Sake.

Humane Society volunteers were guests on March 2nd, 9th, 16^h, 23rd and 30th at noon to discuss the pet of the week and the needs of the Hopkins County Humane Society.

Chad Hart returned on March 2nd, 9th, 16th, 23rd and 30th at 8am to discuss the renovations and changes to the YMCA as well as the capital campaign.

Kellie Arnold with Big Brothers Big Sisters was a guest on March 27th at 9am to discuss the Bowl for Kids Sake program and how to sign up as well as the program itself.

Eric Logan was a guest on March 29th at noon to discuss the Breath program and how it benefits the youth of our community and the children it serves.