

4th Quarter

WTTL-FM

Public Issues

October- Psa's ran this month for Junior Leadership of Hopkins County. Psa's ran in October promoting a Cruise in at Madisonville Garage Doors that would benefit the Original Jerry'O WTTL Toy Drive. A schedule ran for Covenant Community Church to announce the change of date for the Kid's Fest Halloween event. The Hopkins County Humane society were present on air for interviews every Friday at 3pm. Meaghan Teal with Murray state university of present for interviews every Wednesday at 12pm to promote educational programs at Murray Madisonville Campus. The YMCA was present every Friday at 3:30 for an interview about programs and needs of the Hopkins County Family YMCA. Spots ran this month for the Hopkins County family YMCA programs. A remote was held on October 20th from the Madisonville Garage doors cruise in to promote raising funds for the original jerry'O WTTL Toy Drive. Psa's ran this month to promote the Celebrity Dinner charity event for the original Jerry'O WTTL Toy Drive.

November: Psa's ran this month for Junior Leadership of Hopkins County. Psa's ran this month promoting the Original Jerry'O WTTL Toy drive sign ups. Psa's ran this month for the Hopkins County Family YMCA promoting programs. A remote was given to the Light of Chance Breath Program on November 17th to promote giving Tuesday for the non-profit organization. Meaghan Teal with Murray State University of present every Wednesday at 12pm to discuss educational programs at Murray State Madisonville. The Hopkins County Humane Society was present every Friday at 3pm to discuss needs and animals at the shelter. Chad Hart from Hopkins County Family YMCA was present every Friday at 3:30 to discuss needs and programs at the Hopkins County Family YMCA. WTTL-FM promoted a free meal being offered to those in need on Thanksgiving at the Oasis in Madisonville. Psa's also ran for the Salvation Army to promote the need for bell ringers.

December: Psa's ran this month for junior leadership of Hopkins County. Psa's ran this month to promote the need for donations for the Original Jerry'O WTTL Toy Drive. Psa's ran this month for the Martin Luther King Junior event being held in February. WTTL-FM promoted the free Return to Bethlehem event at First Baptist Church in Madisonville. The Veterans Center were guest on December 6th and 10th to discuss their event at Center St Wheel and Tire to raise items for the local Veterans Center. Chad Hart with the Hopkins County Family YMCA was present every Friday at 3:30 to discuss programs at the Hopkins County Family YMCA. The Hopkins County Humane Society was present every Friday at 3pm to discuss needs at the Hopkins County Humane Society. Meaghan Teal was a guest every Wednesday at 12pm to discuss education opportunities at Murray State Madisonville.