

PUBLIC FILE REPORT – FOURTH QUARTER 2023
FOR 920 WGHQ AM KINGSTON and 92.5 W223CR FM KINGSTON

News

Magic 92.5 WGHQ presents newscasts every hour during morning drive (6am to 10am – although, the 7am and 8am newscasts only air on our stream because Kingston Community Radio takes over the AM and FM on air programming) and then in alternating hours from 10am to 7pm weekdays. These newscasts are prepared and presented by NBC Radio News, an outside contractor.

Weather Forecasts from Accuweather air hourly every day from 6am to midnight.

Magic 92.5 WGHQ maintains an online community calendar where local groups and organizations can add their events. This part of the website is managed and audited by Program Director Randy Turner. A recorded version of some events airs several times a day.

Public Affairs Program

Sunday mornings 8:30 to 9am

"51%" from WAMC / National Public Radio

This is a program about many subjects and topics ranging from the environment and health to kids and politics, the arts and more from a women's perspective.

Date            Show #    Guest and Topic

OCTOBER 1            1783

On this week's 51%, we speak with science journalist and Brave the Wild River author Melissa Sevigny about the two women who risked their lives to botanize the Grand Canyon in the 1930s.

OCTOBER 8            1784

The World Health Organization says roughly 1 in 6 people grapples with infertility. On this week's 51%, we speak with the editors of Infertilities: A Curation, to broaden our perception and understanding of what is commonly called a "women's issue."

OCTOBER 15           1785

On this week's 51%, WAMC's Samantha Simmons speaks with Olympic runner Alexi Pappas about how she went about adapting her book, Bravey, for a younger audience.

OCTOBER 22           1786

On this week's 51%, we sit down with "defensive living" experts Joy Farrow and Laura Frombach to discuss modern ways women are protecting themselves in the face of gender-based violence.

OCTOBER 29           1787

On this week's 51%, we speak with Dr. Elizabeth Lucal about how women can reduce their risk of cervical cancer, and why we still know so little about ovarian cancer.

NOVEMBER 4           1788

On this week's 51%, we speak with artists who have found healing through creativity. Author Brittany Means comes to terms with her childhood growing up on the road in her new memoir Hell if We Don't Change Our Ways, and pianist and composer Robin Spielberg meditates on resilience for her new symphonic record, By Way of the Wind.

NOVEMBER 12          1789

On this week's 51%, we speak with award-winning international reporter Amanda Sperber to learn how news outlets and foreign correspondents can better serve the communities they cover.

NOVEMBER 19          1790

On this week's 51%, we speak with estate attorney Megan Harris-Pero about why having an estate plan is particularly important for women, and what they should keep in mind when putting a plan together.

NOVEMBER 26 1791

On this week's 51%, we speak with Dr. Sophia Choukas-Bradley about the impacts of social media on teens and young adults.

DECEMBER 3 1792

On this week's 51%, we speak with psychiatrist and human rights advocate Dr. Robert Okin about the state of homelessness in the U.S., and the many obstacles faced by unhoused women and families. Dr. Okin spent two years interviewing and photographing unhoused individuals struggling with mental illness in San Francisco.

DECEMBER 10 1793

On this week's 51%, we speak with Amy Brittain of The Washington Post about the paper's recent analysis of infant mortality in home births across the U.S.

DECEMBER 17 1794

On the latest 51%, we speak with biologist and wildlife photographer Kirsten Hines about her new book Wild Florida, documenting the state's diverse population of birds, mammals, reptiles, and insects.

DECEMBER 24 1795

On this week's 51%, we hear from comedian, writer, and TV host Samantha Bee about her latest standup tour "Your Favorite Woman: The Joy of Sex Education."

DECEMBER 31 1796

On this week's 51%, we speak with Claudia Coenen, a certified grief counselor and thanatologist, about how to cope with grief during the holiday season. We also hear from the executive director of No Kid Hungry New York about the state of food insecurity in the U.S.
