Unholy Matrimony

Robert and Sabrina Limon appeared to be living an idyllic life with their two children in Silver Lakes, CA. The Limons loved to party and had become part of a tight-knit group of couples who called themselves “The Wolfpack.” When Robert was found murdered in a remote industrial complex where he was working, the illusion of their perfect life crumbled. Police arrested Jonathan and Sabrina for the murder, but without enough evidence, Sabrina was able to walk free. ### Secrets of the Lake

Since the 1930s, Lake Mead — a picturesque reservoir outside of Las Vegas — has been the site of over 300 drownings, making it one of the deadliest lakes in America. However, it wasn’t until recently that Lake Mead’s truly sinister history came to light. As environmental crises like drought, warming temperatures, and diminishing water supply have caused the reservoir to recede, people have discovered bodies in the lake. In a special edition of “20/20,” ABC News contributor Chris Connelly investigates the secrets of Lake Mead and details how authorities are using DNA evidence to crack cases that had long gone cold.

The Case of the Clown Killer

In May of 1990, a clown carrying balloons and flowers walked up to Marlene Warren’s home in an affluent southern Florida suburb and shot and killed the 40-year-old mother at point-blank range when she opened the door. Friends and family were quick to raise suspicion about her husband, Michael Warren, but his denial and airtight alibi brought investigators back to square one, leading to a 33-year journey to solve the case. Finally, just weeks ago, in April of 2023, Michael's second wife, Sheila Keen-Warren, pled guilty to second-degree murder. In a new "20/20," contributing anchor Deborah Roberts looks at the decades-long case and details how authorities finally brought the killer to justice.

Wendi Mae Davidson, former Texas veterinarian and mother of two, reported her husband, Air Force Staff Sergeant Michael Severance, missing in January 2005. Authorities searched for the father and airman who survived five tours of duty in the Middle East. But soon, a joint investigation by Texas Rangers, the Air Force Office of Special Investigations and local authorities revealed that Davidson knew far more about Severance's whereabouts than she disclosed. "20/20," in collaboration with Plum Pictures, features an interview with Davidson from prison, where she is serving her 25-year sentence for her husband's murder. She speaks to ABC News chief national correspondent Matt Gutman about what she claims really happened to her husband and discusses the evidence authorities say points to her, including Severance's toxicology report that showed that large amounts of animal tranquilizers contributed to his death. The program also contains recordings of police interrogating Davidson in the days following Severance's disappearance and interviews with Frank Severance, Severance's brother; Leslie Severance, Severance's father; and other friends of Severance who discuss his troubled marriage and their feelings about Davidson.

Do No Harm

On the surface, Robert Bierenbaum seemed to have it all — he was a surgeon, a skilled skier, a gourmet chef, fluent in multiple languages, and an expert pilot. But just like "Jekyll and Hyde," he had a much darker side lurking underneath. He was a violent and controlling abuser, and his wife, Gail Katz-Bierenbaum, confided in friends she was afraid of him. Although authorities suspected him in Katz-Bierenbaum's 1985 disappearance from their Upper East Side apartment, insufficient physical evidence allowed him to evade charges for 14 years. He used that time to carefully craft a new life across the country until prosecutors discovered a doctored flight log from the day Katz-

Bierenbaum vanished, and his lies finally caught up with him. With reporting by ABC News correspondent John Quiñones, “20/20” features interviews with women romantically involved with Bierenbaum after he left New York City; an exclusive interview with Barb Cooper, the nanny for Bierenbaum’s child with his second wife; a new interview with Alayne Katz, Katz-Bierenbaum’s sister; and Denise Kastenbaum, Katz-Bierenbaum’s closest childhood friend. Other interviews include Daniel Bibb and Steve Saracco, the original prosecutors; Virgilio Dalsass, the missing persons police officer who was the first on the case; and Judge Leslie Crocker Synder, who sentenced Bierenbaum to 20 years to life in prison. “20/20” also features rare home videos of Katz-Bierenbaum and never-before-seen photos of Bierenbaum.
