The Children's Television Act and the FCC's rules impose the following commercial limits:

1. Children's programming may not contain more than 10.5 minutes of total commercial matter per clock hour on weekends and no more than 12.0 minutes of total commercial matter per clock hour on weekdays.

After due review of internal station records and documentation provided to us by program suppliers, KSCW-DT 33.1, hereby certifies:

X that it complied fully with the FCC's commercial limits with respect to all children's programs broadcast during this quarter that are subject to those requirements.

— that it did not comply fully with the FCC's commercial limits with respect to all children's programs broadcast during this quarter that are subject to those requirements, as explained in Attachment A hereto.

The CW Television Network Children's Programming

Attached is a list of 3rd Quarter 2012 CW Children's Programming for your public files.

Statement

This statement is designed to furnish you with additional information concerning the commercial matter contained in the network's children's programs, and to enable you to more easily comply with the requirements of the Children's Television Act of 1990.

The following is a list of all CW Television Network programs which were produced and broadcast with the intention of primarily reaching an audience of children twelve years old and younger that were scheduled for broadcast during the third quarter of 2012. Each of these programs were formatted to allow for no more than 10.5 minutes of commercial time per hour on weekends. The actual number of network commercial minutes were included in the network traffic reports for the third quarter of 2012, which each affiliated station has received heretofore.
