

Arts

30 minute weekly program
Fridays at 8:30pm on KLRN

Join us each week as we visit art openings, music and theater performances in the San Antonio arts and culture scene. In this series, we also explore breathtaking art from around the country.

Program number: 416
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: July 7, 2016 8:00pm

A photographer steps in front of his own lens for the first time. A humanitarian transforms weapons into sculpture. An exhibition on costume design puts clothing center stage. An artist blurs the line between architecture and sculpture

Participants and their affiliations, titles: Melina Narezo, Host

Program number: 417
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: July 14, 2016 8:00pm

Catch a glimpse of The Magik Theatre's current production, La Cinderella. Artistic Consultant and Director of La Cinderella, Greg Hinojosa tells us about the Magik Theatre's version of the classic fairy tale, set in colonial San Antonio. We'll also sit with Adam Rocha, Executive Director of the San Antonio Film Festival, to learn more about this year's festivities.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:
Melina Narezo, Host
Gregory Hinojosa, Artistic Consultant, Magik Theatre/Director, La Cinderella
Adam Rocha, Executive Director, San Antonio Film Festival

Program number: 418
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: August 4, 2016 8:00pm

For over fifteen years, the Martinez Street Women's Center has been working to empower women and girls on the East and Southeast sides of San Antonio. Through their Girl Zone program, they are engaging young women in service learning and leadership development, promoting positive body image and self-esteem and teaching girls how to use art to tell their stories. Their work is currently on exhibit at The Institute of Texan Cultures. We take a look at "Girls Eye View: An Eastside HerStory".

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Melina Narezo, Host

Andrea Figueroa, Executive Director, Martinez Street Women's Center

Ernesto Olivo, Girl Zone Educator

Program number: 419

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: September 8, 2016 8:00pm

: The San Antonio Symphony begins its 2016-2017 season with Carmina Burana on Friday, September 16 at The Tobin Center for the Performing Arts. We sit down with Music Director, Sebastian Lang-Lessing to find out more about the upcoming season and learn about the selection process in creating an international, well-balanced musical experience.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Melina Narezo, Host

Sebastian Lang-Lessing, Music Director, San Antonio Symphony

Program number: 420

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: September 15, 2016 8:00pm

KLRN celebrates Spotlight Education Week as we visit John Marshall High School to find out more about a new residency program with the San Antonio Symphony. This fall, over 300 students will have the opportunity to be directly involved with the San Antonio Symphony.

We also visit, Alpha Home, an organization that has been helping its residents work through drug and alcohol addiction. As part of their 50th Anniversary and National Recovery Month, Alpha Home is hosting "Inside Out" an art event featuring works created by individuals in their program.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Melina Narezo, Host

John Thornton, John Marshall High School Orchestra Director

Jeremy Brimhall, Director of Education, San Antonio Symphony

Nangie Lowrie, Chief Operating Officer, Alpha Home

Lorie Wong, Outpatient Counselor, Alpha Home

Sara Barcus, Artist

Program number: 421

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: September 22, 2016 8:00pm

Bringing a community together with the arts. A fashion designer goes green. Step inside a costume and prop making shop. And the art of body language.

Program number: 422

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: September 29, 2016 8:00pm

Each year, The Playhouse San Antonio produces high-quality, live theater that inspires, educates, and entertains audiences of all ages. Expanding on their mission, The Playhouse recently introduced Playhouse Potentials, a unique program this is engaging and broadening San Antonio's community of theatre artists. We met with two local writers who were recently given the opportunity to introduce their play to a live audience.

And George Green, CEO and Artistic Director at The Playhouse, gives us a preview of what's to come in the upcoming season.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Melina Narezo, Host

Meredith Alvarez, COO & Associate Artistic Director, The Playhouse San Antonio

Rebecca McCarty, Writer

Jay Brandon, Writer

George Green, CEO & Artistic Director, The Playhouse San Antonio