

KHGG-AM 1230 Third Quarter Issues 2017

July 3 Claude Legris with the Visitors and Convention Bureau visits Arkklahoma Today at 7:40am. He talks about the Mayor's Fourth of July Celebration on the 4th at the Riverfront Amphitheater in downtown Fort Smith. Free transportation to the event from sites along Garrison Avenue. The fireworks display is free to the public.

July 5 Chad Lowe with the Janet Huckabee River Valley Nature Center in studio at 7:20am and talks about the July lineup of events at the center including boater education and free evening Arkansas River tours. Several free day camps for children are also scheduled. Recorded interview with Floyd Robison of "Friends of the Fort" airs at 7:40am. The group is looking for members to help volunteer to replace national historic site positions which have been eliminated from the federal payroll.

July 6 Dr. Rosilee Walker talks about Summer classes at the Community School of the Arts and auditions for their Summer theatrical performances. She talked with Bill Pharis about efforts to raise funds for their new facility to be built near the Marshal's Museum along the Arkansas River at 7:40am.

July 7 Alice Alt with the U.S. Marshal's Museum talks about the program "Feds Feed Families" food drive to help local food banks at 7:20am with Karen Pharis.

July 10 Stacey Jones with the University of Arkansas Fort Smith talks about the Miss Arkansas Pageant he produced as well as the upcoming Season of Entertainment at 7:40am during "Arkklahoma Today".

July 11 Sgt Daniel Grubbs with the Fort Smith Police Department talks about safety precautions during Summer Vacations. Phone interview aired at 7:40am. The Sergeant also talked about getting kids ready for college and things to consider when setting them up at their new home.

July 12 State Treasurer Dennis Milligan talks with Bill Pharis by phone at 7:30am about land auctions to pay delinquent taxes and the Arkansas Treasure Hunt. At 7:40am Congressman Steve Womack called in to discuss what activities in Washington will affect the third congressional district.

July 13 Mark Sparks talks in studio at 7:40am about the upcoming "Petting Paws" fundraiser for the Sebastian County Humane Society. Sergeant Daniel Grubbs also visits about upcoming city meeting about the presence of gangs in Fort Smith; how they identify, where they are located, how they operate, and how residents should proceed if they believe such activity is taking place in their neighborhood.

July 17 Claude Legris with the Fort Smith Visitor and Convention Bureau outlines the upcoming activities in the city at 7:40am.

July 18 Teresa Slaybach with the Alma Performing Arts Center reviews the upcoming events at the center and discusses how she selects them. Live in studio at 7:40am.

July 19 Butch Edwards with the Christian Businessmen's Association talks about the upcoming Mayor's Prayer Breakfast with Bill Pharis at 7:40am. Tickets available at the door.

July 20 Chuck Goux and Susan Ross with the Community Services Clearinghouse talk about the success for the True Grit Bike Ride and the need for summer food drives 7:40am during Arklahoma Today..

July 24 Eddie Lee Herndon with the United Way visits in Studio at 7:40 to talk about the kickoff for the annual fund drive, introducing pacesetter businesses and goals for the coming year.

July 25 7:40am Congressman Steve Womack calls in with a live report from Washington.

July 26 Recorded phone interview with Henry Moore of the Fort Smith Trolley Museum airs at 7:40am. He talked about the "Sweet Treat Trolley" event coming up on July 30th. For a $5. Donation visitors can make their own ice cream sundae and get a ride on the trolley

July 27 Tonya Rogers visits in studio at 7:40am to talk about the "Shop Local" campaign sponsored by the Fort Smith chamber of commerce when parents are shopping for back to school.

August 1 Dr. Rosilee Walker with the Community School of the Arts talks about registration for Fall Classes at the school, including musical tutoring, symphony, vocal and acting lessons, and art. 7:40am

August 2 Chad Lowe and Karen Westcamp Johnson visit in studio about August events at the Janet Huckabee River Valley Nature Center. Live at 7:10am. Nancy Blochberger in studio at 7:40am to talk about the Fort Smith Little Theater production of "The Secret Garden".

August 7 Attorney General Leslie Rutledge calls in to "Arklahoma Today" to talk about her cyber bullying prevention/protection plans at 7:40am.

August 8 Congressman Steve Womack calls in to "Arklahoma Today" at 7:40am to discuss the latest events in Washington.

August 9 Sergeant Daniel Grubbs in studio at 7:40am to remind listeners school starts next week and motorists need to remember to be extra careful when driving.

August 14 Claude Legris with the Visitor and Convention Bureau outlines the upcoming events in the city for the next two weeks at 7:40am.

August 16 WATCH interview with Bob Rink on the purpose of the program. Recorded interview with Daren Bobb airs at 7:40am.

August 17 Phone interview with Brent Gunnels airs at 7:40 to publicize the Crawford County Center for Art and Education "5 X 5 Gala" to benefit the new CAE planned in downtown Van Buren.

August 21 Congressman Steve Womack calls in to "Arklahoma Today" at 7:40am to report on the latest events in Washington effecting his constituents.

August 22 Ashley Ahlert with the Children's Emergency Shelter visits in Studio about upcoming events to better serve the children at the facility at 7:40am.

August 23 Chuck Goux and Susan Ross visit with Daren Bobb at 7:40am about the Community Services Clearinghouse.

August 24 Leisa Gramlich with the Fort Smith Museum of History talks about a new Student Exhibit at the Museum at 7:40am.

August 28 Pre recorded phone interview with Hardy Jefferies of the Fort Smith Flightmasters Club airs at 7:40am. The group is having their Labor Day flight open to the public at their new location at Chaffee Crossing.

August 29 Stacey Jones with the University of Arkansas Fort Smith visits in studio about the upcoming performance at the Blue Lion with jazz musicians.

September 6 Chad Lowe with the Janet Huckabee River Valley Nature Center visits live in studio at 7:10am to talk about September events at the nature center during Arklahoma Today. Congressman Steve Womack calls in at 7:40am to talk about feedback from his constituents.

September 8 John Thurston, Commissioner of Lands talks about auction of land in Scott county to raise tax monies lost from delinquent taxes. Live interview by phone at 7:40am.

September 11 Claude Legris with the Visitor and Convention bureau outlines the upcoming events in the community.

September 13 Eddie Lee Herndon announces the United Way Capital Campaign Fund Drive is officially under way. At 7:40am he explained how businesses can become involved through payroll deduction and through small fundraisers within companies to benefit various United Way agencies.

September 18 Recorded interview with Jean Kolljeski from the Sack Lunch program airs at 7:40am. The Fort Smith Little Theater will hold a "Dark Night" to help the costs in moving the Program to a newer facility and she discussed how the community can help support the Sack Lunch Program by attending the event.'

September 19 Leisa Gramlich with the Fort Smith Museum of History talked about "Museum Live" on the 23rd sponsored by the Smithsonian Museum, and touched briefly on October fundraising events for the Museum at 7:40am.

September 20 Pre recorded phone interview with Henry Moore aired at 7:40am to publicize the sale of ribs cooked by the Fort Smith BBQ Society to benefit the Fort Smith Trolley Museum. Aired at 7:40am.

September 21 Chuck Goux and Sue Ross with the Community Services Clearinghouse talk about winning a grant from Farmers Insurance through online voting.

September 25 Claude Legris with the Fort Smith Visitor and Convention Bureau outlines upcoming events for listeners at 7:40am.

September 26 Ray Kerins; VP of Corporate Affairs for Bayer calls in at 7:15am. He talks about the company's special "Here's to the Farmer" Luke Bryan Tour going on now to raise funds to donate one million meals. Congressman Steve Womack calls in at 7:40 to update listeners on what's going on in Washington.

September 30 Teresa Slaybach from the Alma Performing Arts Center live in studio at 7:40 to talk about upcoming performance of "Catapult".