Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WYNF provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- ARTS and Paine College Male Initiative: Part 1 The Jessye Norman School of the Arts is an after school program designed to develop and nurture the artistic and creative talents of students. The School of the Arts serves the cultural and educational needs of these traditionally underserved youth by providing: Free fine arts instruction Academic Tutoring An opportunity for advanced level study in dance, drama, music, art, and creative writing Exposure to professionals working within the arts fields Information on possible careers in the arts Knowledge of technical aspects of presentation and performance Part 2 PC has a new male mentor ship initiative whose purpose is to provide a place for male student members to discuss issues relevant to them, to express their interest in a given subject, to serve as a support group for students on campus or a group off campus, or a group interested in advancing social issues that concern the college and the community. This new group matches students with community male mentors for support.
- Back to School: Virginia College is hosting a free community back to school effort on August 4th at which time they are offering free hair cuts, refreshments and school supplies while they last. The event is free and open to the public.
