WYNF
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WYNF provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- 3 Governors Controversy: The death of Georgia governor-elect Eugene Talmadge in late 1946 launched a constitutional crisis that ranks as one of the most unusual political events in U.S. history: the state had three active governors at once, each claiming that he was the true elected official. The first full-length examination of that episode is in the form of a book titled The Three Governors Controversy: Skullduggery, Machinations, and the Decline of Georgia's Progressive Politics. Co-author and UGA Professor of Political Science Charles Bullock, discusses this incident and the politics in that era.
- Alzheimer's Music Fest: The 7th Alzheimer's Music Fest will be held in Woodstock, Sept. 15. Inspired by families who provide care for loved ones with Alzheimer's and other dementias and those affected with the diseases, Alzheimer's Music Fest presents a festival of musicians with diverse musical backgrounds. This year's headliner is Drivin & Cryin. A number of organizations involved in this year's event are profiled on this program.
- Atlanta Super Bowl LIII Host Committee: The Atlanta Super Bowl LIII Host Committee is the liaison between the National Football League, the City of Atlanta and the local surrounding community. Formed under the Championship Hosting Division of the Atlanta Sports Council, the Committee is responsible for helping to plan, organize and support activities and events which will enhance the Super Bowl experience for the city, state and region. Lee Hendrickson, the Committee (tm)s Vice President, Community Engagement and Volunteer Programs, discusses volunteer opportunities.
- Augusta Hero Pro Rodeo and Mac Academy: MACH Academy, Inc., established in April of 1992, is a non-profit 501(c) 3 community organization that provides year-round classes and camps at the Fleming Tennis Center in Augusta, GA, The Diamond Lakes Tennis Center in Hephzibah, Georgia and satellite locations throughout the Central Savannah River Area. We are affiliated with the United States Tennis Association-National Junior Tennis & Learning (USTA/NJTL). Programs and services are provided for all children, ages 3 to 18 regardless of age, race, gender, disability, or financial income. The focus demographics are inner city, disadvantaged youth, and low and moderate-income families. M.A.C.H.

stands for Mentoring, Academics, Computers, and Healthy Recreation.

- Changes in Augusta: Augusta In Review - City Administrator Janice Allen Jackson shares details about the future of Augusta and why GO Augusta is part of the future.
- Economic Lunches: Augusta Chamber of Commerce- Guest VP of the Chamber of Commerce Blaire Marvin share upcoming events happening in the city, some new initiatives and partnerships and available trainings and opportunities (Women in Business Luncheon, Cyber Symposiums, small business marketing training etc.)
- Family Connection: Cher talks with Candace Hill the Executive Director of the Augusta Partnership for Children about their mission of connecting resources and partnerships to improve the quality of life in the Augusta River Region for children and families. We also discussed their needs, their services and an upcoming fundraiser with the Father Daughter Gala and Dr. Ty Williams of One Smile Away Inc and how the citizens can help with donations, goods and services and through volunteering for their upcoming events.
- GA 811: Georgia 811 is a nonprofit corporation dedicated to preventing damage to Georgia's underground utilities and promoting public safety by functioning as a communication system, connecting utility companies with professional excavators and homeowners who are planning mechanized digging activity such as excavation, tunneling, grading, boring and demolition. Program guests are Public Service Commission Chairman Lauren Bubba McDonald, Roy Rogers of Blount Construction Co. in Marietta and Meghan Wade, President of Ga 811.
- Georgia's Crisis Part 1: The Heroin Triangle: Part one of a series of programs on the heroin and opioid crisis in Georgia. This program focuses on the so-called Heroin Triangle north of Atlanta. Program guests include Cobb County DA Vic Reynolds and Lt. Noah Caplan from Roswell Police.
- Georgia's Crisis Part 2: The Rest of Georgia: Part two of the series focuses on the heroin and opioid abuse problem outside metro Atlanta in rural Georgia. Program guests include Georgia Attorney General Chris Carr, Habersham County Sheriff Joey Terrell and GBI Special Agent in Charge Mitchell Posey.
- Georgia's Crisis Part 3: Where do we go? Part three of the series focuses on where we go from here to combat this problem in our state. Program guests include Georgia Attorney General Chris Carr, John Briguel, Council on Alcohol & Drugs and Casandra Price, Georgia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities.
- Georgia's Hands-Free Law: The new Hands-Free Law takes effect July 1 prohibiting all use of handheld device while driving. Col. Mark McDonough, Commissioner of the Georgia Department of Public Safety and Robert Hydrick, Communications Director for the Governor (tm)s Office of Highway Safety, discuss the new law and other highway safety issues.

- Grady Burn Center: Grady Hospital (tm)s Burn Center in Atlanta is one of the largest in the country and provides complete care to burn victims of all ages. The Burn Center is staffed by a highly qualified team of Emory University School of Medicine surgeons and Grady nurses certified in critical burn and advanced wound care. On this visit to the Center, Unit Director Susan Campis, Medical Director Dr. Walter Ingram and Child Life Specialist Elnora Williams discuss the services they provide.
- Leadership Development: Tax Commissioner Steven Kendrick has started a non-traditional program for boys called Project Impact. Project IMPACT is a Life Skills and Leadership Development program targeted to high school males in the Augusta area. The mission of Project IMPACT is to Identify and develop leadership potential and enhance a set of life skills, abilities, behaviors, attitudes, and knowledge that will increase participant (tm)s well-being and help them develop into active, productive and informed members of the community. Research has also shown that when youth have developed a healthy ethnic identity, they are more likely to achieve positive academic, psychological, and social outcomes so we have designed our program with that in mind. We have chosen group mentoring structures where adult men work with small groups of young men and we envision building successful lifelong relationships.
- Mayors Masters Reception: Rebroadcast (Mayor for Mayors Masters Reception and Masters Events/ Boys and Girls Club)
- Mental Health Symposium: Guest Poncere Daniels- Mental Health Symposium and issues relative to mental health. The effects of drugs and alcohol on mental health as well as issues of depression and what mental health traits are hereditary.
- Micajah Clark Dyer: On this program recorded in Blairsville Sylvia Dyer Turnage, author of Flying Off Rattlesnake Mountain: The Amazing Story of Pioneer Inventor-Aviator, Micajah Clark Dyer tells the story of Clark Dyer who invented a Flying Machine and was one of the first, if not the first, person to fly.
- Partnership Against Domestic Violence: PAVD is the largest nonprofit domestic violence organization in Georgia providing professional, compassionate and empowering support to battered women and their children in metro Atlanta. Since 1977, PADV has worked passionately and tirelessly to end the crime of intimate partner violence and empower its survivors. Programs guests and Nancy Friauf, PADV President and CEO, and Jennifer Graham Johnson, a PADV board member and chair for the organization's annual event, Hearts with Hope Gala.
- Support-Victims of Violence: SafeHomes is Domestic Violence Center that provides shelter and support for victims of domestic Violence. In this interview we discuss their goals, their mission the types of abuse and ways the community can help through volunteering and contributions. We also discussed the upcoming Sip, Savor and Shop event that will benefit SafeHomes of Augusta. They believe that every person has the right to live without fear and that no one deserves to be abused. Through advocacy, Safe Homes respects the intrinsic value of each client, regardless of where they are in their journey. Through education, we help end the cycle of violence, one family at a time. And through awareness, they empower the community to take a stand against domestic violence and support victims as they transform their lives into survivors.

- Teens Add and the Law: Teens-Addition and the Law- Guest-Judge Davis Watkins- Most of the teens in juvenile detention were under the influence of drugs or alcohol at the time of their arrest. In addition to the myriad of possible health problems, young people risk a life of crime and legal trouble when they abuse dangerous substances. State Court Judge David Watkins share fact on the issue vs fiction.
- The 2018 Clean Energy Roadshow: The 2018 Clean Energy Roadshow is a statewide educational tour featuring Education and Demonstration seminars for alternative fuel and renewable energy projects. Guests are Joy Kramer, Director of the Clean Energy Roadshow, Don Francis, Executive Director of Clean Cities Georgia and Eric Tanenblatt, Chair of Dentons' US Public Policy practice talk about the show and the latest developments with respect to alternative fuel and renewable energy.
- The Tommy Nobis Center: The Tommy Nobis Center helps individuals with all types of disabilities to enter or return to employment, and to enjoy productive and independent lifestyles while contributing to the greater business community. Since 1977, they have helped more than 25,000 individuals find dignity and workplace success. Dave Ward, President and CEO of The Nobis Center, discusses their service.
- Westobou Festival-Fundraising: Kristi discusses the upcoming Westobou Festival coming in October, their fundraising and volunteer needs and the Westobou Art Gallery on Broad Str. Also share community partnerships with Augusta University, Fort Gordon and the Porter Flemming Foundation.
