Discovery Networks, U.S. policy statement on TV Parental Guidelines

Discovery Communications, LLC supports the goals of the inter-industry task force to provide parents with advance, cautionary program information that's simple to use, and has always been committed to offering quality non-fiction programming that educates, enlightens and informs our viewers. To that end, each of our cable networks may — at times — air documentaries that depict the consequences of violence through the use of graphic images, which underscore the seriousness of the acts committed. While we believe that such content is neither gratuitous nor without social context, Discovery Communications, LLC historically has pro-actively included advisories in programs that contain violence, nudity, objectionable language and other adult themes.

Discovery Networks, U.S., including Discovery Channel, TLC, and Animal Planet will participate in the voluntary ratings program and expects to continue to rate programs that we determine are not subject to the news/news magazine exemption.

The Hub, which is distributed by Discovery Communications, LLC, is equally committed to voluntarily rating its programming.

Oprah Winfrey Network, which is distributed by Discovery Communications, LLC, is equally committed to voluntarily rating its programming.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING CERTIFICATION
2nd QUARTER (APRIL 1, 2013 through JUNE 30, 2013)

This is to certify that the list set forth below identifies all programs and series aired by Outdoor Channel during the above-referenced calendar quarter that were originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years old and under. As standard practice, we formatted and aired each of the children's programs and series identified below so that the total commercial time (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) did not exceed 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends, and 12 minutes per hour on weekdays, in compliance with the Children's Television Act of 1990 and the rules and regulations of the Federal Communication Commission (the "FCC"), (the "Regulations").

None of the following programs or series included any commercial spots (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) that contained references to, characters or actors from, or that offered products related to, the underlying program or series. Any instances in which the children's programming commercial limits were exceeded during the referenced calendar quarter are explained in detail below. I further certify that I am the official responsible for oversight of compliance with FCC children's programming commercial limits, and I am familiar with the Regulations.

Re: Certificates of Compliance for the Children's Television Act of 1990

Dear Affiliate:

As of January 1, 1992, the Federal Communications Commission's rules ("FCC Rules") implementing the Children's Television Act of 1990 ("Act") require cable operators to maintain certain records regarding their compliance with advertising limits imposed on children's television programming. Accordingly, Turner Network Sales, Inc. provides the attached Turner Entertainment Networks' certificates of compliance for 2nd Quarter 2013. Please note that the Act's advertising limits are inapplicable to CNN, Headline News, Turner Classic Movies, CNNI, and CNNE as these networks do not carry children's programming. If there are any changes in the programming policies of these networks, we will provide you with updated certifications reflecting such changes.

To comply with the FCC Rules, please place the attached certificates of compliance in your system's public file(s) no later than the tenth day of the current quarter following the quarter in which the programming aired.

Sincerely,

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE WITH COMMERCIAL LIMITS FOR CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING

I, Terri Tingle, in my capacity as Senior Vice President of Standards & Practices for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. ("Turner"), hereby certify to the best of my information, knowledge, and belief, that the following information is accurate for the period of April 1, 2013 to June 30, 2013:

- 1) I am familiar with the statutory limits of the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "Act") and the FCC regulations implementing those limits (no more than 12 minutes per hour of commercial matter may be telecast during children's programming* on weekdays, and no more than 10 ½ minutes per hour on weekends).
- 2) In April 2000, Turner launched Boomerang, a digital 24-hour network airing classic cartoons such as The Flintstones, Scooby-Doo, and The Jetsons.
- 3) Since the launch of Boomerang, Turner has treated all of the programs telecast on Boomerang as "children's programming" for the purposes of complying with the commercial limits set forth in the Act.
- 4) Turner has not aired any national paid advertisements on Boomerang to date.
- 5) On January 1, 2003, Turner began designating a "commercial" break of approximately 2 minutes per hour during which time Turner could insert limited cross-promotions for programming on other Turner networks such as Cartoon Network. At the same time, Turner inserted automated cue tones that would signal and allow cable operators to insert local advertisements over any Turner cross-promotional spots without overlapping with Boomerang's television programs or exceeding the permissible commercial time limits under the KidVid rules and regulations. From the launch of Boomerang through June 30, 2006, Boomerang therefore contained approximately 2 minutes per hour of commercial matter, which is well below the commercial limits set forth in the Act.
- 6) On July 1, 2006, Turner added an additional 1 to 2 minutes per hour of cross-promotional spots for Cartoon Network during the designated "commercial" breaks on Boomerang. Therefore, Boomerang contained approximately 4 minutes per hour of commercial matter, which is well below the commercial limits set forth in the Act.
- 7) To the best of my information, knowledge and belief, there were no instances in which the commercial limits were exceeded during the period noted above.
