

KTXA QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
October 1 – December 31, 2021

October 1 – December 31, 2021

Attached are the listings of broadcasts that in the Licensee's judgment reflect the most significant programming treatment of ascertained issues during the preceding three months. The Licensee broadcasts a regularly scheduled local public affairs show, To the Point at 4:30pm on Saturdays. The station also runs a number of public service announcements throughout each quarter of the year.

Airings of "To the Point" by category

COMMUNITY/GOVERNMENT/PUBLIC SERVICES & SAFETY

Airdate: 10/2/21

Topic: Abortion debate

Host: Madison Sawyer

Issue: We take an in depth look at the new chapter in the abortion debate here in Texas. Doug Dunbar talked to the author of Senate Bill 8- now known as the Heartbeat Law.

Airdate: 10/16/21

Topic: I-Team investigations

Host: Madison Sawyer

Issue: We do the deep dives on issues important to our community. These include the following

- School staff shortages
- Bitcoin mining

Airdate: 10/30/21

Topic: History of Fort Worth

Host: Madison Sawyer

Issue: We take a look at a rough and tumble part of Fort Worth's past. Before Billy Bob's and the Water Gardens, there was Hell's Half Acre. It was a stretch of land with an anything goes spirit. Ken Molestina worked on a series of stories about this, starting with a look back at what things used to be like more than a century ago.

Airdate: 11/20/21

Topic: November In-depth reporting

Host: Karen Borta

Issue: Following a nearly two-year long I-Team investigation, Texas legislators have passed a new law. Before you buy a new home, you will now be warned of what so many buyers called a hidden cost. The I-Team's Ginger Allen explains what you need to watch for.

Some customers of Carvana say they were sold cars they legally cannot drive. Investigative Reporter, Brian New uncovered hundreds of complaints and a pattern of violations in multiple states. A North Texas mom was already living a nightmare. Her son disappeared.

The case had gone cold. But then she found clues to another crime- hidden inside her home. The discovery would reveal heartbreaking details about the teenager and send a family friend to prison. I-Team Reporter, Ginger Allen covers the story.

Airdate: 12/4/21

Topic: A look back at some of the inspiring stories of 2021

Host: Madison Sawyer

Issue: And the man we are about to introduce you to is living history in Dallas. He who worked to ensure Hispanics were included in the city's conversation. Steve Pickett introduces us to Trini Garza.

A young North Texas girl is on a worldwide mission to help other children. We caught up with Paisley Elliott before she left on her latest journey this year. Robbie Owens has her story.

A North Texas radio sports announcer is closing in on a milestone. Keith Russell takes us inside the press box to introduce us to Gentry Little.

Airdate: 12/11/21

Topic: Discover DFW

Host: Madison Sawyer

Issue: Thousands of people have moved to North Texas. And whether you're new to the area or have been here a long time, we've been helping people discover DFW.

MEDICAL/COVID-19

Airdate: 10/9/21

Topic: Breast Cancer Awareness Month

Host: Robbie Owens

Issue: This year alone, an estimated 281,000 new cases of invasive breast cancer are expected to be diagnosed in women. Here in the United States, more than 43,000 women in our country are expected to die from the disease during 2021. Breast cancer death rates among women are higher than those for any other cancer, besides lung cancer.

Airdate: 10/23/21

Topic: COVID-19 vaccine

Host: N/A

Issue: A lot of significant developments in the last week with the COVID-19 vaccine! Wednesday afternoon, the FDA approved booster shots of the Moderna and Johnson and Johnson vaccines. Also, if you're an adult, you can choose to mix or match your booster. That's in addition to plans that the White House has to make vaccines available to children ages 5 to 11 if the FDA and CDC give the green light. Andrea Lucia reports that the big question may be if parents are ready for it.