Quarterly Issues/Programs List
Programming to Address Community Issues

Below is a list of programs that have provided the station's most significant treatment of community issues during the preceding three-month period.

ISSUE ADDRESSED	PROGRAM/TITLE/ ORGANIZATION	DESCRIPTION (Guest if applicable)	DATE/TIME	DURATION
Financial Planning	Focus on the Family	Deborah Pegues works to empower women to take control of their finances. She busts a few myths and encourages you to develop personal financial goals, eliminate debt and embrace a successful future where you better understand your finances and make strong choices for the future.	10/09/23 at 05:00am	00:28:00
Grief	Community Matters	Don Follis, author and counselor from Pastor-to-Pastor Initiatives shares about his journey through grief and helps us better understand how grieving is an essential part of discipleship. He discusses the value of empathy towards others, and what that entails, when conversing with those who are suffering loss.	10/22/23 at 05:45am	00:15:00
Mental Health	Focus on the Family	Dr. Matthew Stanford explains that treatment for mental health issues requires a holistic approach – addressing physical, spiritual, emotional, and relational needs and offers help to those suffering from mental illness. He offers a compassionate discussion with host Jim Daly that offers hope and healing to families dealing with a loved one with mental health issues.	10/23/23 at 05:00am	00:28:00
Personal Safety	Community Matters	Scott Clarkson, a safety and security expert, who also served in the Marines, shares practical ways we can think through our personal safety, from walking out into dark parking lots to climbing ladders to hang Christmas lights. He offers ideas to get us thinking more about how we can slow down, think through the process and better ensure our personal safety and the safety of others we care for.	11/19/23 & 11/26/23 at 05:45am	00:15:00
Parenting	Community Matters	Dr. Danny Huerta, Vice President of Parenting and Youth at Focus on the Family discusses various ways children are bullied in the 21 st century and what our response could be as parents and leaders to provide help and hope in these difficult matters.	10/29/23 at 05:45am	00:15:00
Religion & Spirituality	Focus on the Family	Heidi St. John, a mother of seven, explains why you as a mom need to place your confidence in God, and why it's best to press into His love, grace, and mercy as a parent. She shares practical tips and inspiring encouragement to fuel motherhood through spiritual discipline and be motivated to connect with God every day.	11/17/23 at 05:00am	00:28:00
