

WOAY-TV

Quarterly Report
of Local Issues

October, November, December
2009

WOAY-TV has identified issues as crucial to the community it serves.

ECONOMY
EDUCATION
TAXES
GOVERNMENT
HEALTH CARE
ABUSE/NEGLECT
ENVIRONMENT

WOAY-TV has a commitment to the community and to addressing these and other problems and issues through Public Service Broadcasting. In accordance with FCC regulations, a list of issues and programming that address these issues have been compiled and this list covers issues on a quarterly basis.

WOAY-TV airs the following programs that fulfill FCC requirements. The enclosed list provides information about programming for the months of July, August and September.

Forum A locally produced talk show.

This Public Affairs program addresses various topics of community concern, both current issues and local issues and events.

BROADCAST Sunday Mornings at 10am

People's Court A daily one-hour syndicated show

BROADCAST Weekdays 4:00pm - 5pm

FORUM

Fourth Quarter 2009

Broadcast Sunday Mornings 10:00am -10:30am

October 4, 2009

Guest: Buddy Griffin, Director of bluegrass music at Glenville State College

Topic: He discussed the bluegrass degrees at Glenville and also the Bluegrass event put on by the students scheduled for Oct 20 at the college.

October 11., 2009

Guest: Dreama Robertson and Donald Reed of the Bluefield Tobacco Quitline

Topic: This is a service with the goal of getting West Virginians off tobacco. They provide patches to help those kick the habit. The cost is very little and possibly free if you don't have health insurance to help pay the costs.

October 18, 2009

Guest: Margaret O'Neal from the United Way of Southern West Virginia

Topic: She talked about this years campaign as well as the food drive. Also discussed was the golf outing and "Denim for A Difference" events.

October 25, 2009

Guest: Deborah Mill from the Raleigh Co. Commission On Aging

Topic: She talked about the "lighthouse program" which is a service to help elderly citizens with their personal habits. It helps them stay in their homes and stay independent with their personal life.

November 1 , 2009

Guest: Sherry McGraw from the Red Cross

Topic: She discussed the swine flu. She also discussed the incentives for people to give blood and also the organizations role during hurricane season.

November 8, 2009

Guest: Margaret O'Neal from the United Way of Southern West Virginia

Topic: She talked the upcoming "Wonderland of Trees" at Crossroads Mall which will be on display for two weeks. After concluding the display the trees will be auctioned off to the public and the proceed will go to the United Way.

November 15, 2009

Guest: Susan Petrontozzi from the Quota Club of Beckley.

Topic: She talked about in general what the club does and what fundraisers they support. Specifically she discussed the Christmas parties for children in December the club was planning.

November 22, 2009

Guest: David Bernier of Glenville State College

Topic: He discussed their "high adventure" program. This includes rafting trips, rock climbing, horseback riding, trail rides canoe trips, mountain biking, cave exploring and ski trips.

November 29, 2009

Guest: Lee Leftwich from the "Muster Project"

Topic: This is a program in Beckley to motivate young people They are adding a program called "Teen Count" to their lineup of helpful programs for troubled teenagers.

December 6, 2009

Guest: Daniel Spurgeon of the United Methodist Church in Beckley.

Topic: He talked about their children's choir Christmas program and the Christmas Cantata scheduled for Dec 19 & 20.

December 13, 2009

Guest: Margaret O'Neal from the United Way of Southern West Virginia

Topic: She thanked those who participated in the Christmas tree auction. Also discussed were more events scheduled during December

December 20, 2009

Guest: Jim Straw from Highland Hospital

Topic: He talked about the books they are selling for charity and mentioned individual charities that they have helped through the sell of the books

December 27, 2009

Guest: David Bernier of Glenville State College

Topic: He discussed their "high adventure" program. This includes rafting trips, rock climbing, horseback riding, trail rides canoe trips, mountain biking, cave exploring and ski trips.