

WOAY-TV

Quarterly Report of Local Issues

October-November-December 2014

WOAY-TV has identified these issues as critical to the communities it serves.

DRUG ABUSE GROWING
WV SENATE ELECTION OF 2014
WV 3RD HOUSE ELECTION FOR 2014
SCHOOLS FALLING DOWN (PHYSICALLY)
THE BECHTEL SUMMIT TAX EXEMPTION
EDUCATING OUR CHILDREN
THE VA CENTERS AND THEIR VETERANS
BULLYING IN SCHOOLS
COAL VERSUS THE EPA!
NEIGHBORHOODS AND THEIR SAFETY

WOAY-TV has a commitment to the community and to addressing these and other problems and issues through Public Services and News Broadcasting. In accordance with FCC regulations, a list of issues and programming that address these issues have been compiled and this list covers issues on a quarterly basis.

WOAY-TV airs the following programs that fulfill FCC requirements. The enclosed list provides information about programming for the months of July, August and September, 2014.

Forum-A locally produced talk show. This Public Affairs program addresses various topics of community concerns, both current and local issues and events. It is broadcast on Sundays and repeated with possible.

In addition, we air (3) hours live, local newscasts per day Monday thru Friday, and one (1) hour each on Saturday and Sunday.

Forum

4th Quarter 2014

October 5th -Guest- Frank Cilona, president and ceo of the Better Business Bureau and Canton Region of Greater West Virginia. He talked about how their members are accredited and what standards they have to maintain to keep the accreditation. He talked about their weekly radio show and newsletter warning members of impending business problems.

October 12th -Guest-Dee Sizemore of the Women's Resource Center for battered women. She talked about their "her black eye is your black eye" campaign. She also talked about October being "Domestic Violence month". She talked about all of the events they have scheduled this month 2 movie screenings, candlelight vigils, school seminars, events at football games etc.

October 19th-Guest- WV Attorney General Patrick Morrissey. He talked about same sex marriage, scams that target senior citizens, fighting the epa on their coal policies. Settlement with the AT&T about extra charges and talking to FCC about technology to block unwanted spam calls.

October 26th-Guest- Debbie Voloski, Public Affairs for the VA hospital and Janie Flanagan Caregiver Coordinator for the VA. They gave statistics on how many vets that they serve each year. She ran down a list of all of the services they offer hospice, emergency room, nursing home, hospital bed care, surgery, and pharmacy. Janie explained their new caregiver services for veterans.

November 2nd-Guest- Mike Cochran Wyoming co Prosecutor. He talked about recent court proceedings in Wyoming co courts. He also said that 90% of their crimes are drug related. He talked about how his office handles Domestic Violence cases.

November 9th-Guest- Kelly Elkins, Promotions Director for Tamarack Best of WV Crafts. She mainly talked about the Christmas events coming up at Tamarack. She talked about the special bands in the coming weeks for their "Tamarack at Z" stage show. She also talked about their new exec director.

November 16th -Guest- Lee Leftwich of the "Muster Project" in Beckley. This is an organization for troubled youth in Raleigh County. He just came back from a z day conference on Race Relations in West Virginia, after the election his contract on Race Relation has changed so he is starting over on some fronts.

November 23rd-Guest- Kerry Bryant Exec Director and Doris Selko Coordinator for the Southern Regional West Virginia Affordable Healthcare Plan. They talked about the new sign-up period now in progress, who qualifies and who benefits.

November 30th-Guest- Dr Lynn Lintala President of the Autism Health of Beckley. She talked about her autism center and what services she offers. She has a team of professionals that help from our state and people from 12 other states around us:

December 7th-Guest- Daniel Spurgeon Musical Director for the United Methodist Temple in Beckley. He comes over annually to talk about their Christmas events. First December 7th the community chorus will do "The Messiah" also on the 7th they will have a children's musical called "Fact or Fiction" then on December 21st they will have the Big Christmas Dinner Theater Event.

December 14th-Guest- Darci McKinnon of the Beckley Art Center. She talked about the classes they offer in art, sewing, metal work, jewelry, music etc.

December 21st-Guest- Two forums this Sunday 11:30am and 2:30pm first 11:30am guest Dee Sizemore of the Women's Resource Center for Battered Women. She promoted their New Year's Fundraiser a masquerade ball with dinner, dancing etc.

2:30pm guest Evan Jenkins the newly elected 3rd Congressional District Rep for WV. He talked about the things he had planned when he goes to Washington on January 2015.

December 28th- Two forums for the Sunday also 11:30am and 2:30pm first Lauren McKinney of Princeton Renaissance talked about their big New Year's Eve celebration downtown, it starts at 8:30pm New Year's Eve ending with the year is a teen dance party.

2:30pm forum guest Shelly Moore Capito newly elected Republican Senator from West Virginia she talked about winning Jay Rockefeller's senate seat and what she plans to do when she takes office in January 2015. She gave a rundown of the committees that she has been assigned to be involved in.

WOAY-TV Children's Certifications

1. WOAY-TV has complied with commercial limits in children's programming.
2. WOAY-TV identifies each core programming at the beginning of each broadcast.
3. WOAY-TV provides information concerning each core program, including a notation of its educational/informational status and an indication of the target audience, to publishers of program guides.
4. WOAY-TV publicized the existence and location of the children's TV programming reports.