

WOAY-TV

Quarterly Report
Of Local Issues

October, November, December 2010

WOAY-TV has identified issues as crucial to the communities it serves.

TROUBLED YOUTH
ABUSE/NEGLECT
HEALTH CARE
ENVIRONMENT

WOAY-TV has a commitment to the community and to addressing these and other problems and issues through Public Service Broadcasting. In accordance with FCC regulations, a list of issues and programming that addresses these issues have been compiled on a quarterly basis.

WOAY-TV airs the following programs that deal with some of these issues. The enclosed list provides information about programming for the months of October, November and December.

FORUM- A locally produced talk/interview show.
This Public Affairs program addresses various topics of community concern. The show airs Sundays at 10AM.

PEOPLES COURT- A daily one-hour syndicated program.
The show airs M-F 4-5PM

FORUM

Fourth Quarter 2010

Broadcast Sunday Mornings 10:00am – 10:30am

October 3, 2010

Guest: Amanda Rauma and Deanna Odell who are “Victim’s Advocates” at the Women’s Resource Center.

Topic: They talked about October is “Domestic Victims Awareness Month”. They elaborated on statistics and their events during the month.

October 10, 2010

Guest: Roseanne Berry, Executive Director Fayette, Nicholas County Red Cross and Scott Hill- Donor, Recruiter Red Cross-Raleigh County.

Topic: She talked about the Red Cross Festival coming up on the first week-end of November. Scott talked about the car giveaway they had during the summer months.

October 17, 2010

Guest: Deborah Mills of the Raleigh County Comm. On Aging.

Topic: She talked about the Lighthouse Program-which is a service to help the elderly with their personal habits. It helps people stay in their homes and stay independent with their personal life.

October 24, 2010

Guest: Sherry Hunter of the Raleigh County Solid Waste Authority.

Topic: She also talked about Sherry’s sweep and butt busters which are their primary clean up campaign.

October 31, 2010

Guest: Nancy Szilvasi-Home Evaluator and Alisha Knight- Treatment coordinator for the Burlington United Methodist Foster Care Center. This is a foster care facility for troubled youth. They talked about how they recruited foster parents for the kids.

November 7, 2010

Guest: Dr. Janet Lintala talked about the subject of autism.

Topic: She talked about the behavior signs to look for autism. She also talked about the short term and long term goals they use to help autism patients. She also talked about the Autism Diet they recommended.

November 14, 2010

Guest: Daniel Spurgeon of the United Methodist Temple in Beckley.

Topic: He talked about their children’s play on December 5th and their adult Christmas Play on December 19th.

November 21, 2010

Guest: Leonard Henning of the Summersville Salvation Army.

Topic: He talked about their Christmas kettle drive. He also talked about their thrift store. He praised the Nicholas County, Summersville area for their giving spirit of helping people in the area.

November 28, 2010

Guest: Lauren Weatherford-Families & Health WVU extension agent.

Topic: She talked about their diet & diabetes four (4) week classes they offer. They also do A1C testing in the classes.

December 5, 2010

Guest: Daniel Spurgeon of the United Methodist Temple in Beckley.

Topic: He talked about their children's play later today. He also talked about their large production Christmas play they will put on December 19th.

December 12, 2010

Guest: Sherry Lucero-MSW social worker for the Living Well Eldercare Program.

Topic: They cover a two county area (Raleigh and Fayette) and they provide clinical services to the elderly.

December 19, 2010

Guest: Scott Hill from the Red Cross.

Topic: He talked about the blood drive in the WOAY TV parking lot on January 20th. He stressed the importance of giving blood during the winter months.