Forum

Forum is a locally produced public affairs show, which addresses various topics and issues of community importance. Forum airs on Sunday mornings at 11:30am. The following list provides the weekly topic(s) and a brief summary of community information provided by the guest.

10/3/21 – Today’s guest was Garrett Ballengee and Andrew Bambrick. Ballengee serves as the Executive Director and Bambrick is the Education Outreach Coordinator for The Cardinal Institute. The Cardinal Institute is a non-profit think-tank on economic policy. The Institute is based in Charleston that is dedicated to researching, developing, and communicating free-market economic public policies that promote liberty, prosperity, and personal responsibility in West Virginia. Ballengee and Bambrick discussed the importance of the Cardinal Institute and a scholarship that is offered by the Institute.

10/10/21 – Today’s guests were Kelly Elkins and Amanda Hammond. Ms. Elkins works in public relations for Appalachian Regional Hospital and Ms. Hammond is with the Raleigh County Prevention Coalition. Both ladies discussed the substance abuse program that is present in Raleigh County. Ms. Elkins discussed the importance and practical advice for youth to make good decisions when tackling issues related to substance abuse.

10/17/21 – Erin Stone joins us today, as she is the Assistance Executive Director for the Women’s Resource Center, which is located in Beckley. October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Ms. Stone discussed the Center’s mission which is to provide assistance and resources for area women who are experience domestic abuse. She provided information for upcoming events in which the Center will be participating, including three candlelight vigils. The Center provides services for women and children affected by domestic violence in Southern West Virginia.

10/24/21 – Mr. Chris Martin is the Manager of Infuse One, which is a local clinic located in Beckley that provides infusion therapies. Martin discussed the services offered by the clinic, and explained how they are different from hospitals. Mr. Martin also provided information regarding transportation service that are offered to the patients. He explained chronic care and how the clinic addresses chronic care management.

10/31/21 – Today, the Executive Director from the United Way of Southern West Virginia, Ms. Trena Dacal, joins our program. Ms. Dacal discussed the fall fundraising campaign for the United Way and why it is so important for helping local charities in their assistance of area residents. The United Way also has another important event coming up which is the Festival of Trees, which is another fundraising event where area businesses sponsor decorated trees, which are then auctioned off to the public. All proceeds go the United Way to help provide assistance to area residents. Ms. Dacal also provided important information regarding the 211 assistance phone numbers. The hotlines are open for anyone seeking assistance from the United Way and helps direct callers to the appropriate service provider.

11/7/21 – Mr. Jay Quesenberry joins us to discuss the importance of and upcoming campaign for the Toys for Tots program. The program is seeking donations of new, unwrapped toys or financial donations which can all be dropped off at Lewis Nissan Auto Dealership in Beckley, WV. Many children in the area live below the poverty line and without donations, may otherwise not receive a Christmas gift.

11/14/21 – Two guests join us this week on behalf of Hospice of Southern West Virginia. Hope Duncan is the Director of Public Relations and Hanna Pack is the Community Liason for Hospice. Hospice just celebrated their 40th anniversary this week. Duncan and Pack discussed the mission of hospice and how it serves the community. During the Christmas season, there is an annual “Angel Tree” promotion, which is held at Crossroads Mall. The promotion allows people to donate on behalf of a loved one, which proceeds benefitting Hospice so that they may continue to provide services to the community.

11/21/21 – Today’s guests are Major Ronald Mott and Captain Jerry Lester of the Beckley Salvation Army. The Salvation Army is currently active with their annual Christmas Bell-ringer Kettle Pot Fundraising campaign and are in need of more volunteers. Mott and Lester discussed their new project of building a new four-million dollar complex. Mott and Lester discussed in detail many of the services that having the new building will allow the Salvation Army to bring to Beckley and the surrounding area.

11/28/21 – Today’s guest was Ms. Sherry Brake, who is an expert at paranormal activity. Tales of Paranormal Activity around the Mountain State are quite common and provide a constant source in interest to locals and tourists alike. Ms. Brake has written nine books on the subject and has conducted tours of special locations for those exploring the subject. The abandoned insane asylum in Spencer and the Old WV Prison at Moundsville are very popular tour sites.

12/5/21 – Today’s guest, Dr. Janet Lintala, joins us to discuss her organization, Autism Health, and is an expert on the subject. Dr. Lintala provided viewers with the latest updates regarding Autism. Lintala is extremely involved as she raised a son who has Autism and has become a very successful businessman living what is considered a normal lifestyle. Lintala and her organization can provide information and assistance to anyone who believes Autism may be affecting them or a loved one.

12/12/21 – This week, Kelly Caseman joins the show, on behalf of the Think Kids Public Service Organization, which is based in Charleston. The organization offers assistance to children who are classified as living below the poverty level. Affected youth frequently include those experiencing drug problems, domestic violence, and those in the foster system. The Mission of the organization is “Fostering ingenuity, inspiring change, and cultivating generations of healthy, happy kids.” Caseman discussed some current projects, which include equitable access to health services and issues regarding Covid-19 and how they are helping area children.

12/19/21 – Today’s guest is Mr. John Wyatt. Mr. Wyatt is commonly known as “The Appalachian,” and also serves on his local City Council. Mr. Wyatt is an expert on Appalachian culture and today, he provided viewers with cultural information about Christmastime in Appalachia. He also sang some mountain heritage songs for the audience during this informative program.

12/26/21 – Today’s show was a continuation from Mr. John Wyatt, who had joined us the prior week. Today’s show was not as focused on Christmas culture, but more about growing up in Appalachian Mountain chain. Mr. Wyatt also discussed the future of the town of Rainelle, which is where he serves as a local Councilman.

ABC NEWS PROGRAMS – Fourth Quarter, 2021

Friday, October 1, 2021

Fake Heiress

“20/20” reports on Anna Sorokin, known as the “Soho Grifter,” whose story fascinated the world as her cons deceiving New York’s elite unraveled. When Sorokin moved to New York City from Paris in 2013, she decided to be someone else entirely – Anna Delvey. The highest social circles accepted her, believing she was a German heiress worth millions until the facade came crashing down. “20/20” dives into Sorokin’s schemes, including how she pulled them off, her arrest and ultimate conviction of grand larceny and other charges. “20/20” contains ABC News senior national affairs correspondent Deborah Roberts’ interview with Sorokin following her release from prison.

Friday, October 8, 2021 – Season Premiere

Chippendales Murder

“20/20” dives deep into the dark history of greed, paranoia and murder behind the rise of male exotic dance troupe Chippendales, which became an international cultural phenomenon in the 80s and 90s. Steve Banerjee found the success and fortune he always craved when he created Chippendales — but his ambition was insatiable. “20/20” documents the stories of how Banerjee conspired to eliminate those who he believed got in his way, reporting on his own demise.

Two Murders

Following the murder of fourth-grade teacher Mickey Bryan 36 years ago – on Oct. 15, 1985 – fear and shock washed over Clifton, Texas, and local authorities soon arrested her husband, Joe Bryan. Four months earlier another crime rocked the small town: the murder of 17-year-old Judy Whitley, later linked to former Clifton police officer Dennis Dunlap. After Bryan spent more than three decades in prison for Mickey’s murder, key expert testimony about forensic evidence used against him proved faulty. Those close to the case wondered – could the two homicides be linked and could Dunlap be Mickey’s killer, too? In a new two-hour program, “20/20” co-anchor Amy Robach, who’s been following this case for years, sits down with Bryan for his first broadcast TV interview.

Friday, October 22, 2021

Jekyll and Hyde

Robert Bierenbaum seemed to have it all, but just like “Jekyll and Hyde,” he had a much darker side lurking underneath. He was violent and controlling abuser, and his wife, Gail Katz-Bierenbaum, confided in friends she was afraid of him. Although authorities suspected him in Katz-Bierenbaum’s 1985 disappearance from their Upper East Side apartment, insufficient physical evidence allowed him to evade charges for fourteen years until prosecutors discovered a doctored flight log from the day Katz-Bierenbaum vanished, and his lies finally caught up with him. A new two-hour “20/20,” with reporting by ABC News anchor John Quiñones.

Friday, October 29, 2021

Gabby Petito Case

Gabby Petito and Brian Laundrie captured national attention when the two left for a cross-country adventure, but only Laundrie returned. The couple let others into their seemingly happy world via social media, but behind the cameras, a much darker story played out. Laundrie returned to his family's Florida residence, without his fiancé, and Petito's family demanded answers about her whereabouts. When Laundrie vanished, the attention intensified as internet sleuths who helped crack the case wide open investigated and theorized. A two-hour "20/20" reports on the horror that unfolded in the beauty of Wyoming's Grand Teton National Park and the details leading to the discovery of Laundrie's remains last week, and poses lingering questions about what's next.

False Confession

How did a bizarre confession derail the investigation into the first murder committed by Keith Hunter Jespersen, the notorious "Happy Face Killer," and allow him to remain on the loose, killing at least seven more women? A new two-hour "20/20" reports on how after authorities discovered the body of Taunja Bennett in the Columbia Gorge in 1990, 57-year-old Laverne Pavlinac confessed to the police that she took part in the crime. She provided convincing evidence that implicated her and her boyfriend, 39-year-old John Sosnovske, in the murder, and they were convicted and sentenced to life in prison. In a shocking twist, Pavlinac's confession turned out to be false in an attempt to escape what she described as an abusive relationship with Sosnovske. Juju Chang reports.

Wrongful Conviction

When a scream woke Julie Rea in the middle of the night, she realized her 10-year-old son Joel was missing from his bed. She encountered an intruder and struggled with him as he ran out of the house. When authorities arrived, she faced the unthinkable – Joel was dead and authorities began to focus on her, poking holes in her story about the home invasion. Rea ended up behind bars, convicted of Joel's murder. When crime author Diane Fanning watched a 2002 "20/20" report on Rea, she soon uncovered information that cracked the case wide open and linked notorious serial killer Tommy Lynn Sells to Joel's murder. A two-hour "20/20" reports on the case, the events of the tragic night, Rea's wrongful conviction, and Sells' startling confession about the crime.
