Area of Concern: Family/Parenting/Relationships/Faith

Length/Frequency/Total Time: 30 minutes/ Daily Monday-Friday/ 2 Hours and 30 Minutes Total Time Per Week.

Description: Bob Lepine hosts this program which deals with family/relationships issues from a Biblical perspective. The following are a list of topics:

- Series: Holy Sexuality and the Gospel. Monday, April 1—What is Holy Sexuality? FAMILYLIFE TODAY, author, speaker and graduate of Bethel Seminary, Christopher Yuan joins Dave and Ann Wilson and co-host, Bob Lepine, to talk briefly about his former life as drug dealer and homosexual. It's a thought-provoking discussion on the meaning of holy sexuality as prescribed in the Scriptures.
- Tuesday, April 2—When Your Identity is in Christ. We live in a culture that wants to define our identity by our sexuality. But what does God's Word say. Christopher Yuan, who left his homosexual lifestyle for a life in Christ, talks freely about his identity now as a Christ follower.
- Wednesday, April 3 —Finding Freedom. Author and speaker, Christopher Yuan, knows what it's like to be a captive. Christopher talks with Dave and Ann Wilson and co-host, Bob Lepine, about his time in prison and how God got his attention and eventually, his heart. It's a redemptive story you don't want to miss.
- Series: Not the Boss of Us Thursday, April 4—Embracing the Truth. Does life feel overwhelming? Author and mother of five, Kay Wills Wyma, encourage listeners to find perspective and freedom by being overwhelmed with the truth instead.
- Friday, April 5— Erring on the Side of wife and mom Kay Wills Wyma talks about the stress our kids often feel to achieve. Learn how achievement doesn't have to be the boss of kids when they know who they are and whose they are in Christ.
- Series: "Mom, Dad, What's Sex?" Monday, April 8—Being Intentional With Your Kids. What do you think is required of moms and dads in today's culture? Siblings Jessica Thompson and Joel Fitzpatrick talk about their experience growing up and the importance of intentional parenting today with their own families
- Tuesday, April 9—Healing From Sexual Abuse. Some parents find it uncomfortable to talk about "sex" with their children, but Jessica Thompson and Joel Fitzpatrick explain why it's imperative that parents have this discussion with their kids...and soon. Joel talks honestly about the abuse he suffered, starting at age 6.
- Wednesday, April 10 — The Whole Truth About Sex What message are we giving our kids about sex? Siblings Jessica Thompson and Joel Fitzpatrick felt like they got the message loud and clear: "sex before marriage is bad." Jessica and Joel share about how they built a better view of sexuality for their children.

- Thursday, April 11 —Identity In Blended Families. On Ron Deal, Director of Family Life Blended, and Dave Bondeson, founder of The Parent Summit, discuss how Dave's identity as a youth was wrapped up in his last name. Today, he's learning how to translate that into a blended family with a step-daughter who doesn't share the same name.
- Friday, April 12 — Pilgrim's Progress, award-winning producer Robert Fernandez and Revelation Media founder Steve Cleary talk about their new animated feature film, "Pilgrim's Progress," coming out next week in theatres nationwide.
- Series: Not Yet Married Monday, April 15 — Dating With Purpose As a single adult, do you know how to date with purpose? Author Marshall Segal reflects on his single years and the lessons he learned while pursuing love and marriage. Admittedly, he made many mistakes before he learned to do it right. He provides wisdom to parents whose teens are eager to date.
- Tuesday, April 16 — Hopeful or Hopeless? According to Marshall Segal, a writer and managing editor for DesiringGod.org, most singles want to get married. But how do they prepare for that day, especially when they're not dating? Listen Marshall encourages young women to wait on the Lord while keeping their eyes open for men who love godliness.
- Wednesday, April 17 — Dating Done Right Author Marshall Segal join Dave and Ann Wilson, and co-host Bob Lepine, to share ways singles can approach dating purposefully.
- Thursday, April 18 — His Porn, My Pride, Our Problem How can a husband's porn addition and a wife's pride contribute to a failed marriage, yet save that same marriage from divorce? Author Meg Miller shares her story with speaker and world gymnast, Kim Anthony, and tells of the common marriage errors wives make.
- Friday, April 19 — Bible Bee 2019 Hannah Leary, former winner and co-host of the National Bible Bee Competition joins 12-year-old Seth Ross, winner of the Chairman's Oratory Award on FAMILYLIFE TODAY to talk about the excitement and challenge of the competition. Hear for yourself the personal benefit of Bible memorization.
- Monday, April 22 — A Rocky Start Ron and Jody Zappia thought their marriage would be easy, after all they dated on and off in high school and college, but that wasn't the case. Hear the Zappias, authors of "The Marriage Knot," talk about the jealousy, resentment, and a marital affair nearly ended their relationship, until God intervened.

- Tuesday, April 23 — A Re-fresh Ron and Jody Zappia might have looked like a couple that had it all together, but in fact their marriage was falling apart. Ron and Jody talk about the infidelity, how Jody found comfort at a local church, and the day they both surrendered their lives and marriage to the Lord.
- Wednesday, April 24 — Seven Wise Choices Pastor Ron Zappia and his wife, Jody, share how surrendering their marriage and their lives to Christ provided a second chance for their marriage. Hear what they're doing today and the seven principles that, if faithfully practiced, will tighten any marriage knot and bring couples closer together.
- Series: Love, Sex, and Dating Thursday, April 25 — Old Rules, New Rules Most people would agree today's culture is still living by the "old rules" about love, sex, and dating. And those same people would also agree, it's not working. So what does work? Dave Wilson answer that question and provide you with new rules.
- Friday, April 26 — Unpacking the Baggage On our wedding day we believe the vows we make will be enough for our marriage to flourish. Andy Stanley says, "promises are not a substitute for preparation." Dave and Ann Wilson talk with Andy Stanley about their own baggage and what couples need to prepare for prior to marriage.
- Monday, April 29 — Indebted to Love Could arguing about money be negatively affecting your marital intimacy? Cherie and Brian Lowe, authors of "Your Money, Your Marriage," share about what significant debt did to theirs and how paying that off improved their love life.
- Series: The Five Marks of a Man Wednesday, May 1—Men are Protectors Adolescent boys often do crazy things to prove that they are men. But are these the types of qualities that really distinguish men as men? Pastor Brian Tome talks with Dave and Ann Wilson about the five marks of a man with a warning about the men who stay boys.
- Thursday, May 2 — Men Have Vision What is a man? Join hosts, Dave and Ann Wilson, when Brian Tome, pastor of Crossroads Church, talks about the qualities that make men unique.
- Friday, May 3 — Being Your Man's Cheerleader. Pastor Brian Tome, the author of "Five Marks of a Man," talks to wives about the importance of encouraging their husbands while at the same time reminding men of their calling to lay down their lives for their wives.
- Series: Real Monday, May 6 — Taking off the Mask Want deeper, more meaningful relationships? Dave and Ann Wilson talk with author and Bible teacher Catherine Parks about what happens in relationship when we decide to get real about our sin through repentance and confession.

- Tuesday, May 7 — Getting Real in Marriage Catherine Parks, author of "Real," explains that trust has to be established before a person can truly open up to another, and this especially applies to marriage.
- Series: I Can't Believe You Just Said That Wednesday, May 8 — What's With All the Whining? Do your children whine? Author Ginger Hubbard joins hosts, Dave and Ann Wilson, to share a few "how to's" to nip that in the bud.

- Tuesday, June 11 — Facing the Triggers Amber Lia and Wendy Speake talk honestly about triggers that used to set them on edge. Together Lia and Speake share with Dave and Ann Wilson that triggers--whether messiness or a child's immaturity--are really opportunities.
- Wednesday, June 12 — Staying Calm in the Storm Moms Amber Lia and Wendy Speake realized their anger was triggered by what their kids were doing, or sometimes even just by life. Amber and Wendy talk with Dave and Ann Wilson about the triggers of fatigue, frustration, and sibling rivalry.

- Thursday, June 13 — Eternity Is Now in Session When we all get to heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be. What about now? Pastor and theologian John Ortberg talks with Ron Deal, providing a fresh perspective on the nature of eternity and our own connection to an eternal Creator.
- Friday, June 14 — Real Men Leave the Boys Club The old boys club that is pervasive in our culture teaches men to treat women as a commodity. But Jesus, a radical for His time, treated women with respect and dignity. Dave Wilson encourages men to follow Christ's example.
- Series: What I Didn't Learn About Sex at Church Monday, June 17 — Cementing Your Covenant If God created marital intimacy, why exactly is the Church so silent on the subject? Counselor and therapist Juli Slattery explores the things the Church needs to address if we are reclaiming a Christian worldview on this important topic.
- Tuesday, June 18 — Test You and Teach God's Love Marital intimacy is just that, intimate, and that makes discussing the topic difficult. But Christians must push past our personal discomfort if we are to have any hope of conveying a Christ-honoring vision of it onto our children.
- Series: The Three Phases of Marriage Wednesday, June 19 — You Complete Me According to Pastor Bob Lepine, marriages often begin with the misguided idea that "She's here to complete me." This popular and misguided first step trips up many couples in the early years of marriage. Bob describes what he calls the "Three Phases of Marriage."
- Thursday, June 20 — My Job is to Make You Happy Even if couples make it past the selfish first stage and into stage two, "I'm here to serve my spouse," Bob Lepine says there's a third and even more profound stage of marital union.
- Friday, June 21 — Sin Is Like a Weed When sin is crouching at our door, how do we overcome it? Pastor Alex Kendrick shares the six stages of spiritual death that accompany unrepentance, as he talks straight to men about living out our roles as spiritual leaders.
- Series: Irresistible Faith Monday, June 24 — Abiding in Christ Jesus commands His followers to be great neighbors. Are we? Scott Sauls talks with Dave and Ann Wilson about what it would look like to live so compellingly in our cities that, if we were removed, people would miss us terribly.
- Tuesday, June 25 — Becoming Like Him Non-Christians often give Christians a bad rap. Do we deserve it? Pastor Scott Sauls talks to Dave and Ann Wilson about becoming the kind of Christians who are irresistible to the world.

- Wednesday, June 26 — Being Like Jesus Christians are called to be salt and light. Are we succeeding? Scott Sauls believes it's time for believers to do a better job helping our friends and neighbors see the real Jesus in us.
- Thursday, June 27 — Raising Future Evangelists Jen Wilkin says, as we raise our kids, the words we train them to use in our home can help them to share the gospel as kids and later as adults. She shares steps that parents can use to train their children in the way they should speak.
- Friday, June 28 — Grace in the Valley "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want." For Heath Adamson, Psalm 23 is more than a familiar verse. Heath's journey to those pastures of God's care included detours through parental abuse and neglect, drug addiction, and even homelessness. Kim Anthony explores the riches of God's Word through Psalm 23 with Heath Adamson.

2. Program: Focus on the Family

Area of Concern: Family/Parenting/Relationships/Faith

Length/Frequency/Total Time: 30 Minutes/ Daily Monday-Friday/ 2 Hours and 30 Minutes Total Time per Week.

Description: Dr. James Dobson addresses topics dealing with societal concerns about the family from Judeo-Christian values. The following are a list of topics:

- Monday, April 1: Craving God, Not Food It's easy to become fixated in your relationship with food...counting calories, overeating, or turning to certain meals for comfort. On the next "Focus on the Family," you'll be challenged to identify possible "food fixations" and get help with understanding the spiritual, mental and physical reasons for those obsessions.
- Tuesday, April 2: Dealing with Loss and Grief in an Adverse Pregnancy Next time on "Focus on the Family," we'll hear the courageous story of a pro-life couple who decided to go ahead with their pregnancy, even though their baby wouldn't survive outside the womb. A powerful reminder about the value of human life.
- Wednesday, April 3: Helping Your Daughter Understand Romantic Relationships - I Do you have a "crush-a-holic" growing up in your home? On the next "Focus on the Family," learn why many teen girls and young women obsess over romance, looking for their identity, security and purpose in a guy! Learn more about the importance of making God your number one relationship instead!

- Thursday, April 4: Helping Your Daughter Understand Romantic Relationships - If Guys may want a princess, and girls may be looking for “Prince Charming,” but fairytales won’t lead you to a good marriage! Next time on “Focus on the Family,” some practical, Bible-based advice about dating, and how to become the godly person your future spouse needs!
- Friday, April 5: Creating a Godly Vision for Your Marriage God has a purpose and a mission for your marriage! On the next “Focus on the Family,” one couple shares their story of a dysfunctional marriage, which led to a divorce just before their second anniversary. After eleven years with no contact, God brought them back together, and they remarried. They will help you discover God’s unique mission for your marriage.
- Monday, April 8: Training Sons to be Confident, Capable Men We all know “boys will be boys,” but how can we get them to grow up? On the next “Focus on the Family,” a practical look at how to help your sons become capable, confident and godly men, who take pride in themselves and everything they do! Discover the life-skills young men need most.
- Tuesday-Wednesday, April 9-10: Abortion Survivors Tell Their Stories – I & II On the next “Focus on the Family,” you’ll hear the compelling true stories of two women, who survived abortions as babies. Melissa Ohden and Claire Culwell will speak up for the preborn, as they share perspectives that many have never considered, regarding human life.
- Thursday, April 11: Connecting Spiritually with Your Spouse Connecting with your spouse is important, and when you can come together on a spiritual level, it takes your relationship to new heights. On the next “Focus on the Family,” Dr. Greg and Erin Smalley open up about their struggles and joys in finding that bond. They also outline some practical ways for connecting with your spouse, spiritually.
- Friday, April 12: Responding in Grace on Divisive Issues On the next “Focus on the Family,” Pastor Chip Ingram encourages you to share the love of Christ in a world that’s in conflict with the gospel. He addresses the problem of “relative truth,” as he discusses some of the cultural hot-button topics that need to be approached with grace in our conversation.
- Monday, April 15: Thriving in the Midst of Financial Ruin In the midst of financial hardship, you’re not alone. On the next “Focus on the Family,” Erin Odom shares her story of watching her financial world crumble over the span of a couple of years, when she and her husband lost their jobs and went underwater on a mortgage. She shares about God’s provision in a time of need, and how to deal with a shortage of income.
- Tuesday-Wednesday, April 16-17: Taking a Pro-Life Stand in the Black Community – I & II Abortion is the leading cause of death in the African-American community, more than all other causes combined. That tragedy is what compelled Pastor Walter Hoye to take a compassionate and loving stand for preborn babies and their mothers. On the next “Focus on the Family,” Walter shares his inspiring story of being jailed for his outreach on behalf of life.

- Thursday/Friday, April 18-19: Understanding the Importance of Easter in New Ways – I & II Some people don’t believe in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ—but maybe they’ve never examined the facts! On the next “Focus on the Family,” Lee Strobel set out on a 2-year mission to disprove Christianity, but discovered God’s love and forgiveness instead.
- Monday, April 22: Finding Freedom as a Grace-Based Mom - I As a mother, you may feel tremendous pressure to “get it all right.” But, because of Jesus, you can live in freedom, instead of shame! On the next “Focus on the Family,” Jeannie Cunnion talks about her struggles with perfectionism as a mom, and shares how admitting her mistakes has changed everything about her parenting.
- Tuesday, April 23: Finding Freedom as a Grace-Based Mom - II After her first marriage ended, she felt like she would never stop feeling guilt and shame about the divorce. On the next “Focus on the Family,” hear how Jeannie Cunnion went from operating out of a “shame based” mindset to being secure in her identity in Christ, as a wife and a mom.
- Wednesday, April 24: The Sheep-Like Qualities of a Disciple As you go through life, do you sometimes feel lost and uncertain? On the next “Focus on the Family,” comedian Ken Davis looks at how God sees us—vulnerable like sheep—and the help we can find in the person of Jesus Christ.
- Thursday, April 25: Living Free From Shame and Guilt - I What’s the one thing in your life you feel the most shame about? An unplanned pregnancy? A broken relationship? A problem with porn? On the next “Focus on the Family,” a woman who has experienced all three of those things talks about how Jesus freed her from her sin, guilt, and shame.
- Friday, April 26: Living Free From Shame and Guilt - II You can live an abundant life in Christ, no matter how messy your past is! On the next “Focus on the Family,” Jamie Ivey shares how she went from being stuck in patterns of sin and shame, to finding freedom and forgiveness.
- Monday, April 29: How Abortion Impacts Men According to Stephen Arterburn, “every abortion includes at least one man.” He’s the guest on the next “Focus on the Family.” After pressuring a college girlfriend to have an abortion, Steve felt shame and remorse, compounded by years of infertility.
- Tuesday, April 30: What You Can Learn from the Bible’s Couples - I The best way to fight temptation is together as a couple! Next time on “Focus on the Family,” learn what Adam and Eve can teach you about marriage! We’ll examine biblical couples and their mistakes — so you and your spouse can have a better relationship!

- Wednesday, May 1: What You Can Learn from the Bible's Couples - II Selfishness will kill your marriage, but God has a better plan for your relationship! On the next "Focus on the Family," Dr. David Clarke reviews couples in the Bible who got it right — and got it wrong! He offers practical advice on how to stay committed, no matter what.
- Thursday, May 2: Praying and Stepping Out in Faith Do you think of prayer as being something passive, or active? On the next "Focus on the Family," Pastor Mark Batterson explains how prayer should really be the FIRST thing you do before taking a step of faith.
- Friday, May 3: Embracing God's Gift of Life On the next "Focus on the Family," hear the story of a teen girl who had an unplanned pregnancy and decided to keep her child...a child who would one day become the director of a pregnancy clinic! Laura Hughes shares about the compassion, love and support she received from her family and the incredible forgiveness available to all men and women through Christ.
- Monday, May 6: Update on Alive from New York On the next "Focus on the Family," listen in for an update on the big event in Times Square this past weekend -- Alive from New York -- lifting up the value of preborn babies.
- Tuesday-Wednesday, May 7-8: Embracing the Unique Aspects of Male and Female - I & II Who are you, really? And what's your purpose? On the next "Focus on the Family," Dr. Larry Crabb explains how we are relational beings, who too often allow fears to keep us from being who God designed us to be. He helps men and women to embrace what he calls "authentic masculinity" and "authentic femininity" to become fully alive and fulfill God's purposes.
- Thursday-Friday, May 9-10: What You Need to Be a Happier Mom – I & II Mothers are overwhelmed by opportunities, expectations and comparisons— where doing their best never seems to be enough. On the next "Focus on the Family," Dr. Meg Meeker will help you move away from unrealistic demands to experience greater joy and fulfillment in your role as mom. She'll help you understand your value and to let go of fear, simplifying your life.
- Monday, May 13: Setting Healthy Boundaries with Your Kids - I On the next "Focus on the Family" ... do your kids think that stop means go, no means yes and later means now? Maybe they don't understand your rules! If you feel like you're being taken advantage of by your own children, tune in for tips on how to set boundaries. Drs. Henry Cloud and John Townsend will help you get started.
- Tuesday, May 14: Setting Healthy Boundaries with Your Kids - II Tired of playing control games with your kids? Want to stop the tug-of-war? On the next “Focus on the Family,” Drs. Henry Cloud and John Townsend share some clear cut advice to help you set parent/child roles and boundaries.

- Wednesday-Thursday, May 15-16: Harnessing Your Strength to Transform Your Marriage – I & II On the next “Focus on the Family,” author Kimberly Wagner and her husband LeRoy share how God transformed their broken marriage by revealing the source of conflict in their relationship—Kim’s fierceness. From a crisis of faith to a healing journey, the Wagner’s speak openly about their expectations, their faults, and their misgivings.
- Friday, May 17: Secretary Pompeo: Defending Religious Freedoms Maintaining your faith as a Christian in a secular society is not always an easy thing to do, but God often calls men and women to serve in “such a time as this.” On the next “Focus on the Family,” Secretary of State Mike Pompeo shares about his Christian faith and the importance of defending religious freedoms in the U.S. and around the world.
- Monday, May 20: Finding Your Path in Life - I Only 20-percent of Americans say they are in the perfect job for their personality. Are you one of the fortunate ones? On the next “Focus on the Family” Cynthia Tobias explains how to figure out your God-given strengths and abilities, and how to use them well.
- Tuesday, May 21: Finding Your Path in Life - II “To change the world, you have to change yourself first.” On the next “Focus on the Family” author Cynthia Tobias explains that it’s never too late to impact the world for Jesus Christ, no matter what your age!
- Wednesday, May 22: The Complicated, Beautiful Life of a Foster Mom Every child deserves a loving family, but for many children in foster care, that’s an elusive dream. On the next “Focus on the Family,” a foster mom describes her difficult, yet rewarding journey of adopting five troubled kids who simply needed love and attention.
- Thursday, May 23: Practical Advice for Those Getting Read to Wed - I Most people say a happy marriage is their number one priority! So how can you achieve the relationship of your dreams? Next time on “Focus on the Family,” we’ll examine key strategies for building a stronger and healthier marriage from the start — so it can last for a lifetime!
- Friday, May 24: Practical Advice for Those Getting Read to Wed - II Many young married couples struggle to find a balance between their marriage — and the relationship with their parents and friends! On the next “Focus on the Family,” you’ll learn what “leaving and cleaving” really means, and how to make your spouse your top priority!
- Monday, May 27: Honoring America’s Veterans On Memorial Day, we honor and remember our nation’s heroes. On the next “Focus on the Family,” with Jim Daly, heroes will share memories and personal stories from World War

Two, Korea and Iraq. Hear Oliver North's portrait of today's American soldier, and a powerful speech from former President Ronald Reagan.

- Tuesday, May 28: Fighting Fear with Faith Fear...worry...anxiety. With Christ's help, it's possible to overcome them all. On the next "Focus on the Family," Alli Worthington shares about common fears that women face—fear for your children, fear of the future, and fear of not being "enough." Tune in as Alli helps you apply faith to your worries.
- Wednesday, May 29: Finding Healing and Hope after an Abortion - I Next time on "Focus on the Family" we'll share the dramatic story of Pat Layton, a Christian woman who discovered she was suffering from a terrible secret — her abortion from several years ago.
- Thursday, May 30: Finding Healing and Hope after an Abortion - II Some people believe abortion is safe and rare. But they ignore the pain that many women carry for years after the decision to end the life of a pre-born. On the next "Focus on the Family," we'll share about one woman's journey to find God's forgiveness and grace — and how you can experience it, too.
- Friday, May 31: Helping Your Kids Navigate Life's Challenges On the next "Focus on the Family," Josh McDowell encourages you, as a dad, to have a lasting positive impact on your kids through authentic relationship. He'll offer ideas for unlocking your child's heart and explain the difference between being responsible FOR your kids and being responsible TO them.
- Monday, June 3: Embracing God's Purpose for Your Marriage God's purpose for your marriage isn't to make you happy, but to make you better. On the next "Focus on the Family," marriage counselor Debra Fileta [fil-AY-tuh] explains how marriage requires unconditional love and sacrifice. With humorous stories and a counselor's wisdom and heart, Debra casts a beautiful vision for a strong marriage that will inspire you toward holiness.
- Tuesday, June 4: Embracing God's Unique Design for Autism A diagnosis of autism may feel like the end of your dreams for your child. On the next "Focus on the Family," one mother describes raising twin boys who were never expected to succeed, but she never gave up on them. And her sons ended up teaching her more than she ever expected!
- Wednesday, June 5: How a Jar of Pennies Can Make You a Better Mom Nine hundred and thirty-six. That's how many weeks there are from birth to 18 years old. On the next "Focus on the Family," Eryn Lynum [LIE-num] shares about the importance of cherishing each day with your children, as she drops a penny in a jar every week, reminding her to make the most of her time with her kids.
- Thursday, June 6: Finding Hope Again - I Hopelessness. It's a black hole that's pretty easy to slide into...and then what? On the next "Focus on the Family,” Kay Warren will share how a variety of factors can cause you to fall into depression and despair – and how to OVERCOME!

- Friday, June 7: Finding Hope Again - II If you’ve ever been depressed, you know how hard it is to bounce back. On the next “Focus on the Family,” Kay Warren will share how to develop a resilient spirit, so you can overcome the worst that life throws at you!
- Monday, June 10: Reaching Across Racial Divides - I In today’s multicultural society, we can no longer live “monocultural” lives! Next time on “Focus on the Family,” Pastor David Ireland urges Christians to embrace people from different races and ethnic groups, and learn to love the whole world, as God does.
- Tuesday, June 10: Reaching Across Racial Divides - II Would you rather tolerate someone’s cultural and racial differences? Or learn to accept them? On the next “Focus on the Family,” Pastor David Ireland shares how Christians can learn to connect and communicate cross-culturally through friendship and forgiveness.
- Wednesday-Thursday, June 12-13: Grasping the Power of Forgiveness - I & II Forgiveness isn’t easy, but when you withhold it, the only one who suffers...is you. On the next “Focus on the Family,” Duck Dynasty’s Al and Lisa Robertson help you understand the power of forgiveness in marriage and other relationships. They share they’re journey from pain and heartache to hope and healing, and will help you to do the same.
- Friday, June 14: Honoring Dad’s Impact on My Life He taught you to ride a bicycle, or played catch with you in the yard. But, regardless of how close you were to your father, he was always the man you looked up to. On the next “Focus on the Family,” more than a dozen Christian authors share stories of dad’s impact on their lives.
- Monday, June 17: Learning and Teaching Godly Manhood Men need to be reminded that their identity comes from Jesus Christ! Next time on “Focus on the Family,” we’ll combat toxic masculinity with a message for men about their influence, passion, and the importance of surrendering their lives to God!
- Tuesday, June 18: Living for Christ in a Me-First World Loving yourself may be your number one priority. But God has something better for your life! Next time on “Focus on the Family,” we’ll examine the hollow promises of self-love, and discover how sacrifice, humility, and serving others gives more fulfillment and joy than you could ever imagine!
- Wednesday, June 19: Navigating the Challenges Teens Face - I On the next “Focus on the Family,” youth expert Jim Burns offers help to parents in spiritually training their teens, as he describes the shift from adolescence to adulthood, and the importance of understanding the teen culture. He’ll talk about peer pressure and the wise use of technology, as well.

- Thursday, June 20: Navigating the Challenges Teens Face - II On the next “Focus on the Family,” Jim Daly talks with youth expert Jim Burns, addressing troubled teens and the need for parents to be firm, but loving. They’ll look at the use of electronic media, the epidemics of cyberbullying, drug and alcohol abuse, depression and suicide.
- Friday, June 21: Fun Ways to Pep up Your Marriage On the next “Focus on the Family,” we want to help pep up your marriage! Join us for a delightful conversation with Kathi Lipp — who believes a candy bar, a simple love note, or a new project you work on together can transform your relationship! And that’s just the beginning of her creative ideas!
- Monday, June 24: Choosing the Right Attitude The old saying goes, “Attitude is everything!” and it’s true! On the next “Focus on the Family,” Deborah Pegues [puh-GAY] explains how positive thinking is biblical thinking. You’ll learn ways to embrace God’s promises and focus on His divine perspective. Making these positive choices will help you develop a stronger, more resilient attitude.
- Tuesday, June 25: Staying True to Your Marriage - I Affairs can be prevented. On the next “Focus on the Family,” Dr. Gary Chapman explains the process of infatuation, and how, for married couples, it can lead to an affair, if it’s not quickly addressed. Learn how to overcome those attractions and how to nurture your relationship with your spouse.
- Wednesday, June 26: Staying True to Your Marriage - II You’ve heard of the five love languages, but can they prevent affairs? On the next “Focus on the Family,” Dr. Gary Chapman explains that marriages are most secure when both husband and wife have an emotional love tank that is full – and that happens when they’re loved in a language they understand.
- Thursday-Friday, June 27-28: Raising Boys to Become Good Young Men – I & II On the next “Focus on the Family,” pediatrician Dr. Meg Meeker offers encouragement to mothers for raising godly sons. Dr. Meeker addresses the natural conflict and distancing that will occur between mother and son as he matures, and she admonishes moms not to be overprotective, or to find their identity in their children.
