- Wednesday, February 27: Discovering God’s Freedom from Pornography – I. Imagine growing up in a loving, Christian family and giving your life to ministry. But, you also struggle with pornography. A pastor and his wife describe their painful cycle of confession, forgiveness, and relapse, and how porn put their marriage and ministry at risk.

- Thursday, February 28: Discovering God's Freedom from Pornography – II. Pornography is a deadly trap that will undermine your marriage, threaten your family and destroy your faith. But, you can find freedom. A pastor and his wife reveal how God rescued their marriage and healed their lives.
- Friday, March 1: Building a Spiritual Heritage for Future Generations Grandparents can be a powerful influence for faith and spiritual growth in the family. You'll receive encouragement to share God's love, and inspire and equip children to become bold ambassadors for Jesus Christ.
- Monday-Tuesday, March 4-5: Using Our Words Wisely - I & II. As we interact with the world around us, our words matter. But, our motives and intentions sometimes muddle what we're trying to say. Author Karen Ehman helps us understand how to be more aware of how we're communicating. Through her personal experiences, she shares practical ways to tame the tongue and use words positively.
- Wednesday-Thursday, March 6-7: Motivating Your Kids to Reflect the Character of God - I & II. As a parent, teaching character and motivating change in your child can be a challenge. So, where do you begin? By strengthening the relationship with your child! Dr. Kathy Koch explores practical ways to teach character, just by getting to know your child better.
- Friday, March 8: Making Peace with Unfulfilled Dreams. As a kid, you had big hopes and dreams for your life. And then, reality set in. Chrystal Evans Hurst shares how she had to place her aspirations aside first, as a teenage single mother, then again later in life when she became the breadwinner for her family.
- Monday March 11: Transforming Your Relationship with Your In-Laws. Having issues with your in-laws? There's hope! A mother-in-law and daughter-in-law share how they've set boundaries and maintained peace with both their family and their husbands' families.
- Tuesday-Wednesday, March 12-13: Defeating the Darkness of Abortion – I & II. She knows first-hand the darkness and evil that invades the abortion industry. And now she's telling her story. Kathy Sparks shares her experiences as an abortion clinic nurse — and tells how God led her from darkness into light.
- Thursday, March 14: Pursuing Radical Joy in Christ. Pastor Tim McConnell was never a naturally happy person, so he set out to discover true joy. Tim shares how Christians can and should be the most joyful and happy people on earth, by drawing closer to God and others. He shares inspiring stories of believers, young and old, who have demonstrated true happiness in their own lives.
- Friday, March 15: Taming Your Child's Tongue. What do you do when your child talks back, or embarrasses you? Raising your voice and threatening won't work. Author and speaker Ginger Hubbard provides a better way to deal with negative conduct in a three-step plan. Using Scripture as the foundation, she'll help you get to the heart of the matter.
- Monday, March 18: How to Help Your Angry Child. Have an angry child? Tricia Goyer, mother of ten, has learned a lot about child anger issues, and has struggled with her own anger as a parent. Whether your children are biological or adopted, they exhibit anger in different ways, and it requires great care to deal with it. Tricia offers solutions that work.
